Odds Offered on Cleveland-What Quay Says in Private-Colored Men Turning Democrats-Tariff Reform Growing. (Correspondence Philadelphia Times.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 .- The announce ment of a big bet on the result of the na-tional political contest or the serious offer of a responsible man to make one creates more comment here and is received as possessing more significance than the oracular utterance of leading statesmen of either an exciting tussle, by the order of Poice party. This evening in the St. James Ho-Sergeant Dawson, will give the public tel, among a throng of political wranglers, it was mentioned that the night before, in Brown's famous chop house, a son of Phil Armour, the Chicago millionaire, had offered to bet $5,000 even that Harrison to repeat the wager."

possesses a greater significance than attaches to the ordinary wager. Rickey, although a director of the bank in the town is which he lives, is the best known non-professional he lives, is the best known non-professional sporting man in America. With him betting is not a sentiment. He hazsrds his money on the face of a coin, on the speed of a horse, on the popularity of a candidate, with a coolness born of judgment. Four years ago he bet in one day $18,000 on Cleveland's election. He wagered alto gether $30,000 on the result of that canvass and won $26,000.

WHY HE IS WILLING TO BET. When asked upon what he based his prophecy of Cleveland's election, he said: "My reasons are many. In the first place, Samuel J. Tilden had an axiom that a party in power is 25 per cent. better off than the party not in power. If Cleveland could win four years ago with an administration against him, how can he lose now? That is the practical way to look at the matter.

Now everything is in his favor. Four years ago the Democrats of New York city were disunited, and Grant, the candidate for Sheriff, received more than 30,000 more votes than Cleveland. Now that condition of affairs is changed. I will make repeated bets of $300 to $1,000 that Cleveland will carry New York, Indiana, New Jersey and Connecticut. I believe, and not from idle rumor, that there will be a political revolution in the Northwest; and I consider Iowa, Illinois, Minnesota, Michigan and Wiscon-sin all debatable States. Eight years ago Iowa gave Garfield over 40,000 majority, and four years ago I bet $1,000 it would not give Blaine 20,000 majority, and it did not. This may all seem wild talk, but my money talks exactly as I do." Here is a great chance for some Philadelphia Republican capitalist. By the way, I should warn them that Chairman Quay, who is expected to return here tomorrow is not talking as big in private as he is in public. He has said to a near friend that while he thinks Pennsylvania is certain to give 60,000 majority for Harrison, the general result is in doubt, and that the fight, to use his own expression, "will be at the heel of the race.

THE NEGROES TURNING DEMOCRATS. been doing vigorous Democratic work groes will vote the Democratic national ticket this election. "At least fifty negroes in Indiana have asked to be allowed to do campaign duty under the auspices of the Democratic Committee, and in Illinois Palmer will be elected not admitted that his lather's letters had in dicated in so many words his intention to vote for Cleveland and Thurman.—N. Y. Sun. Governor. Fifer will fail to hold the vote of a respectable number of white Republicans. The negroes are especially in favor of Palmer on account of his having insisted that their children should have equal privileges with the children of the whites. The thinking negroes are deeply interested in the tariff question. They know that a reduction from 47 per cent. to 42 per cent. is not free trade. They know that a reduction from 47 per cent. to 42 per cent. is not free trade. They know that a reduction from 47 per cent. Clifton R. Breckenridge, of Arkansas, member of the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives, was at the National Democratic headquarters this morning. He said that he had been speaking in Maryland and New Jersey, and on Saturday night in the lower part of New York. Speaking of the political prospects, he said:

THE WORKINGMEN AGAINST TRUSTS. "The outlook is good. Our friends all speak in the most encouraging manner They realize that our opponents are making the most desperate efforts to get up a foolish scare among the laboring people, but they say the laboring men clearly understand now that the reduction of the surplus as proposed by President Cleveland and formulated by the Democrats in the House of Representatives will greatly help them, instead of hurting them. They see that free raw materials and a reduction of the monopoly part of the tariff, that part which is not needed to command a home market and which is only desired by trusts and combinations to oppress the home mar ket, will not only increase the purchasing power of wages, but also increase the days of labor and the amount of each day's wages. Our friends also report that very large accessions are being made from the most conscientious and intelligent elements of the Republican party. They see that what President Cleveland is trying to do is only trying to keep, even in small part, the pledges of every responsible element of the Republican party up to a few years ago, and is what they then said, as they now fully assured of success. Our stock know, would be beneficial to all the wage workers and consumers in the country and conducive to stability and a really healthy condition for capital and to a clean and economical administration of the govern-

RED HOT IN INDIANA.

The Campaign Taking On an Angry Aspect Broken Heads Looked For.

Indianapolis, Sept. 25.—As the campaign grows older each day witnesses party lines drawn a little more tightly. Even now a man's politics in Indiana is a matter of first consideration in many of the everyday affairs of business and domestic life. The incident on Saturday night before the new Dennison Hotel, when a Chicago drummer was waving his campaign um-brella and cheering for Harrison and Mor-ton while the big Democratic procession was passing; the seizure of the drummer by two policemen, who feared he was about to precipitate a riot, and his release, after Sergeant Dawson, will give the public some conception of how heated the campaign is growing.

This incident has set the entire police force of the city by the ears. The two patrolmen who seized the City ago drumpatrolmen who seized the City ago drumpatrolmen who seized the City and the control of the city and the

would be elected. Instantly Joseph K. Rickey, of Fulton, Mo., pulled from a pocket a certified check for $8,000 on the Madison Square Bank of this city, and ex. Captain Colbert, who is a Democrat, appeared on the scene, somewhat excited, "I will give $50 to any man who will and vehemently condemned Sergeant Dawbring young Armour here and induce him son for interfering, and suspended him from the force on the spot. Dawson at first was inclined to refuse to consider him-Several young men made a run towards first was inclined to refuse to consider him-the Brunswick Hotel, where young Armour self suspended, his ground being that he is staying, but they did not return. After was at his post, specially detailed by the waiting awhile, Rickey authorized his Superintendent of Police, whereas Captain friends to announce that he would bet Colbert had been detailed to march at the $8,000 to $7,000 that Cleveland would be head of the procession with his squad, and the head of the column was then several Corning from the man it does this bet squares distant. Dawson finally submitted to suspension, but was reinstated yesterday by Superintendent Travis.

Captain Colbert (Dem.) this afternoon filed formal charges against Sergeant Dawson (Rep.), alleging insubordination. He also charges Captain Campbell (Rep.), who was not on duty at the time, with encouraging Dawson in his disorderly conduct. The accused officers will have a hearing next Monday before the full Board of Police Commissioners.

Nearly a hundred witnesses have already bids fair to increase the growing partisanship of the citizens as well as the members of the police force. The least volunteered to appear before the Board on of the police force. The local papers are taking sides on the issue and denouncing each other vigorously.

Chairman Jewett of the State Democratic Committee, is out in an interview on the subject, saying: "Our people have treated the Republicans respectfully heretofore, but after this affair of Saturday night, for of Botanic Blood Balm I had my generwhich we hold General Harrison to account, al health greatly improved, and if I because his guests caused the trouble, we could keep out of the bad weather I shall not feel that we are responsible for anything that may happen."

If this spirit does not wear off before the next big demonstration the public may look for reports of broken heads, for both sides are carrying chips on their shoulders. General George A. Sheridan addressed a large audience at Tomlinson's hall last night. Solon Chase, of Maine, the Greenbacker, opened his canvass for the Republican ticket at Plymouth yesterday. Anna Dickiuson spoke at Terre Haute last night, General Bussey at Seymour, General F.

W. Palmer at La Porte, Major Pangborn at La Grange, C. H. Lichtman at Greensburg; while Fred Douglass, Corporal Tanner, Judge Albion W. Tourgee and a host of other Republicans spoke at other points.
Major McKinley, Congressman Reed, Senators Sherman and Hoar, General Gibson and other national oastors are expected in the State at an early day.

On the Democratic side the showing is equally strong in numbers and talent. Senator Turple arrived from Washington pointments.
