SHOOK GOES TO SEAPORT PAPER

Burton E. Shook, a graduate of the class of '28, has been elected a member of the reporters' staff of the News and Courier and will take up his duties there within a short time.

Mr. Shook is well known here, having attained many honors during his college career. He was editor in chief of The Gamecock; Censor, Secretary, Treasurer, Literary Critic, and Vice-President of the Euphradian Literary Society; Vice-President of the Blue Key Fraternity; and a member of the Hercules Club, besides being a talented orator and writer.

Mr. Shook has had much practical work in the field of journalism as well as having majored in this subject while at Carolina. The best wishes of the student body and his friends go with him in his new work, for it is felt that in time he will become one of South Carolina's leading newspaper men.

ALUMNI PLANS FOR NEXT YEAR

FIRST WANT TO ORGANIZE

Alumni Secretary Wishes To Bring Together The Alumni

Barney A. Early, Alumni Secretary, yesterday announced the general plans of the Alumni Association for 1929. Mr. Early stated that the general plans of Alumni activities for the year 1929 is to continue the work in the field until the forty-six counties of the State are thoroughly organized. Meetings of Alumni will be held in all parts of the State; these meetings being for the purpose of bringing together the Alumni and giving them the privilege of becoming better acquainted with the college authorities. Dr. D. M. Douglas, president of the University; William L. Laval, supervisor of the coaching department of athletics; William Cooper, captain of the 1928 football team; Julian Beall, captain elect of the 1929 football team; George Bell Timmerman, president of the Alumni Association, and others connected with the University will be present at these meetings and will speak to the Alumni.

The first objective of the Alumni is organization. After a sufficient number of Alumni have joined the Association to make the organization of sufficient strength other things of a constructive and useful nature will be taken up. There are around five thousand former students of the University eligible for membership in the association. One thousand members is the goal set for this year's work.

The next meeting will be at Rock Hill on Friday night, February 23, 1929. This meeting will be attended by Alumni from the counties of Chester, Lancaster and York. A great many Alumni reside in those counties, so a large meeting is expected.

DR. GEORGE H. WEBBER APPOINTED DELEGATE

The appointment of Dr. George Harris Webber as a delegate to the National Education Conference to be held from July 26th to August 3rd, 1929 at Geneva, Switzerland, is of interest to students and alumni of the University, for it was here that Dr. Webber received his Master's degree in the class of 1912.

This is a high honor that Dr. Webber has brought upon himself and his Alma Mater, for this is a highly prized position much sought after by educators throughout the United States.

Dr. Webber has been prominently identified with the N. E. A. for many years, having served on the board of directors for the past eight years, besides having held other positions of honor.

Dr. Webber is at present head of the department of education and psychology of the Georgia State College for Women.

Here and There By Clancey Jones

It is a good thing that Bill Cooper cut off that mustache of his, as people were beginning to wonder if he was American born or whether he came here with his parents.

Guess Great Britain will begin to double her Navy since President Coolidge approved the Cruiser Bill for the building of 15 additional cruisers.

A prominent speaker in public speaking class on the negative side of the Nash Bill, approved of the bootlegger getting the trade rather than the drug-gist. "Why not let the man make his living?" asked the boy.

CAROLINA LADS MAKE LEAGUES

Many Ex-Carolina Men On League Baseball Teams

The brand of baseball played at the University of South Carolina must be better than the average, if one is to judge by the number of former Carolina players now in professional ball. They range all the way from the big leagues down to the class D circuits.

Lefty Godschaal, former Carolina pitcher, was with the Pittsburgh Pirates last season and returns to the training camp as a likely prospect on the Dreyfus club.

Rollings Epps, who played for last year's Freshman team, will do his stuff in the Eastern Carolina league this year. Epps was a nifty performer while here and has a promising future before him. It is understood that Red Swink, ex Gamecock captain, will get a fling in the same league this year. Billy Lamar, the flashy little second baseman on the varsity for the past three years, will get a trial with Columbia, in the Sally league, and Bob Wimberly will try out for third at Augusta, in the same league.

It will be remembered that Olin Perrett, a great utility player, and Rock Snipes have cut quite a figure in the Sally league, not to mention other notable Carolina contributions to professional baseball.

MARY B. TAYLOR HIGH IN NATIONAL CONTEST

Miss Mary B. Taylor has been notified that her design, submitted in the national contest for an appropriate book jacket for the World's Classic Series, was among the few sent to the London committee for final choice. Miss Taylor, a third year design pupil, is an especially gifted artist. Carolina sincerely hopes that her talent and hard work will be recognized and rewarded in this contest with final honors.

like working aggregation, which continually broke through the Bird zone defense, to drop 'em in. It was just another one of those games when the Birds were not playing up to par and the opposition just right.

The defense of the Birds broke time and again to allow the Cadets to shoot "snow-birds" with consummate ease. Carolina's greatest trouble seemed to be their inability to hold the ball once getting possession of it.

Tiedeman, with 22 points was the bright light of the Citadel offense. Johnson and Weeks, his running mates, covered the floor well and assisted greatly in the Citadel victory.

White, with 19 points was second high man of the night and kept the Gamecocks in the running with his timely shots. Wolfe fought hard and broke up many would-be Citadel goals. In addition to his guarding he shot two field goals, one of them being the prettiest of the night.

The lineup and summary:

GAMECOCK BASKETEERS DEFEAT FURMAN 46-42

Smarting under their defeat at the hands of Clemson the previous night, the Gamecock basketball team got mad and nosed out Furman, 46-42, in a rough and tumble basketball game.

Furman threw a scare into the Bird camp in a last minute rally, which the end of the game cut short. This game practically eliminated the Hurricane from the state race.

White, piling up 18 points led the scorers, with Huff of Furman a close second with 17.

Rembert, Pritchard and White were ejected from the game on fouls, while others of both teams narrowly missed the same fate.
