

LOOKING BACK A WEEK IN FOOTBALL

P. C. Upsets Dope—Fourth Entry In Championship Race.

(By Jay Em Bee)

Presbyterian College of South Carolina, located in Clinton, was placed on the Palmetto State's football map in capital letters Saturday by reason of its 7 to 3 victory over the University of South Carolina. An aggregation of twelve men, a substitute being used by P. C., fighting valiantly, gained their victory by being on their toes from the first whistle to the last. 'Tis true that the winning touchdown came when a Presbyterian man gained possession of the ball punted by one of his mates, but this bears out the statement that they were on their toes and watching for every break. They had battled two periods with the Gamecocks to a scoreless deadlock. They got their break, in the third period, and they took advantage of it. The so-called "Big Three"—Carolina, Clemson and Furman—now have a new companion and it is now the "Big Four" with Presbyterian College being admitted as the fourth member.

Presbyterian will have a chance to show its dazzling fight again next Saturday when Coach Walter Johnson leads his charges to Greenville to battle Coach Billy Laval's highly touted Furman outfit. That game will have an important bearing on the championship race.

Many call the result of the game Saturday another upset of the dope, but supporters of Presbyterian college before the game said they had come to see P. C. win. Their countenances were serious and it was evident that they were meaning every word they were speaking.

A hard fighting team, under the direction of one of the best coaches in the South, Walter Johnson, has placed itself on the football map in South Carolina in great prominence and with a capital "P".

Other Games

Only two other games during the past week-end can be construed as having a bearing on the state race. Mercer's victory of 6 to 3 over Furman brought somewhat of a surprise and it may not be amiss to say carried disappointment with it to the Purple Hurricane supporters. However this game does not affect Furman's standing in the battle for the title in the Palmetto state. Furman will have its first test and a crucial test, too—when it meets Presbyterian college Saturday.

Clemson scored 32 points on Newberry while the Indians were unable to score a point of any kind.

The Citadel beat Erskine 26 to 0 and so far the Bull Dogs are to be counted in the race. Erskine has sustained two defeats at the hands of South Carolina teams.

Aside from the State games considerable interest centered in the Penn State-North Carolina State conflict at State College, Pa., last Saturday. The Tarheel Aggies gave the Pennsylvania lad a great battle before the game ended with Penn State holding a 16 to 0 victory. This game is of much interest, as Carolina meets North Carolina State tomorrow. The birds want revenge for their loss of last week, and are going to be in a fighting mood when they enter the field at Raleigh Saturday.

The University of North Carolina who meets the University of South Carolina here lost to Yale, 53 to 0, but by reason of the fact that the Fetzner brothers sent practically a whole team of second string men into the game.

This week-end brings some more important conflicts. As already stated the Gamecocks go to Raleigh to meet North Carolina State, while particular interest will be placed in the Furman-Presbyterian conflict. Clemson goes to Danville, Ky., to meet Centre. The Citadel meets Davidson at Davidson. Wofford is booked for a game with Erskine today at Spartanburg. Newberry meets Lenoir College at Hickory, N. C. tomorrow.

Football fans of Columbia will not be left in the lurch however, for the Freshmen are to meet the strong Newberry Freshmen, who recently beat their Varsity 20-0, Saturday, at the same time results of the Carolina State game will be given. On Friday Columbia III is to meet Richmond Academy of Augusta.

THE GRIDIRON INKPOT

ARE WE DOWNHEARTED?
HELL, NO.

Up and at 'em Gamecocks.

It was a heartbreaker to lose.

A chance to retrieve lost fortunes with State tomorrow.

In 1915 it was Carolina 19, N. C. State 10.

Which was our last game with them. It wasn't Metzger's fault last week.

Just watch those Birds now!

We still have a chance at the championship.

Suppose Furman beats P. C. tomorrow and Citadel duplicates in their game.

And the Gamecocks beat Furman, Clemson and Citadel.

It seems as if we would win the cup. The worst we can do is to tie with P. C.

You can't beat luck and the playing of demons.

The least said the better.

The Freshmen play Newberry tomorrow 3:30—Davis Field.

The returns from Raleigh will be given. Be there!

The third Fresh Team plays Sumter III there today. Best o' Luck.

Clemson and State Fair—only 13 days off.

Get your lungs ready, we're going to celebrate. Eh, What?

OUT TO WIN THE REST. LET'S GO!

BLUE RIDGE SPARKLERS

While at Blue Ridge this year several of the group were discussing the various meetings that they were going to attend.

Meeks: "I am not going to miss three of them."

Wilson: "What are they?"

Meeks: "Breakfast, dinner and supper."

While on the top of Mount Mitchell several of the party went down to a spring to get some water. One or two made remarks about the coldness of the water, but Gordon May won the cake when he said: "Boys, this is the coldest natural water I have ever tasted."
