

Student Media

Russell House University Union • 3rd Floor • 803/777.3888

Student Media at The University of South Carolina offers students the opportunity to gain experience in print and broadcast media, advertising sales and graphic design.

All students are invited to participate in Student Media, regardless of major, year in school or previous experience. Most positions are available on a volunteer basis and some paid positions are also available. Involvement in Student Media can be both fun and rewarding. In addition to obtaining specialized skills, many students have used their experience with Student Media to earn internships and jobs following graduation.

The Gamecock

Check us out 3 times a week!

The Gamecock, USC's student newspaper, is published on Monday, Wednesday and Friday during the fall and spring semesters. With a readership of 27,000, The Gamecock is available to students, faculty and staff free of charge at over 50 locations on and around campus.

Interested students are invited to join the staff and work in areas such as reporting, writing, editing, photography, advertising sales, marketing, layout, design, production and distribution.

WUSC-FM

Tune in at 90.5 FM!

WUSC-FM is the 2500 watt noncommercial, educational, free-format student radio station at USC, broadcasting 12 to 24 hours per day at 90.5 FM.

The station introduces new music and provides alternative programming for its listeners, including specialty programs focusing on a single genre of music such as blues, punk, ska, country, acoustic, and jazz.

All students interested in radio production, announcing, music reviewing or promotion are invited to join WUSC.

Garnet & Black

Look for us November 12, February 11 and April 1!

Garnet & Black magazine is Student Media's newest print publication, formed in 1994 as a consolidation of the University's former yearbook and literary magazine. This student magazine focuses on the issues of general interest to the Carolina community and includes a literary section featuring student literary and other creative work.

Interested students are invited to join the staff and work in areas such as writing, editing, photography, advertising sales, marketing, layout, design, production and distribution.

Here's an idea!

Do you want to be involved? Are you ready to make your freshman year count? And more importantly, do you want to be part of Student Government?

Freshman Council 1998 The Fresh Way to Start

Applications are available in the Student Government Office. Be a part of Student Government and make some of the best memories of your life.

For further information, contact the Student Government Office in the Russell House (Room 110) or call at 777-2654.

Academic Skills Program

One on One Individual Instruction

Skill! Areas Covered

Time Management

Test Preparation

Notetaking

Test-Taking Strategies

Textbook Mastery

Memory Improvement

General Study Skills

Supplemental Instruction
offered in selected course offerings

Call 777-6573

For an appointment today!

Monday - Friday 8:30-5pm

Located in LeConte 106

Educational Support Services

at the University of South Carolina

USC Emerging Leader Program

Were you on student council?

Were you in FCA or a class officer?

Were you an athlete or a cheerleader?

Were you in the band?

Were you a student leader?

The Emerging Leader Program is for YOU!

Designed to shape good students into great USC student leaders. Students are selected based on submitted applications. For more information call the Office of Leadership Training Programs @ (803) 777-6688.

Applications due September 2, 1998.

Are you up for trying something new & different?

Would you like to hang out with some really cool people?

Do you like to live on the cutting edge?

We have your solution!

Be a Member of the R.A.D.I.C.A.L. team!

(Raising Alcohol and other Drug Issues through Change And Leadership)

The R.A.D.I.C.A.L. team Peer Mentors are Carolina students who focus on promoting a campus social environment that does not center on alcohol and other drug use. After team members participate in on-going educational training in the area of alcohol and other drugs, they will facilitate workshops for the campus community and assist with campus-wide programming efforts.

Applications are available in the Office of Alcohol & Drug Programs, located in the Campus Activities Center, Russell House. The application deadline is right around the corner: Wednesday, August 19. For more information, please contact the Office of Alcohol & Drug Programs at 777-5780.

HAVE FUN!
MAKE A DIFFERENCE!
JOIN THE R.A.D.I.C.A.L. TEAM!