■ DALLAS (AP) — A teen-age topless dancer, who accused Dallas tackle Erik Williams and his friend of sexual assault, had sex with both men, then became upset when Williams said she couldn't be his girlfriend, Williams' lawyer said.

Donald Godwin said Williams told him that the 17-year-old had sex willingly with him and Roderick Carson of Madison, Wis., that night and on the previous weekend. Both men were arrested Thursday and released after posting bonds.

Dallas police filed felony sexual assault charges against Williams and Carson in Collin County Monday. Sexual assault is a second-degree felony punishable by two to 20 years in prison.

■ INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Indianapolis matched Carolina's three-year offer sheet to restricted free agent safety Jason Belser. Belser signed Monday for a reported $1.9 million, including a $300,000 signing bonus.

■ PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — Detroit signed free agent quarterbacks Don Majkowski and Don Hollas. Majkowski spent last season with Indianapolis, and Hollas played the past four seasons with Cincinnati.

■ HONG KONG (AP) — Top-seeded Michael Chang began his title defense in the Hong Kong Salem Open, routing Switzerland's Jakob Hlasek 6-1, 6-3.

Second-seeded Wayne Ferreira of South Africa and third-seeded Jim Courier also advanced. Ferreira beat Britain's Jeremy Bates 7-5, 6-4, and Courier defeated South Korea's Yoon Yong-il 6-2, 6-4.

Yacht Racing

■ SAN DIEGO (AP) — The America's Cup came up with a dubious distinction when one race was postponed because the wind was blowing too hard and the second was called off when the wind dropped to practically nothing.

The challenger race between one Australia and Team New Zealand's Black Magic 1 was postponed at 11 a.m. because of wind exceeding 22 knots, and the defender race between Young America and Mighty Mary was called at 3 p.m. with the wind at only two knots. Both races were rescheduled for today.

Black Magic 1 leads the best-of-9 challenger series 4-1, and Mighty Mary, Young America and Stars & Stripes are tied with three points apiece.

Haynie, Carolina outpitch Ga. Southern, 3-0

ROBBIE MEEK Staff Writer

Sparked by a strong pitcher, Jason Haynie, the Gamecock baseball team defeated Georgia Southern 3-0 Wednesday night at Sarge Frye Field.

Haynie pitched the first seven innings giving up four hits and no runs. He also had seven strikeouts and walked four. Jason is now 3-2 on the year.

Carolina got started early as Derrick Urquhart reached third base on an error by Georgia Southern's left fielder Shane Marquis. The next batter Randy Stegall singled to drive in Urquhart. Stegall who is Carolina's leading batter was one for three on the night with one RBI.

In the third inning the Eagles continued to struggle as Haynie got three up, three down to end the inning.

USC once again got on the board in the third. Urquhart again got on base with a single. Three batters later, designated hitter Brian Hucks doubled to score Urquhart. The Gamecocks led 2-0.

Carolina got the final run of the game in the fourth inning. Ryan Szejwka started the inning off for the Gamecocks with a single. Szejwka was two for three with one run scored.

Mike Dezenzo then doubled to advance Szejwka to third. Urquhart was once again a factor for USC as his sacrifice fly drove in the final run to make the score 3-0.

Urquhart was one for three with two runs scored. Derrick has been a big part of the Gamecock offense as of late. This past weekend he was six for 13 in a three-game series against the University of Georgia.

In the eighth inning Damarius Turner came in on relief. Turner pitched one inning and didn't give up any hits.

Jim Stoops came to the mound in the ninth in relief of Turner. Stoops also had a strong pitching performance. He pitched the final inning and got three up, three down to end the game.

The Gamecocks moved to 25-16 on the season. USC will get back into conference play this weekend with a three-game series against Vanderbilt at Sarge Frye Field. The first game of that series will be Friday night at 7:00.

Lady Gamecocks down Tar Heels in doubleheader

■ Gareis breaks record for most games played, while inching toward record for victories and innings pitched.

Staff Reports

The Lady Gamecock softball team swept North Carolina in a doubleheader Wednesday afternoon, 3-0 and 10-2, in Chapel Hill. Carolina moves their record to 43-14 and are ranked No. 13 in the latest NSCA/USA Today poll released Wednesday.

Sophomore Trinity Johnson, the nation's strike-out leader, moved her record to 24-6, with the 3-0 victory. Johnson gave up one hit, a single in the fifth, for her ninth one-hitter of the year. Johnson struck out 12 and walked one, moving her total on the year for strikeouts to 321.

At the plate, senior Debbie Parker went one for two with a run scored, an RBI and two sacrifices. Junior Carrie Lyons also helped herself at the plate, going one for four with a double and a RBI.

In the second game, senior Darlene Gareis also pitched a one-hitter. Gareis allowed two runs, with five strikeouts and three walks. Gareis broke the school record for games played this weekend and is in striking distance of victories and innings pitched.

At the plate, junior Jennifer Davis went two for two, with a double and two runs scored. Senior Shani Cannon also had a fine day going two for two with a double, two runs scored and a RBI.

Johnson, a right-handed pitcher, is currently the NCAA Division I softball strikeout leader. Through Sunday's games the Irvine Calif., native leads the nation with 321 strikeouts, and her 10.9 strikeouts per seven innings pitched is tops in the nation as well. Johnson's 321 strikeouts also breaks the Lady Gamecock season strike-out record of 295, which was previously held by Darlene Lowery, who set the mark in 1985. Johnson currently boasts a 24-6 record, as well as a 0.70 earned run average.

South Carolina heads home to host weekend doubleheaders with Texas A&M, April 22 and 23 at 2:00 p.m. and 11:00 a.m., respectively.
