order to facilitate student knowledge of senate legislative processes. Moyer would also like to see suggestion boxes placed near the legislation postings so students would have another avenue of communication with their senators. At the start of Wednesday's meeting, the honor organization Omicron Delta Kappa recognized vice president Franklin for his contributions to the Carolina community through academic and leadership involvement. Franklin's surprise at receiving the honor made it difficult to conduct the meeting immediately following the recognition, but he managed to again challenge members of the senate to recognize their jobs as senators. "I think one thing we need to make sure we realize is that we are here, not to serve ourselves, but to serve our fellow students," Franklin said. "I would rather have 25 senators here who represent the students than 50 senators who are representing themselves." In other business, athletics committee chairman Sen. Bryan Menees was elected Senate Pro Tempore in an election between he and Sen. Michelle Marenkovic. Athletics committee co-chair Sen. Gene Willis will replace Menees as committee chair.

Interested in a Career of Teaching and Scholarship?

Mellon Scholarship Workshop, Tuesday, October 8 at 4:00 p.m. Gressette Room, Harper College

If so, you should consider the Mellon Fellowship. This fellowship is for graduate work leading to a career of teaching and scholarship in a traditional humanistic discipline (not including creative or performing arts, social sciences, or professional fields such as law, library science, and social work). Successful candidates must present a high GPA and a high GRE score, and a philosophy of both teaching and learning. Awards include travel, tuition, medical coverage, and a $13,750 stipend. For scholarship criteria and application procedures, attend the Mellon Scholarship Workshop on Tuesday, October 8 at 4:00 p.m. or contact Novella Beskid in the Fellowships Office at 777-0958 or the Mellon Faculty Advisor, Ward Briggs at 777-2930.
