The 3 on 3 Sand Volleyball tournament will be played very similarly to the tennis

As with all intramural sports, faculty, staff, students, and their spouses are eligible to participate. Students who were registered for the spring semester, or are registered for the fall semester of 1997, or are currently enrolled in summer session classes are eligible to participate.

If you are interested in further information, contact the Office of Campus Recreation.

FALL INTRAMURAL SCHEDULE RELEASED

The intramural schedule for the fall 1997 semester has been released with a few changes from the previous years schedules. Activities such as sand volleyball, tennis, table tennis, and racquetball will be scheduled as weekend tournaments, as opposed to the self-scheduling format used previously.

The Gatorade Red Zone Challenge is back this year, also with a few changes. The Red Zone will take place on Friday, October 3. This is to prevent some conflicts that may arise from the USC vs. Auburn football game scheduled for Saturday, October 4. Once again, the winners of the Red Zone will win a trip to the SEC Championship game.

FALL SEMESTER SPORTS IN NEED OF OFFICIALS

Are you planning on coming back to campus next year with enough money for the entire semester? Sure, everyone is planning on working over the summer and saving all the money they can. But in reality, this seldom happens. But do not worry, Intramural Sports can help you out.

By giving some of your time each week, you can earn some pretty good money by officiating intramural sports.

Officials are needed for flag football, co-rec softball, indoor soccer, and floor hockey. Officials earn a minimum of $5 per game, and set their own hours. You will always have Friday and Saturday nights off, and can stay on campus while you work. No experience is necessary, just an understanding of the sport and a desire to work. If you are interested, contact our office for more info.
