

Carnival kicks off Homecoming Week

Jugglers, caricature artists, trampoline to take over Greene Street

Lick your lips and get ready for cotton candy and popcorn -- both which will be found at the 1996 Homecoming Carnival.

There will be food, music and a live performance. This event is none other than USC's Homecoming Carnival. The Carnival which is set to take over Greene Street on Wednesday, Sept. 25, from noon till 3 p.m., officially kicks off Homecoming Week.

The Carnival is the perfect opportunity for student organizations to showcase themselves, via a booth. Previous organizational booths have had everything from jello wrestling to cotton candy that's for sale. Knowing your organization's creative ability, this year's Carnival promises to be twice as exciting. Besides, participating in the Carnival is also a way for your organization to earn points

Carnival

- Date: September 25
- Time: Noon - 3 p.m.
- Location: Greene Street

in the "Spirit Competition."

To add to the excitement of this year's Carnival, will be two performances by the Fettucini Brothers. Famous for their incredible juggling acts, they are sure to give a memorable performance. The performance by the Fettucini Brothers was arranged by Carolina Production's Special Events Commission, which is a co-sponsor of the Homecoming Carnival. Without the help of the Special Events Commission the Carnival would not be as successful as it promises to be.

In addition, caricature artists will be on hand, as well as other novelty acts such as a bungee trampoline ride. Columbia's own Rock 93.5 FM will be broadcasting live from the Carnival site.

In the event of rain, the Carnival will be moved into the Russell House Ballroom, since the show must go on.

The Fettucini Brothers will perform their remarkable juggling acts on Greene Street during the carnival.

Street Jam 1996 offers free fun for students

Homecoming's most recent addition offers another reason to celebrate

Just because the 'World's Largest Shag Party' is being held on Thursday night doesn't mean we can't have another dance on Friday.

USC's Street Jam is just another excuse for Gamecocks to celebrate-- isn't that what Homecoming and Friday nights are for?

Street Jam

- Date: September 27
- Time: 8 p.m. - 11 p.m.
- Location: Greene Street

Sponsored by Carolina Productions Homecoming Commission and Carolina Productions Black Cultural Commission, Street Jam is a recent addition to the Homecoming slate of activities. However, being only three years old hasn't stopped Street Jam from being one of Homecoming's most popular events. Street Jam, which features a deejay and live music, is the perfect opportunity to dance for free. The party starts at 8 p.m. and people will be dancing until 11 p.m. As you might have guessed, Street Jam is held on Greene Street. But, what if it rains?

No problem, the event will be moved to the Russell House Ballroom.

Music, dancing and no admission cost. It's almost perfect, or at least perfect enough to be an integral part of USC's Homecoming celebration.