

Diamondmen Meet State This Afternoon

Bass Signs Prep Star From Upstate

Coach Marvin Bass, continuing to concentrate on state players as a nucleus for his first University of South Carolina freshman squad, has announced the signing of All-State halfback Charlie Wofford of Greenville High School to a football grant-in-aid.

Other all-staters who have signed letters of intent to enroll at Carolina next fall include Ned Baynham, an end of North Augusta; Mike Derrick, halfback of Brookland-Cayce, and Jim Tom Oliver, quarterback of Orangeburg.

Wofford is the second player the new head coach at Carolina has signed off the 1960 Greenville High team. Inking his letter of intent earlier was Larry Graves, fullback and linebacker.

Wofford, who lettered in football three years at GHS, is the son of former U. S. Senator and Mrs. Tom Wofford of Greenville. His athletic achievements are matched by his academic work. Charlie is a member of the National Honor Society, treasurer of his senior class and president of the Block G Club of Greenville High.

Young Wofford gained 932 yards rushing, 183 passing for GHS, and scored eight touchdowns. He averaged 38 yards punting, had 96 yards on pass receptions and turned in an 80-yarder as his longest run.

"We're mighty pleased to add another All-State boy to our roster," Bass said. "His record indicates he has both academically and athletically the talents we are looking for in our football program. He comes from a family of staunch Gamecock supporters."

Netmen Blank Wofford

The Gamecock netmen, who played Duke yesterday afternoon, met Wofford last Tuesday and defeated the Terriers 9-0, winning all but two sets.

The singles summaries:

Bob Daniel (SC) beat Jerry, 6-4, 6-3; Bill Shirley (SC) beat Fowler 6-2, 5-6, 6-2; Joe Smoak (SC) beat Mull, 6-1, 6-3; Cliff Holler (SC) beat Shuemaker 6-2, 6-2; Charlie Nash (SC) beat Drosos, 6-0, 6-0; and Phil Mansell beat Guy 6-0, 6-4.

When the Wolfpack and the Tar Heels invade Rex Enright Athletic Center this afternoon and tomorrow to do battle with the Gamecocks, Coach Joe Grugan's infielders will be doing their best to aid

Entertain Tar Heels Tomorrow

By WAYNE CORBETT
Gamecock Sports Writer

South Carolina entertains North Carolina State this afternoon and North Carolina tomorrow at the Rex Enright Athletic Center in the third consecutive weekend series for Gamecocks. Game time is 2:30. The Wolfpack, sporting a 6-1 record earned only by a 4-3 loss to UNC, is a favorite in the race for the 1961 ACC baseball crown. Coach Al Sorell has a veteran ball club with an abundance of strong, experienced pitchers. Lanny Joel (left), Willie Carruthers, Gordon Needles and reliever Bobby Conner lead the State pitching staff.

The Wolfpack boasts a fine second baseman in Vernon Strickland, a 321-foot slugger and Wayne Edwards, a 300-foot power man. First baseman R. Mann Gabriel, an All-American footballer, and catcher Ray Perry add power to the lineup.

North Carolina lost two of its top hitters through graduation, leaving only third baseman Ferg Norton as its only established hitter. Paul Swing and Len DeBelle have taken on some of the slack. The Tar Heels' strength is its fine pitching staff headed by Nicky Warren, Dave Murr, and big Bob Deaton. Jerome Stott is Coach Walter Raul's ace fireman.

Coach Joe Grugan can call on Bud Swygert, Everette Newman, or George Epps as starting pitchers for the Gamecocks. Bobby Robinson, Ed Eilenburg, and Epps have emerged as the club's top hitters in the early games. Grugan has juggled his lineup in every game to tighten up an extremely porous defense.

Defeat Deacs

Righthander Bud Swygert scattered six harmless singles as he pitched the Gamecocks to a 4-1 victory over Wake Forest Friday.

The Gamecocks jumped on little Bob Muller for all their runs in the first inning. Wake only scored twice in the last four innings. In the fourth, Ed Epps pitched a perfect game, allowing no hits and no runs.

Ed Epps, who was named MVP of the game, pitched a perfect game, allowing no hits and no runs.

Swygert struck out five batters in pitching his first complete game of the year. It was his second victory in as many starts. Wake's only run was an unearned run in the second which resulted in a three-run game.

The Wake game was the first of a four-game series between the two schools.

Down Devils

Bob Kautz pitched nine to an all-time low for the Gamecocks Saturday, allowing only four runs and striking out four.

The Devils, who had a record of 1-1, were forced to face the Gamecocks in a game that was a slugfest. Kautz pitched a complete game, allowing only four runs and striking out four. The Blue Devils gave Kautz a complete game in the first inning. Rube Davis accounted for two of the runs with the first of his two home runs. The second homer came with a clutch hit on base during a five-run inning in the sixth.

Carolina's lone run came in the fourth as Rocky Robinson scored on George Epps' ground out.

Head Coach Crosses Oh, Yeah! State For Club

By Chub Gedrie

The Gamecock Club, through the combined efforts of Head Coach Marvin Bass, Sports Publicity Director Red Canup, and Executive Secretary Roger White, has made great strides thus far this year in making the Club the greatest ever.

These men have been travelling all over the state, even into the backyard of Frank Howard, where they reportedly talked to one of their largest crowds in Anderson.

The following is the April schedule of the Gamecock Club Meetings:

Why are some girls prouder of their rings than others?

You see it in her eyes—but the reasons aren't all romantic ones. Her diamond ring is an Artcarved. This means it meets rigid standards of excellence in cut, carat weight, color and clarity.

Nor is this simply a verbal promise. Artcarved's written guarantee explains how the exclusive Permanent Value Plan lets you apply the full current retail price toward the purchase of a larger Artcarved anytime, at any Artcarved jeweler throughout the country. You will be proud, too, of Artcarved's award-winning styling, like the Evening Star shown here. To be sure it's an Artcarved: Look for the name inside the ring, and ask for your written Artcarved guarantee.

Of course, being engaged is wonderful, but sealing the engagement with an Artcarved ring makes it more wonderful than ever—forever!
