AGRICULTURE.

TURNING STOCK OUT TO GRASS.—It is sometimes a question of considerable importance when to turn stock from their winter quarters to summer pastures. If a field is to be stocked to nearly its full capacity, it is best to keep the cattle in the barnyard until the pasture has become nicely started, or three or four inches tall. Something depends, however, upon the kinds of grasses in the pasture. Some kinds of grasses become tough if allowed to grow to much size, and are not relished by stock. This is especially true of June grass, or blue grass, which when young and tender makes the best of pasture. Clover or timothy on moderately rich land will be eaten readily by stock if left to reach considerable size; either will be preferred when growing on moderately fertile land to that which is very rich. It is advisable, when not too inconvenient, to give milch cows, as well as other cattle, the pasture both day and night. I like to have two pasture fields, and to give the cattle a change from one to the other occasionally. This gives the grass an opportunity to "freshen up" in the one while unoccupied, and at the same time makes the stock more contented. Four or five days after turning stock out to grass, it is a good plan to give them daily a ration of grain, which will usually prevent derangement of the system consequent on the sudden change from dry food to succulent grass. There is no date which can be fixed as the best time to turn stock to grass. The weather and the amount of pasture for the animals must determine this.

THE Toulouse goose is one of the most popular, on account of its size, early development good laying quality and tender and well-flavored flesh. In color, the breast and abdomen are light gray, the back dark gray; the neck darker gray than the back; wings and abdomen shading off to white; under part of the body white. The skin of the breast, and abdomen show a tendency to hang down in folds, nearly touching the ground. This detracts much from the market value of the breed, as it gives the impression of greater age than the goose may actually possess. The bill of the Toulouse goose is pale flesh-color, and the legs and feet deep orange, inclined to red. It is easily fattened, sometimes reaching the enormous weight of fifty or sixty pounds to the pair, while its cross with the common goose is thought to be even larger than the pure breed. For breeding, only two or three geese should go with the Toulouse gander. The geese produce thirteen to fifteen eggs each. After the goose has sat a day or two thirteen eggs should be given. The period of incubation is from twenty-eight to thirty days.

A WRITER says: "There is scarcely a farmer who does not plant a larger acreage than he can profitably attend to and the result is that three acres hardly crop out so much as one ought to, and we hear of twenty, thirty or forty bushels of corn to the acre where it ought to be sixty to one hundred bushels, and if the time spent on twenty acres was spent on ten, and the manure dribbled on twenty were judiciously used on the ten, there would be ten acres to put in grass, set to enriching itself and at the same time making splendid pasturage for a half score of yearlings, besides realizing fully as much corn as in the old-style way, and instead of plowing the corn only two or three times we had better plow it six times. Now I know whereof I speak. During a drought several years ago a certain farmer bade his boys plow the corn seven times that summer, and while the neighbors' cribs were very lean that year his crop was the largest ever gathered on that farm."

EXPERIMENTS at the Canadian Model Farm show that a cow previous to calving should be confined to a straw and hay diet and completely dried off; that the milking periods should be only once a day for awhile, then once in two days, and prolonging the intervals as long as it is safe to do so.

HAWKS have a partiality for a tall pole, from whence they can survey the field before seizing their prey. The knowledge of this propensity of the hawk by the farmers sometimes induces the latter to erect poles at certain locations, at the top of which are fastened steel spring traps, which close when the hawks alight on them.

A GREAT many fields, especially those long and narrow, are always plowed the same way. Simply changing the direction of working will often make a great increase in productiveness. The furrow cut across the old lines of furrows is not stopped by the same stones, while new soil is opened to the growth of plant roots.

WHEN rye is turned under as green manure, it should be plowed just before the stem and head appear. At this time the leaves are full of sap and the whole mass is decomposed very rapidly. If the field is left until the straw forms, decomposition depends on the weather, and a very dry Summer may leave some unchanged till Fall.

A POTATO that has been chilled is totally unfit for seed. Farmers are often at a loss to know why their potatoes do not sprout; when the solution of the mystery would be found in the fact that they were chilled before planting.

IN fruit growing, remember that fruits are like grain and vegetable crops in this, they must have manure to keep up fertility. Unlike vegetables and grain, however, their feeding roots are mostly at the surface. It is best, therefore, annually to top-dress fruit trees.

SAMUEL MILLER, of Missouri, to the end of increasing the crops of potatoes when seed is new and high-priced, plants the tubers in boxes early by a stove and starts the sprouts, and when three inches in height they are removed and set out, and the operation continued several times.

ONE of the best crosses between fowls is the mating of a Houdan cock and Brahma hen, which produces not only an unusually large fowl but also an excellent class of laying hens. The cross also combines hardiness, early maturity, and quick feathering.

ARBOR day was a great success in Nebraska this year, so far as heard from. It is safe to say that over 5,000,000 trees were planted in the State.

SHELTER and warmth, with regularity in feeding, are essential to success in the management of cattle.

DOMESTIC.

TO WASH SHETLAND SHAWLS.—Make up a thin lather of boiled soap and water: plunge the shawl in this, and gently strip it through the hand. It must never be rubbed or wrung. When clean, rinse through water without any soap, hang it up for about a minute, shake it gently by each side alternately, pin it out on a sheet exactly square, and if the shawl be of a fine texture it should be slightly sewed down the sheet by the top of the fringe to prevent its running up; then go over the whole fringe, drawing each thread separate and laying it straight out. If these directions are carefully attended to, the shawls may be washed many times, and each time appear as well as when new. They should never be put into the hands of any but those those who are accustomed to wash lace.

Uncle Sam's Navy.

In a communication published in the Army and Navy Journal, Commander J. B. Coghlan, U. S. N., states that the consultations of eminent naval and other surgeons, respecting his rheumatic attack, failed to afford him the slightest relief. By advice of Dr. Hoyle he used St. Jacob's Oil, which wrought a complete and, as he says, wonderful cure. John Carr Moody, Esq., lawyer at Vallejo, Cal., was likewise cured of a severe joint trouble.

CHARLOTTE RUSSE.—Soak one ounce of gelatine in a pint of milk for half an hour, then dissolve the same by placing the vessel containing the gelatine and milk in a hot pot of water, that it may not burn while heating. Next, beat the yelk of one egg and pour it into the milk and gelatine when hot; strain it into a bowl and while cooling it beat it thoroughly. Next, flavor one quart of cream with one large teaspoonful of extract of vanilla and sugar to suit the taste, beat the white of the egg to a stiff froth; stir the cream and egg together and beat to a light froth with an egg beater. Next, pour the two mixtures together and whip them thoroughly; pour into moulds lined with lady-finger. Do not pour into molds until the mixture is stiff enough to prevent the cakes from rising to the surface.

Our Best Families.

I have been troubled for over six years with a severe kidney complaint, also a weakness of the urinary organs, with its attendant troubles. My water needed constant attention, some days as many as twenty times, with severe pains in the bladder, as well as in the back and loins. At times I passed a limited quantity of urine, highly colored with unnatural heat and sediment; frequently evacuations would be very painful. I concluded that I must do something for it, fearing that more serious trouble would follow. I went to the druggist and was recommended to use Hunt's Remedy, as it had been used with wonderful success in several severe cases of dropsy and kidney and bladder affections here in Bangor. I concluded to try it, and before I had used one bottle found it was helping me beyond my expectations. My water became more natural, less color and sediment, the pains in back and that heavy feeling gone, with a general toning up of the system; and I continued to use it until I used six bottles, and it has completely cured me. Others of my family have used Hunt's Remedy with equally as good success, and we do not hesitate to recommend it far and near, believing it a duty as well as a pleasure to recommend so good a medicine as Hunt's Remedy. You are at liberty to give my testimony to the public. D. T. HODGDEN.

I indorse the above statement.

CHOWDER made of haddock may be excellect if proper care is taken in the making. The fish must be in good condition, fresh and firm; clean it and cut it in small square pieces; place in the bottom of the kettle in which the chowder is to be made some thin slices of salt pork; fry these until they are brown, then put a layer of onions which have been sliced very thin and browned in a saucepan with a little butter; then put a layer of sliced potatoes, then a layer of the fish, and so on until the material is exhausted. Cover with water and let it boil for half an hour, then add a pint of cracker-crumbs and a pint of milk; let this come to a boil. Serve hot. Of course pepper and salt are essential to this dish; put them in ad libitum.

Don't let any one convince you that those pains around your heart are not heart disease, they are, do not delay but procure Dr. Graves' Heart Regulator. 30 years have proved its value.

A SUBSTITUTE FOR SANDWICHES.—Boil a good home-cured ham in water enough to cover it for three hours. Take off the skin and set in a moderate oven three-quarters of an hour, basting frequently with two tablespoonfuls of sugar dissolved in a cup of sherry wine. This must be cooked the day before it is wanted. Cut a square, solid piece, without bone and wrap it tightly in a napkin. Mix two tablespoonfuls of mustard with a teaspoonful of sugar, a pinch of cayenne and a little tarragon vinegar. Provide a loaf of white and a loaf of brown bread, a jar of fresh butter and a sharp knife.

So she bought Carboline

COOLING WATER WITHOUT ICE.—Ice is not to be procured in Mexico, and ice water would be a most injurious beverage there, even if it could be had. Yet the water used for drinking purposes has to be cooled in order to make it palatable, and the way it is done is to cover the receptacle with one or two thicknesses of blanket, saturate the covering and hang the whole in a draughty place away from the sun. The result is cool water.

"Wells' Health Renewer" restores health and vigor cures Dyspepsia, Impotence, Sexual Debility. $1.

VINEGAR.—To make vinegar from cider, put a pound of sugar into a gallon jar, filling it up with cider. It must be well shaken, and then left for three or four months to ferment, when it will be ready for use. It must not be tightly corked, but should be covered over with a piece of writing paper pricked.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, INDIGESTION, depression of spirits and general debility, in their various forms; also as a preventive against fever and ague and other intermittent fevers, the "Ferro-Phosphorated-Elixir of Calisaya" made by Caswell, Hazadr & Co., New York, and sold by all Druggists, is the best tonic; and for patients recovering from fever or other sickness, it has no equal.

HUMOROUS.

"I DON'T care about staying at home all summer," said Mrs. Fogg; "but when folks are coming back from the mountains and shore this fall it will make me feel so cheap to think I can't say I've been away, too." "You can, if you want to," replied Fogg; "tell them you have been to the Rocky Mountains, to Europe, to the North Pole, anywhere you like." "Yes, and when they begin to ask questions about the places I have seen, what am I going to say to them?" "Don't fret yourself on that score. They'll all be so busy talking of their own doings and sight-seeings that there won't be any questions for you to answer."

People Grow Bilious

Scarcely less often from imprudence in diet, and failure to avoid other causes which aggravate natural tendency to biliousness, than from the use of ill chosen remedies. The violent cathartics injure the bowels by weakening them, but have no specific action upon the liver. The aperient operation of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is widely different from the abrupt effect of drastic purgatives, half triturated blue pill, and potent but injurious calomel. It initiates a natural and healthful change in the habit of body, stimulates the liver to renewed activity in the performance of its bile-secreting function, promotes digestion, and manifests its efficiency by the removal of the unpleasant sensations, yellowness of the skin, nausea and furred tongue which accompany liver disorder. Fever and ague and bilious remittent fever, which are always attended with chronic disorder of the biliary organ, are prevented and relieved by it, and it is a medicine of standard excellence in cases of rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles and debility.

WHY HE WAS FINED: "Why did you strike this man?" asked a Justice of the Peace of a prisoner. "I had sufficient cause, your honor. He came to my house the other day on a visit. He criticised my children, and laughed at my daughter's singing, turned up his nose at a fish I had caught, and put my wife to a great deal of trouble at dinner time, and—" "But all that gave you no excuse to strike him with a stick of stove-wood." "I know, but let me get through. After dinner he began to talk on the tariff question. Then I hit him." "Tariff, eh? I fine you $10 for not shooting him."

Horrible Catalogue.

Indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, colic, cholera morbus, fevers, skin diseases, diabetes, Bright's disease, liver complaint, ague cases, neuralgia, rheumatism, ulcers, boils, suppressed menses, piles, jaundice, scurvy, scrofula, worms, headache, consumption, cancer and insanity. All have small beginnings preceded by local congestion of some part, produced by impure blood and irregular action of the liver and digestive organs and all can be absolutely and infallibly prevented if taken in time by "St. Bernard's Vegetable Pills," the oldest, best and most celebrated blood purifier in existence. All druggists sell them.

"PHILIP," said the President, "it exasperates me exceedingly that this wind, blowing along the river, should have put a stop to our piscatorial adventurers. But, Philip, do you know why this wind is like Mr. Blaine's chances for the nomination?" "I don't see the slightest resemblance," said the Lieutenant General. "Why, Philip, it's because it will soon pass away. The resemblance is very striking, Philip." "That's a fact!" cried Philip. "Look here Mike, you'd better put that in your next telegram." The entire Presidential party then went in out of the gale to partake of some new bear meat.

Walnut Leaf Hair Restorer.

It is entirely different from all others. It is as clear as water, and as its name indicates is a perfect Vegetable Hair Restorer. It will immediately free the head from all dandruff, restore gray hair to its natural color, and produce a new growth where it has fallen off. It does not in any manner affect the health, which sulphur, sugar of lead and nitrate of silver preparations have done. It will change light or faded hair in a few days to a beautiful glossy brown. Ask your druggist for it. Each bottle is warranted. SMITH, KLINE & CO., Wholesale Agents, Philadelphia, Pa. and C. N. CRITTENTON, New York.

"I HAVE been with you now three months," said the junior clerk, "and I think I ought to have a salary something nearly commensurate to my services." "H'm!" replied his employer; "well, times haven't been very good; you haven't had much to do, you know. Couldn't think of giving you more than fifty dollars a month." Clerk—"Beg pardon, sir; I am not to blame because you haven't done business enough to keep me busy. I expect to get paid for what I know, not for what I do." Employer—"Oh! That puts the matter in a new light. I shall give you five dollars a month hereafter."

"Oh, you do?" returned the lady, quickly, taking down a box from the shelf; "try a pair of these calf-skins!"

Would you try it if you were me?" "No, sir—no, sir, I wouldn't think of such a thing. A man who hasn't been in a bath tub for a year, nor had on a clean shirt for a month, wouldn't stand the ghost of a show with a whirlpool. You'd better go and tackle a drink of water and gradually work up to it."

Among my recent importations are the WINNER of first prize GRAND GOLD MEDAL in the 4 years old HEAVY draft stallion class at the concours hippique regional at Caen June 17th, 1882 (590 horses at the show).
The WINNER of first PRIZE GRAND GOLD MEDAL in 4 years old draft stallion class at same place.
The winner of FIRST GRAND GOLD MEDAL in the 4 years heavy draft mare class at same place. Also, second PRIZE WINNER in the last class and third prize winner in the 4 years old heavy draft stallion class. Further 4 of the 7 stallions that took the "grand objet of art" for best herd of draft horses at Caen. Also, three winners of GOLD MEDALS at St. Lo in 1882 and "6 other prizes" taken at "Mortagne, Alençon and Pervenchères." QUALITY not QUANTITY is what I look for. No second, third or fourth grade stock imported by me; unique advantages in purchasing allow me to sell a first class animal 20 per cent cheaper than strangers are obliged to pay in France. To the three first callers at J. C. I sold 7 head. My agricultural machine business in France keeps me in direct contact with the breeders "all the year round." Have now over 1300 stallions listed, from which I can select at a moment's notice without any extra expense whatever. Send for catalogue giving full particulars or call and judge for yourselves. Every body welcome.

HEALTH IS WEALTH.
Health of Body is Wealth of Mind
DR. RADWAY'S
Sarsaparillian Resolvent.
THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.
Pure blood makes sound flesh, strong bone and a clear skin. If you would have your flesh firm your bones sound without caries, and your complexion fair, use
Radway's Sarsaparillian Resolvent.
A remedy composed of ingredients of extraordinary medical properties, essential to purify, heal, repair and invigorate the broken-down and wasted body—QUICK, PLEASANT, SAFE and PERMANENT in its treatment and cure.
No matter by what name the complaint may be designated, whether it be scrofula, consumption, syphilis, ulcers, sores, tumors, boils, erysipelas, or salt rheum, diseases of the lungs, kidneys, bladder, womb, skin, liver, stomach or bowels, either chronic or constitutional, the virus is in the Blood which supplies the waste and builds and repairs these organs and wasted tissues of the system. If the blood is unhealthy, the process of repair must be unsound.
The Sarsaparillian Resolvent
Not only is a compensating remedy, but secures the harmonious action of each of the organs. It establishes throughout the entire system functional harmony and supplies the blood vessels with a pure and healthy current of new life. THE SKIN, after a few days' use of the Sarsaparillian, becomes clear and beautiful. Pimples, blotches, black spots and skin eruptions are removed; sores and ulcers soon cured. Persons suffering from scrofula, eruptive diseases of the eyes, mouth, ears, legs, throat and glands, that have accumulated and spread, either from uncured diseases or mercury, or from the use of corrosive sublimate, may rely upon a cure if the Sarsaparillian is continued a sufficient time to make its impression on the system.
One bottle contains more of the active principles of Medicines than any other Preparation. Taken in teaspoonful doses, while others require five or six times as much.
One Dollar a Bottle.
