Conference Set For Presbyterian Youth At P. C.

The South Carolina Synod Westminster Fellowship Conference will be held at Presbyterian College on March 5, 6, and 7. The theme of the conference will be "Christian Citizenship."

Among the speakers at the convention will be Dr. Frank Price, moderator of the Presbyterian Church of the United States. Dr. Price is a former missionary to China and was held prisoner by the Communists for several years. Dr. David W. Sprunt, chaplain at Washington and Lee University, and Arthur McDonald, student at the University of Georgia, who has attended Christian conferences in India, Greece, Europe and Japan, will also speak.

Sidelights of the convention will be a tour of the Thornwell Orphanage, and a panel discussion by students on "Opportunities For Summer Service in America and Abroad."

Carolina delegates to the convention will be: Carol Iobst, Mary Ann Snowden, Lucy Clarke, Tolly Pollard, Rankin Suber, Arlene Peterson, Shirley Person, Beth Tyler, Glenn Bell, and Spencer Liles.

SET FOR SPRING ... Ann McElwee chooses a three-piece navy blue suit to meet the spring weather in. Collar and cuffs match the sleeveless blue and white striped blouse. White hat, gloves, purse, and shoes complete the outfit.

Spring Rush Plans Made

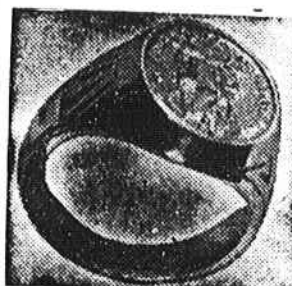

Registration for spring rush week was held Thursday, Feb. 25, for girls interested in going through this rush week. Any girl who failed to sign up at this time may register on March 4th at 5:00 p.m. in Sims Lobby.

All girls are required to meet with Dean Childs on March 4 at 5:00 p.m. in Sims Lobby. The dean will explain fully all details about rushing and she will answer any question the rushee may have.

Shrove Tuesday to Be Observed With Pancake Supper

Shrove Tuesday will be observed by Trinity Episcopal Church in the traditional manner of a pancake supper on March 2, the day before Ash Wednesday. The price is 75 cents and all proceeds will go to help needy charities. The entire student body and faculty are invited to join the members of Canterbury at the Parish House, Sumter and Senate Streets, from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. for this prelental celebration.

Fashion Fads

By Hannah Timmons

There is just a faint touch of spring in the air! The weather is still chilly, but we can tell that warm weather is on its way. Meanwhile, we are caught again in that season of the year when winter clothes are getting dull and tiresome.

Everybody is experimenting with new accessories. Gay spring flowers are blooming on pretty, pastel collars; artificial flowers are ahead of real ones this year. White leather belts and collars add light, fresh touches. Pastel beads and earrings are giving colorful suggestions of spring.
