

J.B. White

Congratulations,
Class Of 1990!
Now...Let's Hit The Beach!

USC President James Holderman is shown here with 1989 Homecoming Queen Cassandra "Sandi" Shannon at the homecoming game against East Carolina Oct. 7.

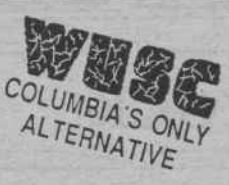

You've taken your last final...endured the last lecture of your college career...written your very last paper (whew!)...now it's party time! Time for a little rest and relaxation, maybe a little fun in the sun. You might as well look as terrific as you feel, so get ready by paying a visit to the J.B. White swim shop. You'll find hot looks like the ones shown here from La Blanca and Ocean Pacific, plus many more by your favorite names. So, get suited up, and hit the pool, the beach, the cruise ship...just remember, you don't have to hit the books!
