SOCIETY DEBATES IN CHAPEL WED.

MEETS VIRGINIA TEAM

Vera Jones And Darice Jackson Represent Euphrosynean Literary Society

The first debate scheduled for the girls by the debating council will be held Wednesday night, January 15 at 8:00 o'clock in the chapel. The query is resolved: "that all nations should adopt a plan of complete disarmament except such forces as are needed for police protection." The affirmative side of the query will be upheld by the Euphrosynean Literary society. Members from the society debating are Vera Jones and Darice Jackson. The Farmville State Normal college, Farmville, Va. will meet the Euphrosyneans in behalf of the negative side of the query. Judges for the debate are yet to be chosen.

The debate council has arranged a number of debates during the year, the next one with a junior college in North Carolina. This time the Hypatian Literary society will represent the University. Later the team composed of representatives from both societies will debate William and Mary college here and Winthrop at Rock Hill.

PAN-HELLENIC ELECTS OFFICERS

Delta Zeta President, Edna Kirton Heads Council; Harriet Whitaker Vice President

At a recent meeting of the Women's Pan-Hellenic council, new officers were elected and several important revisions to the constitution were put into effect.

Edna E. Kirton of Delta Zeta was elected president, Harriet Whitaker of Tri-Delta vice-president, and Louise McIntosh of Zeta Tau Alpha secretary and treasurer.

Rowena Jones is the retiring president. Louise McIntosh is the only new officer, Misses Kirton and Whitaker having served in the other two offices respectively during the last term.

February rushing was abolished, and Monday of each week sets as the day for regular sorority meetings.

committee has unanimously passed the following recommendations which shall be presented to the board of trustees of the University at their next meeting at 11 o'clock, Tuesday, January 21, for official action.

Recommendations of Student Activity Committee

To the board of trustees. "In order to facilitate the handling of the student activity fund in accordance to the request of the state auditors, the student activity committee, unanimously make the following recommendations to the board of trustees.

1—That annual apportionments of the student activity fund be made by the student activity committee to all student organizations now participating in the student activity fund after consultation with such student organizations and activities.

2—That the University treasurer be made disbursing officer and custodian of all funds from whatever sources derived which may be received as revenue by the various student organizations and activities, and all payments be made by him on order of the student treasurer or manager countersigned by the director of student activities.

3—That all contracts and obligations of like character be made directly through the office of the director of student activities on recommendation of the committee of student activities.

4—That all student treasurers and business managers of organizations participating in such receipt of funds shall turn in a tentative budget at the beginning of the scholastic year and shall make a monthly statement of receipts and disbursements to be filed with the director of Student Activities on the first day of each month in accordance with form prescribed by his office.

5—That the student activities committee be authorized to fix and pay annually commensurate salaries to editors and managers of the various student publications.

6—That student managers and treasurers shall be bonded, expenses to be borne by the student activity fund.

7—That the director of student activities shall be director to withhold payment of funds to organiza-

SORORITY REVIEW

The Chi Omegas celebrated the New Year with a party Tuesday evening. The members and pledges presented gifts to the club rooms. A delightful salad course was served by the pledges.

The alumnae of the Eta Gamma chapter of Chi Omega held their first monthly meeting Saturday afternoon in the Chi Omega chapter rooms. Mrs. N. G. Gonzales was elected president of the group which consists of twelve enthusiastic members. All the alumnae will subscribe to the Eleusis, the Chi Omega magazine.

Elizabeth Freeman, an alumna of the University, has opened an additional violin studio at 2726 Divine street for the convenience of her pupils in Shandon. She will continue to teach in her other studio, located at 1415 Hampton street, as formerly the new studio being in addition to the other one.

Y. W. C. A. GIVES NOVEL PROGRAM

Girls Take Part In Extemporaneous Debates And Oratorical Contests; Refreshments Served

The Y. W. C. A. girls enjoyed a novel program Thursday night at their regular meeting. The main feature of the program was ice cream and cake served by members of the social committee. Since no special program had been planned the girls reverted to the old custom of extemporaneous debates and oratorical contests. The debate was, Resolved "that....." guess it if you can. Just the same it called for a display of the brains, wit, humor and originality of, not only the debaters, but the audience as well. It would doubtless interest you to learn that the negative side of the question was adjudged deserving of the decision of "winner." During the hour numerous talks were made on various and sundry subjects.

SCHOLARSHIP CUP AWARDED A. D. PI

Beta Lambda Chapter Honored Recipient Of Award For This Province

Beta Lambda chapter of Alpha Delta Pi has just been awarded the scholarship cup for this province of the sorority. The Alpha province, in which South Carolina is located, also includes Tennessee, Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, and Florida.

The chapter is the youngest of the sorority but has already gained much distinction for its wonderful scholastic average. It has always been one of the leaders on the campus in scholastic averages. So well has the grades maintained by the local chapter compared with those of others in the province, that last year it competed for, and won the Standardization cup which is competed for by the whole sorority.

tions not carrying out these provisions until they have been complied with.

8—That the director of student activities be permitted to delegate to individual members of the committee such supervisory powers as he may deem necessary.

The committee feels that the above recommendations will be satisfactory to all concerned. What it will mean in the case of most organizations is that instead of banking with a local bank, they will bank with the treasurer of the University, bills being paid by voucher instead of by checks or cash.

The committee contemplates issuing small petty cash funds where necessary for the payment of small bills, the fund to be replenished when exhausted by presentation of receipts for all money paid out.

The board meets next Tuesday, at which time they would hear authorized student opinion in regard to these recommendations.

PALMETTO PLAYERS TO GO TO BEAUFORT

"HE WHO GETS SLAPPED"

Professor Dean Working Now On Itinerary Of Presentations

Prof. William Dean, director, announces that he is working on an itinerary for a trip on which the play "He Who Gets Slapped" will be shown. The first appearance of the Palmetto Players on the road will take place in Beaufort, according to Mr. Dean. No contracts have been signed yet but the appearance is practically assured. Mr. Dean contemplates a tour through the State and, possibly, later, a trip into foreign territory.

The Palmetto Player's production of "He Who Gets Slapped" by Andrejev, was presented for the second and third times, in the Chapel, last Tuesday and Wednesday nights. The audience was large both nights and the play was well received.

Another production by this organization is forthcoming and will probably take the form of a modern comedy. The Palmetto Players have a well rounded organization. The costumes were all made by the members of the club under the direction of Mrs. Dean.

The sets in the future if not too difficult will also be made by the members of the club. Part of the set for "He Who Gets Slapped" was executed by the members of the company under the direction of Mr. Dean.

The support of the student-body is needed for this very vital campus organization. The students have shown fine spirit thus far. If this keeps up, the Palmetto Players will no doubt achieve their aim, which is to further the interest of the drama in the State and to develop it here.

MRS. JOHNSON RUNS FOR POST

CANDIDATE FOR LIBRARIAN

Mrs. Cora H. Johnson, assistant librarian who has charge of the South Carolina room in the University library, has announced that she is a candidate for the position of state librarian.

Mrs. Johnson's home is at Johnsonville. She graduated from Winthrop college and taught for several years at Union. In 1929 she graduated from Platt Institute, Brooklyn, a school exclusively for librarians. From there she came to the University of South Carolina as assistant librarian.

The election will be held this week by the state legislature.

UNIQUE STORY TOLD BY URCHIN

FOUND ASLEEP IN THEATRE

Feared To Go Home Because He Could Not Sell His Papers

From the sidewalks of Columbia comes one of those stories that made Horatio Alger famous with the youth of a generation or so ago. It seems that a young urchin, more or less well-known on the campus by his activities as a peanut vender at the football contests, was in trouble. After returning from a mid-night show, several Carolina students passed the lad asleep at the entrance of the Ritz Theatre. The boy was sleeping on a big pile of Columbia Records and seemed to resent the fact that his sleep was so rudely interrupted.

After close questioning, "Jimmie" (which was the only name that he gave) said that he was afraid to go home before he sold his papers. Beyond this bare fact, he refused to explain further, but insisted that he would spend the remainder of the night there.

On being told this the students left. One of them looked back, however, and saw the boy crying. Then the well-known generosity of Carolina boys came into play. One of them insisted on buying the papers, although he was informed that the kid was merely a "bluffer." Nevertheless, the good samaritan insisted on doing his intended good deed. "Jimmie" accepted the money, dried his tears, and went home—as far as is known.

C. C. CARNES VISITS GEORGIA CHEMIST

C. C. Carnes, graduate student, visited Augusta the past weekend. Mr. Carnes was the guest of Thomas B. McDow, formerly of Lancaster. Mr. McDow graduated from the University in 1926, and is now a chemist in Augusta.
