LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Wednesday, October 31, 1906.

—Salesday next Monday.
—Mrs. Longstreet Gantt spent Monday in Columbia.

—Misses Lucy Matthews and Carrie Stewart are with the Bee Hive.

—Miss Harriet Moore of Spartanburg spent Sunday with Miss Bessie McMaster.

—The fourth cotton ginning report will include all the cotton ginned to Nov. 1.

—Miss Hattie Sitgreaves has gone to Marion to take charge of a school near there.

—Rev. J. R. McAlpine spent several days in town the past week with his family.

—Mrs. Richard Caldwell of Charleston spent the past week with her mother, Mrs. Eunice Bacot.

—Miss Julia Campbell returned to her home in Beaufort Monday after spending the past week in town with friends.

—Mrs. E. M. Matthews returned to New York yesterday after a week's stay with the family of Mr. R. T. Matthews.

—Everybody went to the fair and met everybody else, had a good time and came back too worn out for the next day's work.

—Miss Bessie Stevenson of Stearns, N. C., who has been spending the past week with relatives and friends in town, returns to her home to-day.

—Miss Mamie Taylor returned to Columbia Monday after having spent a week in town with her aunt, Miss Mary Poole, who has been quite sick.

—There will be special services at the A. R. P. church this week beginning Friday evening. There will be two services on Saturday and also on the Sabbath.

—Special services are being conducted at the Methodist church by the pastor, Henry Stokes. The hours are 4 in the afternoon and 8 in the evening. These services will continue to day and to-morrow.

—Rev. J. Earle Freeman of Long Run spent Monday in town.
His friends in Fairfield regret to learn that he has accepted the call to the church at Ward's. He will leave for his new work about the first of the new year.

—J. Frank, Jr., and Stafford Foshee, who have been with their grand parents at Coronaca for the past three years, came in Monday and will now make their home with their father, who has moved into his cottage on High Street within the past week.

—Miss Mattie Martin has returned to Greenville to the offices of Messrs McCullough and Mc-Swain. She had rendered them such efficient service that after she had gone they missed her so much that they sent for her to come back. The place she had with the Caldwell Dry Goods Company is now being filled by Miss Lizzie Bealy, who is thoroughly to touch with the business in all its details, having been a most successful saleslady for several years.

New Millinery.

I desire to call the attention of the ladies of Fairfield county to the fact that my stock of millinery is being constantly refilled and that I have just received a lot of college hats, the very latest thing out in millinery. I shall be pleased to have them call and see these offerings.
Mrs. J. L. Richmond.

For Over Sixty Years.

Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP has been used for over 60 years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success.
It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain; cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. It will relieve the most little sufferer immediately. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs.
Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

At the Colonial Inn.

Already the tourists for the Colonial Inn are beginning to arrive. There came in last week Mr. and Mrs. Post of Bernardville, N. J., and their two children, Helen and Marion, and their maid. They will probably remain for several weeks. Others are expected to arrive soon and there is every assurance that every available space in this old colonial mansion will be occupied this season. Misses Reynolds and Vanderhoff are giving the Inn their personal attention and things are being put in the very best shape.

How about that last winter suit? Before putting it on, bring it around and let me make it new for you. All work first-class.
How about joining the pressing club? Only one dollar a month and your clothes kept in the best style. Keep your clothes right up to date by having me to do your work for you. Isaiah Benson.

Ode to the Memory of Mrs. E. J.
Yarborough.

She has at last entered where blessings are so sweet,
And Jesus lives with her there;
And by His spirit and blood her cleansings are complete,
And she need never have no fear.

She has at last gone to her home, Gone where the angels stay, Gone to see the loved ones she missed so long,
Oh, how happy she seemed to be.

She is free from all temptations, Free from all our care, Oh, what a joyous salvation And a crown of righteousness she has been given to wear.

Oh, how sad it seemed to be,
So hard for us to hear;
Come, she is dying,
So much we could hardly bear.

When from us a precious form, Which we always tended with such care;
So rudely taken from our bosom, How we long for her in such despair.

Good-bye, children, do not weep for me,
For I am old;
Though sleeping in the low and silent grave,
The Lord knows whom He taketh and whom He giveth.

Around the grave we linger,
And the evening sun is not yet low; But still we feel we have nothing more to live for,
But the form we cherished so.

But in that beautiful city, Where death doesn't grieve;
And some day we too will be called To "Home, Sweet Home."

do you good. There are lots of cotton worsteds on the market that pass as wool.
Let us sell you a Real Wool Suit.

In SHIRTS, COLLARS and TIES we have just what will suit any man of good taste. Also Underwear, either cotton or wool.

we have in the good, solid shapes and in new shapes--soft and hard--to please your eye and price to please your pocket. From $1.50 to $3.00 we sell the best hats made in the United States.

WE LIKE TO TALK SHOES BECAUSE WE KNOW what shoe value is, and furnish the best value whatever grade of shoe you want. We can please you also in all shapes. It is true leather has gone high in price, but we have cut off our profit so as to give you full value.

We take it that you want to save your money and get the best that can be had for the price you pay. Try us on this proposition and we will prove our side of it. CALL ON US.
