

CAMPUSGRAMS.

Among those who went to Charleston Thanksgiving to see the Carolina-Citadel game are the following: Purdy, Flinn, McCrady, Hughes, Townsend, Boggs, Fitzsimons, Hazard, White, Bouchier, Hamp White, Duncan Heyward, Gonzales, Hoey, B. J. White and Smith.

* * *

The following students spent Thanksgiving at home: "Stick" Wilson, W. L. Marshall, Moise, W. H. Bowman, Mullins, Kirkland, Woodruff, Kollock, Sligh, Alexander brothers, Speed and Co., and Brinson.

* * *

Mr. J. I. Hazard attended the Thanksgiving ball in Georgetown.

* * *

Mr. "Jule" Boggs, of whom we have several volumes of dope, was on the campus much of last week. He went down to Charleston with the "boys," and returned Sunday night. He left Columbia for Pickens Tuesday afternoon. The only regret about Jule's visits is that they are too short and too far between.

* * *

The following alumni were welcomed to the campus last week: Perrin, Ligon, Jeffreys, Marion, Kinard.

* * *

The entire student body extends its sincere sympathy to Mr. Roger Heyward in his recent bereavement.

* * *

Mr. Dick Reeves spent a very happy Thanksgiving in Abbeville?

* * *

Mr. "Neps" McCrady reports several "big 'uns" in Charleston. We understand that he is making a good show towards winning the medal of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

* * *

Mr. Mack Simkins surprised us when he stalked into the game (at Topshe's) a few days ago. His departure "hurt" many of the boys.

* * *

Dr. Mitchell spoke in Orangeburg last Tuesday. On Wednesday he went to Laurens to make an address.

* * *

Prof. Yates Snowden went over to Georgetown Tuesday, where he addressed the Daughters of the Confederacy, who are holding their annual convention. He returned to the city Thursday morning.

* * *

Mr. Christie Benet addressed the Y. M. C. A. on Wednesday night. His excellent address was heard by a large number of students.

* * *

The following young ladies were Carolina sponsors at the Citadel-Carolina game on Thanksgiving: Misses Wells, Simkins, Walker, Flinn, Jones, Marshall, DuBose, Heyward, Moore. These ladies attended the game in carriages elaborately decorated with garnet and black.

Ask "Merry Widow" if he knows how to pick up potatoes.

(2) Dr. W. H. Page: "Layman's Notion of a University."

(3) Delivery of McMaster Medal, by Dr. Robert Wilson, Jr.

(4) Response by Dr. Walker Gill Wylie.

This promises to be a rich day. The speakers are among the most eminent in America, and the subjects happily fit into the life and history of South Carolina.

Dr. S. A. Knapp is directing the immense demonstration farm work throughout the South. He is a philosopher as well as a farmer, and attracts great throngs wherever he speaks.

Dr. W. H. Page is the editor of the World's Work, and a student of social progress. He tries to keep up with the big tasks that the age has on hand.

Prof. W. K. Tate is giving himself wholly to the enrichment of rural life in South Carolina as the State Inspector of Country Schools. He goes into every nook and corner of the State as an educational engineer. He has just returned from a tour of the North, the West and Canada, studying all the most recent developments in country life. In his efforts for the improvement of the country schools, he is focusing all the light that other States and even foreign countries have to throw upon local conditions.

Prof. W. H. Hand for four years has directed, with wisdom, the development of high schools in South Carolina. When he began this work these schools were few, and now there are about 150. The growth of the high schools is perhaps the most signal fact in the history of the State during the past decade, for they have put energy into the schools below and the colleges above. They have thrown wide open the door of opportunity for many a country boy and girl who otherwise could never have gotten beyond the common school. Prof. Hand is an attractive speaker. For the past few years he has been teaching at the University of Virginia summer school, and, by reason of his visits to leading institutions of learning in this country, he is well able to present in a straight forward way the constructive purposes of the founders of the University of South Carolina.

January 12th next, will mark the one hundred and tenth anniversary of the founding of the college, and the prospect is for a memorable occasion.

estate. This precaution was wisely and fortunately taken so as to insure co-operation in the matter, and with this stamina, many things may be achieved.

The University is proud of its friend, one who has been connected with its history the greater part of his life. An educator having derived the benefits of knowledge, so eager and enthusiastic for those and to help those who may strive to the same end.

FATIMA

TURKISH BLEND CIGARETTES

BOTANY

Of all plants that grow, tobacco gives the greatest pleasure to man.

Fatimas are made of rare tobaccos skillfully blended to give a "different" taste, as delicate as a flavor.

College men say they're a "Daisy" cigarette—and college men know.

The package is not pretentious but the cigarette is excellent and you get ten additional, 20 for 15 cents.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO CO.

With each package of Fatima you get a pennant coupon, 25 of which secure a handsome felt college pennant (12x32)—selection of 100.
