Freshmen excited about college challenge

By JIMMY DEBUTTS
Staff Writer

With all the hype of this week's game between USC and Georgia, one aspect which has received little attention is the contribution of this year's freshmen players.

The Carolina roster lists 42 freshmen, and many of them will play key roles in backing up starting players.

"The freshmen who get a chance to play will play a big part," freshman center Derrick Gregory said.

Heading into Saturday's game, many first-year players have a mixture of thoughts.

"I'm excited, playing a major college in front of a lot of people," freshman linebacker Lee Turnispeed said.

Freshman cornerback Ron Nealy said, "I'm excited and nervous, but we're ready and confident for our first game."

For most of the new players, Saturday will bring their first experience in front of 72,400 fans.

"I've never been in this situation before, playing in front of a lot of fans," freshman linebacker Benji Young said.

First-year defensive back Reggie Richardson said, "As the season goes on, they (freshmen) will contribute more and more."
