CHRISTMAS FESTIVITIES.

A Basket Dinner at Buffalo Church—Santa Claus Remembers the Sunday School Children.

Messrs. Editors: Your correspondent will aid you in filling up your valuable columns this week, if the old folks will remain quiet and stand back long enough with their egg-nogg and Christmas edibles for a hearing. Having gathered thickly around the famous old camp-meeting spot, near Buffalo church, and growing weary in leisurely chat, we entered the house of worship. Instantly our eyes were fixed upon a lonely and lovely cedar bunting over with presents so numerous and pretty that any one present would readily suppose he couldn't have reasonably been overlooked, slighted or forgotten. Presently the noisy spectators, being engaged in laughter and loud converse, were checked into quietude by an impressive prayer offered by Mr. J. W. Robinson in thanksgiving and praise. Miss Sallie Abell, of Cedar Creek, and Miss Emma Entzinger, of Blythehood, added greatly to the hour as they performed on a well-tuned piano, accompanied by many cultured voices in sacred song. Readers of THE NEWS AND HERALD, let me venture to say it was as good music of the kind as ever thrilled the air south of Mason & Dixon's line. In the meanwhile Dr. Thos. F. Broom, who responded, suggesting a proper use of the holidays, etc. The purport of his remarks implied this—more reverence and less frolicsome pleasure in the observance of Christmas. He was taken by surprise, and did so well that we shall post him next time. At 2 p. m., we dined in the church; and we would advise all bachelors to become more social and call early and often among our fair sex to learn how to live. This feast being more than satisfactory, and a social hour or two having passed, some left for their homes, while the majority of the young people proceeded at once to Holly Dale. This school is under the supervision of Miss E. H. Roe, of Chester, an accomplished scholar and excellent teacher. Here we were entertained by her well-disciplined scholars with poetry of taste, dialogues, etc. The Rev. J. W. Entzinger, choosing "Education" as a subject of discussion, left many points for us to review.

Long will the Cedar Crookers recall with pleasure the Christmas Tree at Buffalo and Holly Dale, and may I, in addition, remark that the combination present I received at school—though little in value—will be occasionally wondered at, near HOLLY GROVE.

A TRAVELER'S SMART TRICK.—Among the persons who purchased tickets at the Union ticket office yesterday was an elderly lady whose destination was St. Paul, Minn. Save the presence of a small dog, which she declared she was going to take with her, the lady was alone. After securing a check for her baggage the lady and her dog entered the ladies' coach, where the former took a seat while the latter crouched down at her feet. Soon after this a conversation, the lady's attitude in her hand entered the coach, and noticing the dog, started to drive it out. The old lady objected, but the train hand would not yield, although he saw the dog's mistress in tears. Fortunately, a commercial tourist, who had been a silent witness to the entire conversation, stepped up and asked the train hand to let the dog remain until he would return. The train hand complied, and the tourist left the coach in a hurry. In about fifteen minutes he returned bearing a cheap valise in his hand, which he opened. After cutting a large hole in the side he placed the dog in the valise, and pulling his head through the hole, closed the valise. With a smile he deposited the valise on the seat by the old lady and quietly laughed when the train hand came back to "kick the dog out."—Atlanta Constitution.

A Sailor's Luck.

A short time since we announced that the circular of the November drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery, from St. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La., stated that two-fifths of the second capital prize of $25,000, amounting to $10,000, had been drawn in Newburyport. This morning we received a letter saying: "The Louisiana State Lottery Company report that two-fifths of the second capital—that is $10,000—was sold to Charles Mowatt, of the schooner 'Lury May,' Newburyport."—Newburyport, Mass., Herald, Dec. 2.

Goods to Give Away.

Christmas has come and gone; the holiday season has passed away, and still we have a full stock of goods left. Most of the finest and prettiest are still on hand, which we offer to sell at more moderate prices still. Many bought beautiful things of us and gave them away as Christmas presents. It is now our time to make presents, and we propose to present a fine china cup and saucer to every one who buys as much as ten dollars' worth from us at one time, cash down. Call our attention to this when you make your purchase. Although you may not hear from us for several months to come, remember we keep a good stock of the various articles in our line, such as watches and chains, gold, silver and nickel; clocks—calendar, fine walnut, etc.; crockery—fine granite and majolica. Jewelry of every description—ladies' sets, plain and stone rings, bracelets, necklaces, cuff buttons and pins, lockets, charms, bangles, etc. Silver and plated ware, comprising most of the articles needed in making up an elegant household. Fine glassware suited for table and toilet decoration. Gold pens, pen-sticks and pencils. Spectacles and eye-glasses, in gold, silver and steel. Lamps and lanterns, fine and common. Violins and violin trimmings. Watches, clocks and jewelry neatly repaired and warranted.
