Straw Vote Ballot For Presidential Race On Page Three

Volume L, No. 8

CROWING FOR A GREATER CAROLINA COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA, NOVEMBER 2, 1956

Founded 1908

Yearbook • Beauties Selected ODK Taps Ten For Membership

Seven finalists for the title of Miss Garnet and Black were selected Tuesday night in the Russell House Auditorium.

The seven final co-eds chosen and their sponsors are Wray Davis, Phi Kappa Sigma; Sally Heyward, Delta Delta; Libby Bagnal, Kappa Delta; and Nancy Hiller, Sigma Nu.

Also Carol Brandenburg, Chi Omega; Sandra Kay Brooks, Delta Sigma Pi; and Harriett Dickert, University Chorus.

Pictures of the top seven contestants from the group of 21 will be featured in the yearbook, and the names of the winner and runner-up will not be disclosed until the publication is released next spring according to Lawrence Curry, yearbook editor.

Judges for the contest were Mrs. Warren Irvin, member of the Junior League of Columbia and a member of the Richland County Tuberculosis Board; Roy Pearce, vice-president of Pearce-Young-Angel, director of the First National Bank, and past president of the Columbia Rotary; and Robert Telford, director of the Town Theater, actor, and play-

Ten Tapped

Ten men were tapped as new members of Chi Circle of Omicron Delta Kappa Wednesday night following the beauty contest.

The new members are Donald Russell, Jr., Hugh M. Lovejoy, George Ballentine, James Fuller, Ned Prettyman, Preston Whaley, Fred Wigfield, Phillip Walker, Donald Harrison, and Robert Freeman.

ODK is a national honorary fraternity in which membership is gained by honor and service to

Following is a brief summary of the campus activities of the new members:

DONALD RUSSELL, JR., junior in arts and science: B-plus

(Continued on Page 10)

Students Chose Freshman Officers, Homecoming Queen In Run-Offs

WHICH ONE WILL BE HOMECOMING QUEEN? . . . One of these coeds (from left to right) Ab Pearce, Carol Brandenburg or Julie Petoskey will be announced as Queen of Homecoming at the Homecoming Dance Nov. 16. Carolina students went to the polls Wednesday in a run-off election to chose the winner. (Staff photo by Ken Sturgeon)

Gamecock' Rating University ls All-American been awarded The Gamecock for Mary Alice Carhart, feature edispring semester of the 1955-56 tor. school year.

lege newspaper can receive by the sistant business manager; Bob Associated Collegiate Press.

newspapers judged All-American cartoonist. in the 2001-4000 student enrolment class.

an All-American rating.

Patsy Penney Was Editor

bert Bryant was managing editor, reading, editorial makeup and and Kat Anthony was business headlines. manager. Other editors were Roy Williams, assistant managing editor; Nancy Fox, news editor; Sylaverage for two semesters; reli-Badger, sports editor; Barbara

An All-American rating has | Hawthorne, society editor, and

Also, David Monteith, circula-This is the highest rating a col- tion manager; Carol Shockey, as-Finley and Wayne Patrick, pho-The Gamecock was one of seven tographers, and Richard Alpert,

The Gamecock was rated superior on news coverage, creativeness, tion. This is the sixth consecutive editorial page features, sports covyear The Gamecock has been given erage and printing. A rating of excellent was given for editorials, makeup, typography and photo-Patsy Penney was editor of the graphy. A very good rating was newspaper spring semester. Her- given for style, features, copy-

> News Coverage Exceptionally Good

The spring newspapers were (Continued on Page 10)

Enrollment Nears 5,000

and six students, registered for who received 260 votes in the runthe '56 fall semester, constitute off. He won out over Larry Lathe highest enrollment in University history, according to Registrar H. O. Strohecker. This fall's enrollment had a 250 student increase over last fall's registra-

Of this number there are 1,318 and 353 transfers enrolled. Six 83. hundred and sixty-five men and transfers.

Included in the veteran registration are 1,224 men and six

Arts and Sciences includes 997 men and 326 women, making 1,323 men and 326 women, making 1,323 ness Administration, there are 1,024 men and 251 women, making Is Penalized 1,275 students. The School of Engineering has 668 men and one convicted and punished for violawoman, making 669 students.

cludes 242 men and 296 women Council, announced recently. making 538 students. In the The individual, whose name is are 172 men and 17 women, total- said. ing 189 students; the School of The chairman of the council students.

The College of Arts and Sci-

There are 3,733 men and 1,173

Disclosure Scheduled For Dance

SOUTH CAROLINA

Carol Brandenburg, Ab Pearce and Julie Petoskey were elected finalists for Homecoming Queen during elections Monday. The name of the queen selected Wednesday in the run-offs will not be revealed until the Homecoming dance Nov. 16.

Richard Mims of the School of Education was elected to the Honor Board to fill the vacancy from that school. Receiving 78 votes in Monday's contest, he topped Warner Fairey and Pudgy Anderson, who had 61 and 27 votes, respectively.

Business Administration students chose Bob Rogers for their representative on Student Council. Rogers, who fills a vacancy from the school on the council, defeated Jimmy Baxter in the runoff Wednesday by a vote of 241 ence's new representative on Stu-Four thousand, nine hundred dent Council is Sinclair Lewis, due, who got 156 votes Wednesday.

Following are the names of the Homecoming queen candidates with the number of votes each received, respectively, in Monday's contest: Carol Brandenburg, 253; Julie Petoskey, 218; Ab Pearce, 117; Wray Davis, 98; Jo Anne new students, with 965 freshmen Farmer, 98 and Carolyn Merritt,

Also, Pat Arant, 72; Becky Fin-300 women are freshmen. Two ley, 55; Lubah Freedman, 46; Bo hundred men and 119 women are Nelson, 43; Mary Sloan, 39 and Agnes Ann Moorer, 23.

Enrollment in the College of Honor Code

A University student has been The School of Education in- Moody, chairman of the Honor tion of the honor principle, Phil

School of Journalism, 68 men and not made public, "admitted his iniation ceremonies. 32 women comprise 100 students. guilt openly" of charges of cheat-In the School of Pharmacy there ing on a daily class quiz, Moody

Law has 47 men and two women, pointed out that the violation was totaling 149 students, and the reported by another member of Graduate School consists of 235 the class, who is not connected men and 125 women, totaling 360 with either the Honor Council or Honor Board.

As a penalty, the violator was ences has the largest instructional compelled to miss three consecustaff with 156 faculty members, live class meetings and was not The School of Journalism has the allowed to make up any work smallest with five faculty mem- missed during that time, Moody explained.

"Record of the case is kept on women enrolled at the University. file by Honor Council. Any infrac-Four thousand, six hundred and tion of the honor principle by this fifteen attend classes in the day individual in the future will be and 291 attend classes in the day grounds for expulsion from the University," Moody added.

CONGRATULATIONS, FRIEND . . . Jimmy Leventis, left, congratulates newly elected freshman class president Bunky Joye after the final elections Wednesday. The race was close as Joye won over Leventis by a margin of 21 votes. (Staff photo by Ken

The School of Arts and Sci- Joye Triumphant; Leventis Close 2nd

"Bunky" Joye defeated Jimmy Leventis in run-off elections Wednesday to become president of the freshman class. Joye received 277 votes while his opponent was close behind him with 256.

Social Groups On Probation Dean Reports

Three social fraternities and sororities have been put on probation because they failed to comply with University regulations regarding the registration of initiation ceremonies, according to Dean of Women A. R. Childs.

They were put on probation until Jan. 1, 1958.

Alpha Delta Pi, Delta Delta Delta, Pi Kappa Phi, Kappa Sigma, permission from the registrar's six semesters. office to consider persons for iniation into their fraternity.

Dean Childs said it is necessary fice and also register the activity Caskey. in her office before an iniation ceremony can be legally held.

The newly elected head of the freshman class learned of his victory when his uncle, a student at the University, came to his room and told him the news after the results had been posted outside the auditorium in Russell House.

"I was very much overwhelmed at being elected," Freshman Class President "Bunky" Joye said Wednesday night after the results were announced.

Gene Odom told his politically inspired nephew the happy news as the latter was busy cleaning his dormitory room.

A pledge of Pi Kappa Alpha social fraternity, Joye is a mem-Zeta Tau Alpha and Phi Kappa ber of the Pep Club and staff Sigma were found guilty yester- photographer of the Naval ROTC day by the Student Activities publication, "Lubbers Line." A Committee of not registering the graduate of Bennettsville High School, he was class lawyer in his In addition Phi Kappa Sigma senior year, an Eagle Scout and was fined $25 for failing to get a member of the Beta Club for

The freshman class vice-president is Bobby Dobson, who defeated Tommy Caskey. Dobson for the fraternities and sororities received 348 votes in the run-offs to check with the registrar's of- while 200 votes were cast for

> For the office of secretary-(Continued on Page 10)

FIRST DANCE TICKET . . . University President Donald Russell buys the first ticket to the homecoming dance scheduled for Friday, Nov. 16, in Memorial Youth Center. Harriet Dickert, 1955 Homecoming queen and a member of Student Council homecoming committee, sold the ticket to President Russell. Jim Wilkinson, chairman of the committee, is looking on. Tickets for the dance may be purchased now for $3 each, stag or drag, from members of Student Council. Hal McIntyre and his orchestra, featuring Jeanne McManus and the McIntots, will play for the informal dance. The new homecoming queen will be announced during the dance, according to Wilkinson. (Photo by Kern Powell, University

POGOITES SAY VOTE

Ike, Adlai, Byrd Seek Election; Pogo Urges You To Cast Ballots

Staff Writer

This year in national political elections the Republicans would like to re-elect Eisenhower, the Democrats would like to elect

Stevenson and the Independents want to get Harry Byrd in the top national office.

But Carolyn McClung, chairman of the "I-go-Pogo" poli-

I GO POGO . . . Carolyn McClung, natural born chairman of the Pogo party in this locale, is shouting the slogan, "I Go Pogo!"

from a speaker's platform. She has been claimed by Walt Kelly, author of the Pogo comic strip, as a "real, live one" and has been given privileges designated for Pogo party leaders. (Staff photo by Ken Sturgeon)

Primeval Possum Miss McClung was recently honored by Walt Kelly, the plained by the simple fact that Kelly, despite his seemingly shallow field, is a genius of the first order who has inevitably turned out a gently satirical strip that has yet to lapse into boredom or immaturity.

Kelly's concern for the presidential timbre is a patriotic campus, and millions of other Pogoites throughout the United States are a determined lot. They are campaigning vigorously for votes, just votes.

Pogo Possum, an inhabitant of the Okefenokee swamplands, runs (in a dignified gait) on the platform of "Pogo for President All Others for Vice." (Vice is a major theme in our times.) Pogo has assembled a committee charged with the responsibility of spreading the good word, and according to Miss McClung, the campaign at the University has been a rollicking success.

creator of Pogo, by being named a member of "The Primitive and Primeval Order of Possum Players," the fair-haired group who will carry the Pogo Ban-

Pogo Possum, of course, is a comic strip carried in over 150 newspapers and periodicals all over the world. His creator, Walt Kelly, was voted Cartoonist of the Year in 1952, and in the past eight years has managed to build up a large audience of readers.

The devotion to Pogo is ex-

Kelly Patriotic (Continued on Page 10)

Eighth Carolina Forensics Meets Here November 9, 10 The Eighth Carolina Forensics, phies, except for individual cups.

bate teams at the gathering.

"That the U. S. should discontinue and South Carolina. direct . economic aid to foreign Carolina's team, which won last team will not compete for tro- place.

biggest debate tournament ever The intra-sectional meet inheld here, will be conducted on cludes teams from these colleges campus Friday and Saturday, and universities: Mercer, Florida, Nev. 9 and 10. 25 teams will rep- Gardner-Webb, Notre Dame, Duke, resent the major southeastern de- Wofford, Tennessee, Wake Forest, Miami, Agnes Scott, Appalachian Each team will participate in State, Mars Hill, Georgia, North six rounds of debate on the query, Carolina, Lenoir-Rhyne, Kentucky, countries," Dr. M. G. Christopher- year's Carolina Forensics, was sen, University debate coach, an recognized as the top debating group in the South, according to The Forensic contest will con- Christophersen. The other three tinue until noon, Saturday, when teams of national ranking in 1955, the results will be announced and Duke, Wake Forest, and Miami, the trophies awarded. Carolina's are again in competition for first