

READ THIS: Our canvassing agent, Mr. J. S. McCreight, is making a tour of the county and will call upon our subscribers to solicit new subscriptions. He is authorized to receive for all dues to this paper and to receive new subscriptions and orders for our job presses. If your paper has been coming irregularly please make it known to him and the cause will be investigated as far as possible. We are constantly adding to our facilities in the job business, in the purchase of type and machinery, and have put our prices down at compelling rates. When anything is needed in our line give us a chance and we will make every effort to please both in work and price. Having accepted the agency of a bindery we are prepared to receive orders for binding magazines and other pamphlets, and also for rebinding old but valuable books. Don't forget us. DAVIS & BRICE.

CONCERNING OF A DOG AND SACK OF FLOUR.—On Wednesday Silas Paulling was before Trial Justice Cathcart, charged with obstructing goods under false pretences. Silas had given Mr. Yongue Robertson a dog in exchange for a sack of flour, the dog not belonging to Silas, as was held by the prosecution. The jury found him guilty and he was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and the costs, or go to jail for twenty days. An appeal was taken by his attorneys, Ragsdale & Ragsdale. Ober & Rion appeared for the prosecution.

THAT WATERMELON.—It has been customary with this paper for some years to offer a year's subscription to any person bringing in the largest watermelon. This year only three made a contest, their names and the weights being given below: B. G. Tennant, two melons—45½ and 45½ lbs. E. F. Neil, one melon—46 lbs. R. R. Park, one melon—48 lbs. Mr. Park having the largest melon, his name has been entered for one year's subscription. Others brought us some melons, but they were not intended for the contest. To all such we return our thanks.

THIN HAIR THICKENED, baldness cured, and gray hair made to return to its youthful color by the use of Hall's Vegetable Siletian Hair Restorer. A WORTHY EXAMPLE.—The citizens of White Oak, pat. patriotically appreciating the duty of all survivors of the Confederacy, have determined to do all in their power to the erection of a monument to Gen. "Dick" Anderson, and one to the Confederate dead at this place. With this object in view they have determined to have a hot supper at White Oak on the 16th inst., the proceeds of which will be divided half and half between Anderson fund and the monument association of this county. This is a worthy example which should be followed in other portions of the county.

CAMPAIGN FUNDS.—We are not aware to what extent Democrats in the county have contributed to the campaign fund individually, but the information that one at least had sent on his quota, which was indeed a generous contribution, outside of the regular collection fund, is cheering. We refer to Mr. R. H. Jennings, who, not knowing of the contemplated subscription, of his own accord sent five dollars to Treasurer Canda. This action was eminently patriotic and should we all have done as much according to our means, Fairfield would be the banner contributing county of the State.

REV. MOORE NOT DRUNK.—Rev. Alfred Moore, colored, whose name appeared in these columns sometime ago in what was termed a "drunken debauch," has been up before his conference on the charge, and he produced a certificate from a reputable physician that he had long been a sufferer from neuralgia, and having taken for several days a large quantity of quinine, it had practically crazed him, and caused him to act as he did. We had no intention of injuring the character of this colored man, and simply reported what was the common rumor on the streets. But since a physician has given him his professional opinion we cheerfully state the after-learned facts of the case.

MAJ. PAGAN'S RECOLLECTIONS.—Maj. Pagan has for some years been publishing in the Chester Bulletin some interesting letters about people and affairs in the counties of York, Chester and Lancaster. The Major's experience covers a long number of years, and he has written his recollection about historical and personal matters of interest in these counties in a most entertaining style. He has decided to publish a book entitled "Recollections of Maj. Jas. Pagan," and subscription blanks are now being circulated. We feel certain that this book will be an interesting addition to the history of these counties, and that a liberal subscription will be obtained.

THE TRUE METHOD.—Of curing habitual constipation, and liver and kidney ills, is to avoid the use of the bitter drastic medicines and cathartics, and to take only the pleasant liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. It cleanses as well as strengthens the system, and does not leave the bowels constive, so that regular habits may be formed, and the invalid permanently restored to health. It acts promptly and effectively; it is easily taken, and perfectly harmless.

PERSONAL.—W. L. McDonald, of Yorkville, was in town on Monday. W. D. Douglass left for Columbia this morning after a short visit here. The Governor has appointed Maj. T. W. Woodward a delegate to the American Forestry Convention to be held in Atlanta November 29. Mr. Ulysses G. Desportes, who has been confined to his bed for some time, is again upon the streets.

ALLIANCE.—The Shady Grove Alliance held a large and interesting meeting on the 3rd inst. There were several members initiated and several applications for membership. S. R. Johnston was elected treasurer for this Alliance. The members expressed themselves as being greatly benefited by their membership. The next meeting will be held at White Oak on the 17th inst., at 10 A. M. A full attendance is requested.

CONTRIBUTIONS.—The voluntary contributions from this place and other sections of the county amounted to $74.85. This amount has been placed in the hands of the National Committee at New York. We wish it had been possible for us to have sent a larger sum; but times are hard, people are dependent and under the circumstances, we think the contribution a fairly good one. The Democrats of Ridgeway sent in their contributions direct to Capt. Dawson. We have not learned the amount.

IMPROVEMENTS.—McMaster, Brice & Ketchin have determined to do business on the cash plan, and have out an opening in the middle of their store where the cashier's desk will be situated. This is the first movement of the kind in town, and being the most accurate way of doing business, their example will doubtless be followed by other merchants.

LAYING THE CORNER-STONE. Impressive Ceremonies—Proceedings in Detail. According to the published information the cornerstone of the new Episcopal Church was laid with impressive ceremonies on Friday evening. Quite a number of our citizens were present to attest their interest and hearty good will in the building of this temple dedicated to the service of God.

NOVEMBER WEATHER.—Mr. J. M. Grant, the Chester prophet, has sent us the following predictions for November. As this matter is always an interesting one we publish his predictions: 1 fair and windy; frost. 2 and 3 changeable from fair to cloudy and windy; frost. 4 fair; killing frost. 5 and 6 fair and frost. 7 nearly cloudy, 8 fair and windy, 9 fair and slight frost. 10 partly cloudy, 11 and 12 fair and warm, 13 cloudy, 14 fair and windy—heavy frost, 15 fair and frosty, 16 and 17 partly cloudy, 18 fair and windy, 19 fair, windy, and very cold, 20 partly cloudy and some warmer, 21 nearly cloudy, 22 partly cloudy, 23 partly morning, 24 fair and frosty, 25 partly cloudy, 26 fair and windy, 27 fair and beautiful, 28 rain, then fair followed by a cold wave, 29 and 30 fair and high winds from the west and northwest. The wave will run into December.

SALESDAY.—November salesday was not attended by such a crowd as is usual in the fall, but the number was sufficient to give the streets an extra lively appearance. The Clerk's sales were as follows: E. M. Shannon vs. Jas. W. Bankhead, administrator, et al., 412 acres—bought by E. M. Shannon for $900. P. C. Mellichamp vs. Marion R. Mellichamp, et al., 165 acres—bought by T. G. and R. A. Patrick for $610. Lillian Sweatman, et al. vs. Howell Edmunds, et al., 30 acres—bought by Noah Rhine for $50. A. Sidney Smith & Sons vs. Eli W. Parker, et al., 11 acre lot in town of Ridgeway, with machinery—bought by H. N. Obeart, attorney, for $200. Rebecca Simpson vs. Mary Jane Vaughn, 400 acres—bought by P. M. Spence for $1040. U. G. Desportes vs. Eliza Ford, 100 acres—bought by Sallie G. Martin for $200.

THE SHERIFF'S SALES were as follows: R. S. Desportes vs. Cyrus W. Hunter, 216 acres, more or less—bought by A. F. Ruff, for $375. G. H. McMaster vs. G. L. Hunter, 2 tracts, 58-5-10, and 79-8-10 acres—both purchased by G. H. McMaster for $251 and $100 respectively. E. S. Abney vs. J. T. Stewart, as Executor, 23 acres—bought by J. T. Stewart for $51. Besides the above tracts the Sheriff sold four mules and one horse, all of which brought only ordinary prices. The Probate Judge sold only one tract of land: W. H. Kerr, as administrator of W. E. Turner, vs. Elizabeth Turner, et al., 78 acres—bought by C. A. Douglass, attorney, for $50. This completed the list for the day.

WOODWARD'S VERY LOW PRICE, and consequently comes so slowly. Farmers are busy picking cotton and sowing grain. The general opinion of the farmers is that the cotton crop is considerably below that of last year, and in fact lower than for many years before. Woodward is the best cotton market in the upper country, as high as $4 being paid here last week when cotton was only 9 cents in Columbia. About 1,200 bales of cotton have been bought here since the first of September, Messrs. Calvin Brice & Co. having bought about 800 and Messrs. A. B. Nicholson & Co. about 400.

Give Them a Chance! That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them. When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well. Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head ailments, all are cured. All that is to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you, you may depend upon this for certain.

A TRAIN RUNS INTO A WAGON.—On Tuesday morning a little after 5 o'clock Israel Dyrd was hauling a heavy load of lumber on a road about two miles below Simpson's Turnout. He had to cross the railroad, but just as his wagon got fairly upon the track his team stalled. He did all in his power to get them over, knowing that the morning train would soon pass. His efforts were unavailing, but hearing the train coming he unhitched his mules and awaited results. The train came along running at its ordinary speed, struck the wagon, tore it to splinters, and scattered lumber on every side. Strange to say the engine was not injured to any appreciable degree, and everything was done so quickly that the passengers were not aware of what had occurred. It might have been a most serious accident.

WE DON'T BELIEVE IN GIVING THE PEOPLE WIND, BUT WEDD SAY THAT WE WILL DISCOUNT ANY BILLS BOUGHT FROM HOUSES THAT ARE SELING OUT AT COST. OUR MOTTO—"A LIVE SIXPENCE IS WORTH A DEAD SHILLING."

People often wonder how we can sell goods so much cheaper than some other merchants, and in order to satisfy this very natural curiosity, we will explain how we do it. IT IS THE ALMIGHTY DOLLAR. We buy our goods for cash and make our discounts, therefore it enables us to sell them at prices some other merchants have to pay for theirs. To convince you, look what prices you have to pay when you buy on a lien. We want you to inspect our Clothing and Hats. Good solid shoes for everybody, and the prices will tell.

LOOK AT OUR BLANKETS. Jerseys and Wraps; price them before you buy elsewhere. We have a nice line of Dress Goods we intend to sell at some price. Don't fail to see our 40c. Red Wool Undershirt. Remember we have an immense stock to select from. Call and see us.

BLACKSTOCK NEWS. Blackstock makes her first shipment of cotton to Liverpool. Heath, Springs & Co., of Lancaster, bought two hundred direct bales and have ordered it shipped direct to Liverpool. The merchants of this place pay as high prices for cotton as those of any other place along this line. The Rev. Neil E. Pressly delivered a very interesting address on his work in Mexico at the Presbyterian church on Monday night, October 22. We still have a fine and flourishing school under the management of Prof. L. W. Dick.

MISS NANNIE AIKEN, of Cokesbury, a sister of Mrs. W. G. Neville, is here attending school. The regular fall communion of the Concord Presbyterian church will be celebrated at the Blackstock church on Sunday, November 11, services to commence on Thursday night before. Dr. James Merritt, of Nashville, gave a free lecture upon the diseases of the horse on Saturday night last, after which an effort was made to organize a class. Report says we are to have a wedding of two in town very soon.

Prof. Robert Morrison, of the Chester graded school, who has been quite ill for a week or two with fever, we are glad to say is much improved and hopes to be able to resume his duties in the school-room in a few days. November 1. Skin diseases cannot be successfully treated by external applications. The proper way to cure such complaints is to purify the blood. The vitalizing influences of this medicine all the functions of the body are brought into healthy action.

ZACHES AND I. While Davis is collecting taxes Zach. Collects News.—A Big Snake Story.—Only One Store About Wimborsboro and only one Real Estate Owner and a Perpetual Supply of Potatoes.—A Worthy Example.—A Modern Seltzer.—The notice in your paper that the county treasurer would make his usual tour of the county at a time when I would not be particularly engaged, suggested that I make the effort to gratify the desire I have long felt to see something of my native county, so I called on that "necessary evil," the tax-collector, and proposed that in return for my company he haul me around the county with him. This functionary at first seemed disposed to treat the proposition as a piece of colossal cheek, but when reminded that votes might be in demand at the next primary election, the official smile appeared on his countenance and when I intimated that he might count on my services, he was assured that my company would be most acceptable; so the announcement was made that we would take an early start in the morning for Buckhead for that appointment.

AFTER a journey of four hours over corduroy roads we reached Mr. Feaster's store, at Buckhead, feeling enthusiastic over the projected railroad which will connect this place with Wimborsboro and furnish far more comfortable and rapid transit between this service and the county seat. Buckhead was originally about four miles further west, and many years ago was the only post office and store in the county north of Wimborsboro. In those days a large and profitable mercantile business was done here by Mr. Daniel Kerr. The only gin in upper Fairfield was run at this place, and the farmers for miles around carried their seed cotton there to be ginned. In those days cotton was not, as at present, the principal crop. The different crops, tobacco, hemp, and green indigo were planted, and it is said that only one hundred bales of cotton were made where now thousands are annually gathered. A large sack's head adorned the list of the post office, and the circumstances surrounding the place's name, Buckhead, like most old places, has its traditions, and we are informed that a Mr. Phillips once killed a huge rattlesnake in the neighborhood, from whose stomach a whole farm was taken. The business at Buckhead is now done by Capt. T. D. Feaster, assisted by our friend Mr. Wesley Mayfield. Capt. Feaster is one of Fairfield's wealthiest citizens, and shows his faith in the future by continually adding to his already large real estate possessions. He purchased two plantations a short time since, and while at his home we saw him buy another. Capt. Thos. Lyles, a true type of the old South Carolina gentleman, paid for this place, and his many friends will be pleased to hear that his general health is still good.

AN EARLY snack and our long ride made Mr. Mayfield's invitation to dinner particularly acceptable, and we gladly attest the fact that Mrs. Mayfield's long experience in house-keeping during which month she never disturbs the roots. My companion, the tax man, having extracted as many hard earned dollars from the good people of the community as he could, proceeded, about dark, to close his "doors" and "book" pushed on to Mr. J. C. Feaster's, whose hospitality we had accepted for the night. Mr. Feaster married Miss Sallie Lyles, who is the only descendant of Col. Wm. Lyles, remaining in the county. Her father represented Fairfield in the Legislature and was one of the signers of the Ordinance of Secession. At Mr. Feaster's we met Miss Booton, of Marshallville, Georgia,

Why You Feel So weak and exhausted is because your blood is impure. As well expect the sanitary condition of a city to be perfect with defiled water and defective sewerage, as to expect such a complicated piece of mechanism as the human frame to be in good order with impure blood circulating even to its minutest veins. Do you know that every drop of your two or three gallons of blood passes through the heart and lungs in about two and a half minutes, and that, on its way, it makes bone and muscle, brain and nerve, and all other solids and fluids of the body? The blood is the great nourisher, or, as the Bible terms it,

"The Life of the Body." Is it any wonder, then, that if the blood be not pure and perfect in its constituents, you suffer so many indescribable symptoms? Ayer's Sarsaparilla stands "head and shoulders" above every other Alternative and Blood Medicine. As proof, read these reliable testimonies: G. C. Brock, of Lowell, Mass., says: "For the past 7 years I have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In my opinion, the best remedial agencies for the cure of all the diseases arising from impurities of the blood are contained in this medicine."
