Juniors Win Champ Title Over Seniors

Jolly Players Take Coveted Hockey Cup by Score of 2 to 0

After a game of hard fighting the juniors triumphed over the Seniors and clinched the championship title by a score of 2-0 in the last game of the annual hockey tournament on the Woman's Athletic Field, Wednesday afternoon. At the end of the first half, the score stood 0-0, and it was only near the end of the game that the Juniors were able to score against their opponents. In this game Misses Edna Earle Kirton and Hattie Johns played especially well for the Juniors; and Misses Annie Louise Jones and Gertrude Rigby won laurels for the Seniors. During the game Miss Grace Saner received slight injuries.

In the last two seconds of play the Seniors scored and won a victory over the brave little freshman team in the game that was played on Tuesday with the score 1-0. For the Freshmen Misses Eulalie Martin and Millie Taylor did especially good work. The Seniors did excellent playing as a team, but there were no outstanding individual players.

Y.W. Members Give Attractive Program

Organization to Have Charge of Tea To Be Given At Flinn Hall

The most attractive feature of the Y. W. program last Thursday night was the playing of several solos by Miss Gladys Livingston on the accordion. Miss Livingston is quite accomplished, and her music added much to the evening. Other attractive numbers were the reading of Christmas poems and thoughts by Miss Eloise Shepherd, Miss Ruth Ritchie and Miss Vivian Corner. Next Thursday afternoon the Y. W. will have charge of the Y.M.C.A. tea that will be given at Flinn Hall. The young women will be in charge of the program and will serve.

Advice to Loveworn

By Beatrice Barefacts

Dear Miss Barefacts:

I am the mother of 13 children and have been very happily married for the past twenty years. But recently a relative of my husband's died and left us some money. Now my husband has taken on his second childhood and is stepping out with the girls. He goes to night-clubs and returns very late and very tight and I blush to say that the other night when he returned I found a pair of black gorgette you-knows in his pocket. Can this have any significant meaning and what can I do to save our happy home?

A Worried Wife.

Dear Worried Wife:

Recalling similar cases with which I am familiar it seems that such a discovery as you have made always did have a significant meaning but it was a different meaning each time—sometimes blond—sometimes brunette. As for your happy home—what's the matter with it? A husband so thoughtful as to bring home these expensive little presents for his wife from his dates sounds pretty good to me.

Dear Miss Barefacts:

I am a beautiful young cloak model and am making a good salary but there is a very rich old international croquet player (retired) who wants me to marry him. However, I love Jake the soda-jerk, who is poor but honest. What must I do?

Nellie...

Dear Nellie:

I see you have been reading Laura Jean Libbey and other classics in the Woolworth editions. It's given you some notions that you must get rid of at once—then you can go ahead. Always remember, my dear, that the poor are never honest, and if they were, what good would it do you? Nobody wants a man whose intentions may be good if his credit isn't.

Dear Miss Barefacts:

I am an inveterate smoker of Luckies but my B. F. smokes Camels so I can't bum off him. What can a poor working girl do if she can't bum off her B. F. and how can I convert him to my brand?

Tillie.

Dear Tillie:

Encourage him to take up athletics. When I becomes a tennis champion he will have to smoke Luckies in self-defense—they never cut the wind and you don't have to walk a mile for them after a hard match.

Beatrice Barefacts.

Mrs. Wellwood Entertains Sorority at Her Home Near Saluda Dam

Mrs. Arthur Wellwood entertained with a bridge party at her home at the dam last Saturday afternoon in compliment to the four Chi Omega pledges, Misses Vivian Conner, Louise Foster, Julia Bell Foster, and Kitty Martin. A beautiful etching of Notre Dame, brought from France by Mrs. Wellwood during her European travels, was presented to Miss Saluda Reese, who won top score prize. Second prize was won by Miss Funderburke.

The fraternity colors, cardinal and straw, were cleverly carried out in the salad, cakes and other refreshments. Mrs. A. F. Burnside, who was before her marriage this summer Miss Roberta Talbert and Mrs. Wise Roper, formerly Miss Thelma Culbreath, both Chi Omega alumnae, were present at the party.
