and organizing massive amounts of essential data about the university," Olom said.

Moody, professor and chair of USC's reailing department, joined the USC faculty in 1974. Medway, a professor in USC's psychology department, joined USC as an assistant professor in 1975. Smith-joined USC's department of government and international studies in 1979 and was named associate dean for graduate studies and faculty development in 1997 for the College of Liberal Arts.

The appointments became effective July 1.

Frat might be confusing policies, miscommunicating group intentions

will possibly rid Zeta Beta Tau of a typical fraternity stereotype.

"There's a lot of people who have a lot of reservations about frats," Hamilton said. "We don't want to be involved with the IFC. I think the Greek system is going through a big change right now."

Staggs feels the current policy stated in the Carolina Community is in the best interest of not only the entire Greek community, but Zeta Beta Tau as well.

"The policies are not only to protect the existing fraternity system, but that specific group as well," Staggs said.

According to Hamilton, all the necessary forms were sent to Rick Gant, Coordinator of Student Life Programs, and Zeta Beta Tau is awaiting word on the decision of Student Life. Gant, however, said the application and petition must be revised in order to make Zeta Beta Tau's application file complete due to a decrease in membership.

Although Zeta Beta Tau can not be recognized as a social fraternity without participating in the IFC, they can be recognized as an organization if they turn in all necessary forms and the forms are completed correctly.

New director to shape up lit program in a writers' festival held October 1-3, which will bring in author Charles Frasier of "Cold Mountain" fame, poets W.S. Merwin and Marilyn Price, and writer Reynolds Price. In addition, Coover will coordinate a hypermedia conference, sponsored by the English Department, at the end of October.

Coover will be the Visiting Writer in Residence for the fall and spring semesters. In the meantime, says Newman, "We are conducting a full-scale international search for a permanent replacement."
