

Intramurals

Football intramurals between fraternities and independents got underway Wednesday and will continue through November.

The fraternities and independents have been divided into two leagues. At the end of the regular season, the champions of the respective leagues will play for the fraternity and independent championships.

The winner of the independent championship contest will then play the fraternity champion for the title of Campus Champion.

Intramurals will be played later in the following sports: swimming, bowling, ping-pong, basketball, softball, golf, tennis, volleyball, track and putt-putt.

Undefeated Bulldogs Present Tough Test For Gamecocks

By DONALD CAUGHMAN
Sports Editor

USC will face another tough Southeastern Conference opponent Saturday night when the unbeaten Georgia Bulldogs come to Columbia to take on Coach Paul Dietzel's bruised-up Gamecocks.

Coach Vince Dooley's Bulldogs have chalked up wins over Mississippi State and Virginia Military Institute and are described by Dietzel as having "more speed than any team we've seen this season."

Dietzel, who has never opposed a Georgia team in his coaching career, feels the Bulldogs are "faster and more dangerous than LSU."

Leading the Georgia offense are fullback Ronnie Jenkins, who has rushed for 151 yards in two games, quarterback Kirby Moore, who has 141 yards rushing, and tailback Kent Lawrence, who has gained 74 yards.

Lawrence, a 9.5 speedster from Clemson, returned a kickoff 87 yards for a touchdown against VMI.

Dietzel called Lawrence a "nice-looking runner" and said he considers him "plumb dangerous."

The Gamecock head mentor said he is also impressed with Moore, whom he considers as dangerous as LSU's outstanding quarterback Nelson Stokley.

Jenkins, a 222-pound junior, gives the Bulldogs more than adequate strength in the running department.

Bob Etter, who scored 46 points last year on ten field goals and 16 conversions, excels for Georgia in the placekicking department.

Defensively, Georgia uses a six-man line with two linebackers and a three-deep secondary.

Defensive standouts include 230-pound tackle George Patton, a serious candidate for All-America honors, and safety Lyn Hughes, an All-Southeastern Conference selection last year whom USC Associate Coach Jimmy Vickers says is "comparable to our Bobby Bryant. Both are great athletes."

Dietzel said he expects the Bulldogs to prove a sterner test for his Gamecocks than either LSU or Memphis State.

"Coach Vince Dooley has done a wonderful job down there," Dietzel added, "he has a real fine football team."

Gamecock Harriers To Host Tar Heels

The Gamecock cross-country team will open its 1966 season Saturday against North Carolina at 11 a.m. at the Roundhouse.

One top runner lost for the cross-country season is Mike Eidson, who went to England as an exchange student for the fall semester. He will return, however, for the spring semester and the track team.

Two returning distance runners are Johnny Mitchum and Brian Kenney. Mitchum was on last year's varsity squad and Kenney was on the freshman team.

Saturday's three-mile event will begin at the Roundhouse, come up the railroad trestle, then up Sumter Street, around the intramural fields including the tennis courts and back to the Roundhouse.
