

CAROLINA LOOSES GAME TO GUILFORD

Second Game of Series Goes to Tarheels by Score of 6 to 2.

Guilford college defeated Carolina Wednesday, 6 to 2 in an interesting game featured by Adams, twirling for Carolina, and Horton's exhibition at first.

The Guilford lads took an early lead and made all their scores in the first three innings. Carolina's first run came in second inning when Chandler doubled to center, stole one and scored on Horton's single.

The second run came in fourth on Snipe's and Martin's doubles.

Worth, Guilford's pitcher, put up a creditable showing throughout the entire game, striking out 10 men and allowing only 4 hits.

Seaborn went in as catcher in the fourth inning when Barksdale was injured. This was "Wild Bill's" first appearance, but he added laurels to his crown.

Even a King can't dictate what you should like or not like

If it so happened that Fatimas were originally "Made and blended for the King of Whatiz"—would that fact prove that you were going to like Fatimas best?

It would not.

A man's taste is his own. A cigarette that might delight some old potentate's palate would not necessarily please you.

That's why we leave Fatimas up to your taste.

But there is something more than good taste that is mighty important to you.

No matter how good tasting a cigarette may be—it can only be the SENSIBLE cigarette for you if it is comfortable, too.

Its pure tobacco must be cool and comfortable to your throat at all times. And it must leave you feeling fine and fit at the end of a hard-smoking day.

Will it do all that?

Then, it is the sensible cigarette for YOU.

There are thousands and thousands of men who believe that Fatima is the most sensible cigarette there is.

Try Fatimas yourself. You may discover—as these thousands of other men have—that Fatimas have just the cool, mellow taste that you've been longing for in a cigarette.

You may find that Fatimas have the kind of mildness which allows you to smoke more of them than you might of other cigarettes.

You may find that Fatimas offer you a little more satisfaction in every puff than you ever before found in any other cigarette.

Buy your first package of Fatimas and test them today.
