Seniors prepare for final homecoming Woods praises leadership qualities

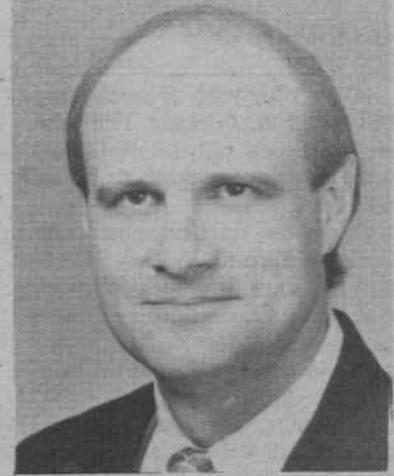

From Staff Reports

For 15 USC football players, Saturday's game against East Carolina will be the last time they will suit up for a Gamecock homecoming game.

Gamecock head football coach Sparky Woods had this to say about his seniors: "I'm really pleased with our seniors. They've been the primary reason that we've narrowed the gap of the transition and helped the transition develop quicker through the changes of the coaching staff. Their support to our ideas about practice and games and such has been a great example to our younger players. They also have been a great example off the field which the entire image of our football program improve. (They) have been just a very first class group to lead our football team into the season and represent South Carolina in a way that we would hope all of our seniors would."

1989 results: USC wins big, defeats ECU in homecoming

From Staff Reports

USC won its 15th consecutive Homecoming game with this past year's 47-14 win over East Carolina.

The Gamecocks were led by senior quarterback Todd Ellis in the win as USC continued its domination over the Pirates (USC leads in the series 7-0).

Ellis completed 17 of 32 passes for 360 yards and three touchdowns in the contest as the Gamecocks had their highest point total of the season.

On defense, USC forced three turnovers and allowed only 72 rushing yards and 12 first downs.

The Gamecock running attack was led by Mike Dingle with 19 carries for 117 yards and Albert Haynes with 101 yards in 22 attempts.

The win improved USC's record to 4-1-1.
