

compiled by Rosalind Harvey

June 26

•Burglary, Larceny of Boom Box, Sloan College. Victim said unknown broke the window in office 100A. Upon gaining access into the office, the individual took a radio with CD player. Estimated value: $80. Investigation continues.

•Larceny of Welding Tools, McMaster. Complainant stated that an unknown person(s) gained access by unknown means into the construction site of McMasters and stole the following: an acetylene gauge, an oxygen gauge, a mixing chamber, a cutting head, TIPP and 200 feet of hose. Total value: $500

June 27

•Pointing and Presenting a Firearm, Wheat Street. Victim said the suspect waved a handgun at herself and other pedestrians at the above location. Suspect was apparently angry over having to stop his vehicle for pedestrians. He sped away east on Wheat Street driving a white 4-door Pontiac. Investigation continues.

June 28

•Larceny of Gun, Auto Break-in, E-2 Lot. Complainant stated that an unknown person(s) entered his unsecured vehicle when he was playing basketball and removed a Ruger 9mm gun. Estimated value: $277

•Tampering With Fire Equipment, Snowden third floor. Complainant advised that he noticed that person(s) unknown unraveled the fire hose that is located in the hall of the above location.

June 30

•Autobreaking, Larceny of Radar Detector, Pendleton Street Garage. Victim stated that an unknown person(s) broke out the drivers side rear window by unknown means and removed one radar detector. The vehicle was placed in an impound lot for safekeeping, two sets of prints were taken from the car and victim provided a sample. Estimated value: $100

July 1

•Autobreaking, Larceny of Vehicle Radio, Cliff Parking Lot. Victim stated that unknown person(s) entered his vehicle by unknown means and took his radio. Victim also stated that he might have left the doors unlocked. Estimated value: $400

July 2

•Malicious Injury to Real Property, USC College of Nursing. Complainant stated that an unknown person(s) broke a window. The officer was unable to determine what broke the window. Estimated damage: $500

•Larceny of Bookbag, Thomas Cooper Library, Victim stated that unknown person(s) stole his bookbag while he went to the copy machine. Victim also stated that he left the bookbag unattended while making copies. Estimated value: $30

•Domestic Dispute, Division of Library and Information Science. Responding officer was met by complainant who advised the following: at about 8 a.m., complainant was verbally harassed by the subject who is presently employed by the USC Grounds Department. Complainant stated that the subject threatened to hit her and that his breath smelled of alcohol. The responding officer contacted the grounds manager who had already been informed about the incident and already sent the subject home. After further investigation, the officer became aware of previous meetings between the complainant and the subject, as well as numerous contradicting stories by other grounds and custodial employees. The officer was unable to contact the subject, however, management has been notified.

Do you want to be excited? Do you want to do something fun during your summer? Write for The Gamecock. News...ETC... Sports. The possibilities are endless. Call 777-7726 or come to our office on the third floor of the Russell House.

The Gamecock. Take our word.

Welcome Freshmen and Parents!

Reserve Books Now

20% Discount on All Clothing and Gift Items

Reserve your textbooks today...We'll do the work and have them ready for you when you return for classes!

Just complete the form below and then pick up your books:

Saturday, August 15, 10am-6pm • Sunday, August 16, 12pm-8pm
Monday, August 17, 7:45am-9pm • Tuesday, August 18, 7:45am-9pm
Wednesday, August 19, 7:45am-6pm

Student ID Number _____
Name _____
I prefer... New Books Used Books
Please include all optional books? Yes No
I wish to pay my deposit in the following manner:
Check Money Order Credit Card (see below)
 Visa MasterCard Discover AmEx
Account # _____ Exp. Date _____

DO NOT SEND CASH
$5 Deposit Required
Deposit applied to purchase price of books at time of pick-up or forfeited if books are not picked-up by August 19 at 6pm.

Drop form off at the USC Bookstore in the Russell House.

YOUR OFFICIAL USC BOOKSTORE
UNIVERSITY OF
SOUTH CAROLINA
BOOKSTORE

The Russell House
1400 Greene Street
Columbia, SC 29208
(803) 777-4160

Summer
Cash
in a Flash!

3 hours out of your week could earn you $65!

Help children, hemophiliacs and heart patients who receive products made from the plasma of our donors.

EARN UP TO $65

The Quality Source
NABI BioMedical Center
215 Assembly St., Columbia SC 29201
254-2280