Attention Carolina Students!
Take Advantage of the Koger Bring a Friend Special! It's two tickets for the price of one.

Good times can be hard to come by on a college student budget, but this fall you can stretch your entertainment dollars with the Koger Center/ The State newspaper Bring a Friend Special.

Indulge in the exquisite sounds of world-class pianist Ian Hobson. With what the New York Times calls his "ear for the unusual," Hobson amazes audiences with his astounding repertoire and dazzling keyboard mastery. Prepare for an extraordinary adventure through the artistry of this Leeds prizewinner.

After the concert the show's all yours at a special students only party sponsored by The State and hosted by the Koger Center Student Association in honor of the '89 Freshman Class.

So just pull on whatever is comfortable and come hear some terrific music. Drop by the Carolina Coliseum Box Office today with a valid Carolina student I.D. and ask for the Bring a Friend Special.

Freshman Council

Freshman Council is a new council designed by Student Government for the purpose of offering freshman leaders an opportunity to become acquainted with the University community. The thirty to forty freshmen who will be selected will participate in philanthropic and social events as well as many other activities which will enhance leadership skills.

Any freshman wishing to apply for Freshman Council should stop by the Student Government office and pick up an application. The deadline for returning applications to the Student Government office is Friday, September 8.

8. Once applications are in, a screening process will take place and a select group will be invited back for interviews the week of September 18. Freshman Council members will be announced on Monday September 25.

If you have any questions please feel free to contact Cathy Grzybowski at 777-2654.
