SHOPPING IS SO MUCH EASIER

When it can all be done at one place, and that is the satisfaction that comes to those who come here to do their trading.

If it is anything in the Dry Goods or Notion line, it is here. If it is Millinery, it is here, and in up-to-date styles too. Or if it is a Picture, a Carpet, or a Rug, or a Window Shade, it, too, is here. Or if it is any piece of Furniture, or a Cook Stove, or a Heater, it is here also. Or if it is a Buggy or a Wagon, the same is true. It makes no difference what it is, it is here. So come right along and save yourself the worry of having to shop all over the town.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE

Wednesday, Oct. 18, 1905

—Mrs. T. H. Ketchin has returned from Columbia.

—Mr. J. H. Thornwell, Jr., spent Saturday at Blackstock.

—Miss Margaret H. Rion of Columbia spent Monday in town.

—Miss Bridgman will appear at the Thespian Hall Friday evening.

—Miss Lottie G. Rabb has returned to her school in Florence county.

—Miss A. V. Miller of Richmond, Va., is now in charge of the Western Union Office.

—Mr. J. E. McDonald, Esq., is in attendance upon court in Lancaster this week.

—Mr. J. Q. Davis, Jr., left yesterday to resume his work in Columbia with the State Company.

—Mrs. R. L. Stover of Kershaw has been on a short visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Tennant.

—Rev. Carl S. Matthews of Rapidan, Va., is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. P. Matthews.

—Rev. and Mrs. S. C. Byrd and Mr. A. S. Douglass left yesterday for Rock Hill to attend the South Carolina Synod now in session there.

—Mrs. Sallie LeConte Davis left Saturday morning for her home in Columbia after spending a few days with the family of Mr. J. Q. Davis.

—Mrs. Nan Ragsdale, Mrs. G. W. Ragsdale and Miss Ethel Ragsdale attended the Bland-Holly wedding at Jenkinsville Wednesday evening.

—Mr. E. H. Clark and family, who have been spending the summer in Winnboro, left last night for Crawfords, Ga., where they will visit Mrs. Clark's father.

—Miss Kate Jennings of Columbia, Miss Burnside of Lykesland, S. C., and Miss Phillips of Springfield, S. C., are visiting Miss Mabel Curlee at Greenbrier.

—Mrs. Esther Stewart, of White Oak, spent Sabbath night with Mrs. John Bankhead and left Monday for Atlanta to visit her daughter.—Chester Lantern.

—A full attendance upon the entertainment at the Thespian Hall Friday evening will go far towards making possible other attractions for the long winter evenings.

—Mr. S. C. McDowell has been appointed carrier on Winnboro R. F. D. No. 1 to take the place of Mr. W. D. Tennant, who has accepted a position in the U. S. Mail service.

—Be at the entertainment Eri-pay evening for the sake of the enjoying a pleasant evening with a rare entertainer and also for making possible other entertainments for the long winter evenings.

—Dr. W. B. Lyles spent a short while in Winnboro last week on his way to Rock Hill, where he will practice his profession, having secured the office formerly occupied by the late Dr. Lynn.

—Winnboro will be well represented at the State Fair next week. There is every indication that it will be the largest of these annual gatherings of South Carolinians from all over the State.

—Miss Susie May Cloyd, who has been operator at the Western Union for the past few months left Saturday for her home in Lancaster. Miss Cloyd will be missed by the many friends she made during her short stay in Winnboro.

—Mrs. U. G. DesPortes, Mrs. H. B. Refo, Mrs. Lizzie Adams, Mrs. M. W. Doty, Mrs. W. R. Doty, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Gadsden, Misses Lizzie Curcio, Carrie and Elvise Elliott, and Mr. Fay Allen DesPortes took in the Clansman at the Columbia Theatre Saturday evening.

—There was a small fire near the Fairfield Cotton Mills early Thursday morning. A house belonging to W. H. Porter was completely destroyed. It was occupied by Mr. W. F. Clement whose furniture was partially destroyed. There was some insurance on both the house and the furniture.

—The store news of our enterprising merchants forms a very considerable part of this issue. There is no more profitable news than that which tends to save the reader money. This is the season when there is a great deal of trade and so our advertising columns should be carefully perused so that you may trade the more intelligently.

—We regret very much that we could not accept a kind invitation to be present at the first annual corn shucking and barbecue given by Messrs. Jas. R. Keeler and John J. McManam, at Montgomery Place, Dawkins, Friday evening, October 13, from 2 to 8 p. m. The invitation was to "spend the evening in company with neighbors shucking corn and eating supper". A happy combination.

—Mr. A. M. Owens left last night for the Western markets to purchase a lot of mules. He will have an interesting bit of news for Fairfield farmers next week.

—Opening up a big lot of Cut Glass, High Grade China-ware and other goods suitable for wedding presents. Call and see them. C. M. Chandler.

Minnough's The Place.

There is one place in Columbia, where all Fairfield people know a hearty welcome always awaits them,—and that's at the Mammoth Department Store of J. L. Minnough & Co at the corner of Main and Plain Streets. This is especially true during Fair week, when a special welcome will be extended to all visitors. This big store is such a big part of Columbia that no visitor will have seen the fair in its completeness without spending a part of the time in inspecting the wonderful offerings being made here—wonderful in quantity and variety, but more wonderful still in the low price at which such big values are offered.

Some special bargains in Suits and Overcoats will make it worth while for the men to call; and at the same time their wives, sisters, and daughters can be getting their Winter Cloaks and Suits or taking advantage of the unexcelled opportunity for getting the most stylish Millinery of the season. Their Carpet Department with its immense well selected stock will prove of exceptional interest to all.

The truth is there is not a department in the whole store that is not well worth the time given to inspect it. Visitors will find themselves fully repaid for coming to Columbia, if they do nothing more than take in this big store crowded from top to bottom with bargains in every department. What-ever else you do or don't do while at the State Fair, be sure not to fail to go to Minnough's.

—Lowney's Candies are all O. K. for yourself or for a gift to your friends. G. A. White.

Woodmen of the World.

A special meeting of the Hollywood Chapter 271, Woodmen of the World, will be held next Tuesday evening at 7.30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present for the purpose of attending to some special business.

J. L. Freeman,
Consul Commander.

—Fresh Oysters and Fish to arrive Friday and Saturday. Finest Fresh Meats every day in the week. B. G. Tennant & Co.

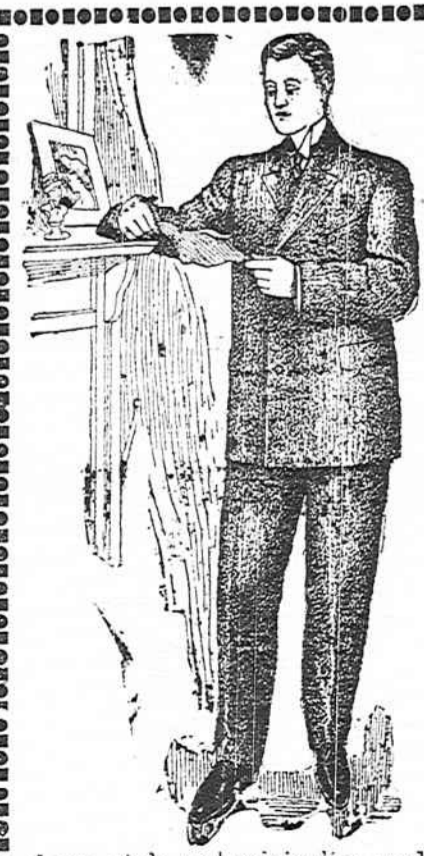

—My line of Cook Stoves and Heaters will interest you. T. M. Haynes.

Honor Roll of Blythewood School.

The following is a list of pupils on the honor roll of the Blythewood school for the past month: Belva Brown, Dessa Brown, Ida Smith, L. Z. Hood, Callie Hood, Ruth Hawley, Estelle Wooten, Meade Hawley, Woodward Hawley, Mike Brown.

—Get your gun ready for the hunting season. Let me repair it for you. All kinds of repair work done promptly. T. M. Haynes.

—Best Candy Bargain in Winnboro, that 25 cents mixture at G. A. White's.

THE BIG STORE

On the Corner by the Town Clock has ready for your inspection over Thirty Thousand Dollars' worth of Dry Goods, Millinery, Shoes, Clothing, Hats, Underwear, Skirts, Jackets, Blankets, etc., etc.

Whatever a man needs, whatever a lady needs, whatever any member of your family needs in wearing apparel we can supply at rock-bottom prices. A great many goods have advanced in price, but our prices are as low, and on some goods lower, than last year. For instance, we are selling while they last, ALL THE BEST CALICOES AT 5c. A YARD. They cost more than that at wholesale in New York now. A great many cotton goods are scarce, and hard to get. You can get all you want here at the lowest prices. Every lady in the county owes it to herself to see our stock of Dress Goods, Silks and Trimmings. No old stock here. Our BIG SALE last February cleaned out ALL OLD GOODS and we have $3,000 worth of THE NEWEST DRESS GOODS to show you. We will please you in the material and please you in the price.

== MILLINERY ==

We did not have a single hat left from last season, so everything is fresh and new. The styles have changed a great deal, and small hats are the latest. This is the place to get the right kind and get them made by expert trimmers. Prices the lowest.

Remember, we give a HANDSOME PREMIUM with every $10.00 cash you spend, and on January 1st we give away over $100.00 in extra prizes. Get one of our circulars and learn all about it.

Your trade solicited.

CALDWELL DRY GOODS COMPANY.

Library Association Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Winnboro Public Library Association this evening at 8 o'clock at the Thespian Hall. A full attendance of all the members is desired.

—Interested in children's clothing or ready-made skirts? Then call on F. M. Clark. He can please you, sure.

New Advertisers.

The DesPortes Mercantile Company use a nice space to-day to tell you how to do well by buying goods that sell.

E. P. & F. A. Davis, a successful Columbia shoe firm, extend an invitation to the people of Fairfield county to trade with them.

J. Wilson Gibbs, the office supply man of Columbia, begins a year's contract in this issue.

—Come this way for your Tin and Agate ware. Some special bargains. T. M. Haynes.

Mr. Matthews Held Up.

Hold-ups in Columbia are getting to be very common. Only three persons were held up Saturday night, one of whom was Mr. J. E. Matthews, who recently moved from Winnboro to accept an important position in the Loan and Exchange Bank. At the point of a pistol Mr. Matthews gave up the last dollar he had—on his person.

—Cook Stove, did you say? R. W. Phillips' is the place to get a first class one at small cost.

FOR RENT—A new and desirable five-room house with stable and garden. J. O. Boag.

FOR SALE—For half original cost, fine Mason & Hamlin Organ. Four sets reeds, sweet tone. Suitable for parlor, Sunday school or church. Good as new. Freight paid. Address Mrs. Chandler, 408 E. Wald-burg St., Savannah, Ga. 2t

FIELD SEEDS

SEED OATS.

We offer several cars of these goods. Tennessee Red Rust Proof, which have given such general satisfaction, and also the celebrated Applo Red Rust Proof, which is the perfection of all Seed Oats and so eagerly sought after by all leading and enterprising planters. They will yield from a quarter or a third more than any other Seed Oat, and will stand more cold weather than any other known varieties.

SEED RYE.

Southern grown, the kind that gives such universal satisfaction.

SEED BARLEY.

Every farmer should plant more or less of it. It makes a good, all round feeding crop and is easily grown.

DWARF ESSEX RAPP.

Easily grown, perfectly hardy and possesses remarkable fattening properties. Pigs, cattle and poultry are very fond of it. Any corn soil will grow rape. From one-half acre there was cut nine and three-fourth tons of green rape, or it yielded at the rate of 19 tons per acre. A splendid investment for any farmer.

SEED WHEAT.

We will have in stock in a few days a large stock of fine Seed Wheat, such as Red May, Blue Stem, Currell's Prolific, Fultz, Fulcaster and other well known varieties.
