I made a ten days' visit to Texas BLACK charming at this season of the year. It is undulating prairie land, the soil is black and gray sandy, and i: all which is not in cultivation is either used for pasture or for growing hay. The soil is best adapted to growing corn and oats, though a great deal of cotton, wheat and other crops are raised. Considerable attention given to stock and cattle raising, and fruit gro ving in that section is quite a paying industry. Most of the farm labor is performed by white people with improved machinery. The farmers have good reams and good houses, and many of them live in princely style. They have good cistern and well wa'er, and best of all a healthy climate. THE WORLD'S FAIR

THE QUEEN AND CRESCENT ROUTE. widely known as the road running the "Finest Trains in the South," is in the field to carry everybody from the South to the World's Fair at Chicago. No part of the Southern country is left uncared for by this great railway and its connections. The Through Car System is an admirable exposition re the wonderful capabilities of American railroading. From New Orleans and Birmiugham Through Sleeping Cars ran daily via Cincinnati to Chi cago without change. From Shreveport, Vicksburg and Jackson another Through Sleeping Car Line comes to join and become a part of the magnificent Vestibuled Through Trains, which passing through Birmingham and the famous Wills Valley of Alabama, is joined at Chattanooga by the train from Jacksonville, Fla., Brunswick and Atlanta, Ga., over the E. T. V. & Ga. Ry., and proceeds north over the beautiful Ciucinnati Southern, through the grandest natural scenery and most attractive historical country in the world, to Oakdele, where two magnificent ? man Cars are received, coming from the Richmond and Danville System from Charleston, S. C., through Columbia S. C., the beautiful French Broad country, and Asheville, N. C., and Knoxville, Tenn., one car to Cincinnati, the other via Louisville to Chicago. The Sleeping Cars from Jacksonville, Savannah and Macon also run through to Chicago via Cincinnati without change.

The time to Chicago is made so as to afford to most convenient hours for departures from the principal cities, and arrivals in Chicago. Passengers can purchase tickets good over one line north of the River, and returning via another if they desire a
