Daily Horoscopes

Aries (March 21-April 19) You have an inner certainty that everything's going to turn out right, even if you can't figure out how. That's OK. Having faith in your intended outcome is much more important. Go ahead and visualize yourself already successful. Encourage your team to do the same thing. These little mind tricks can be quite effective.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22) The moon's transit through Aries can get you a little agitated. It's going through your solar ninth house of travel, and it's going to come right up against Saturn, which is already there. Saturn represents history, so if you can go back to a familiar place this weekend, that would be perfect. If you can do it with an old friend, even better.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) You're in the mood for love, and taking a trip, not necessarily in that order. If the one you love has a practical streak, you'll get demerits for leaving work early, so don't even try it. Instead, make sure your check is in the bank before you pack up your picnic basket and head for the hills.

Taurus (April 20-May 20) You know what needs to be done, and you've probably been hard at work doing it. That's just the way you are. But somebody who's a little short of temper could be getting impatient. Tell that person, nicely, to cool it. You'll get the job done as fast as you can. Try to stay flexible, even under trying circumstances.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You're a thrifty person normally, but right now you just don't feel like it. You'd rather go out and buy all those fabulous things on sale. If you can convince yourself that you're actually saving by doing that, you might be able to work a deal. It looks like there's something out there that does have your name written all over it.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) It looks like there's some sort of disruption today concerning home, family or real estate. Maybe a mess needs to be cleaned up at home. Maybe you need to have a discussion with a family member about a misunderstanding. If it's real estate, it's a fixer-upper that you'd find. Whatever it is, it'll be worth the effort.

Gemini (May 21-June 21) You're amazing today. You're agile and quick, and an inspiration to others. You'd be the first choice for anybody's team. Continue to push hard on your career goals, but give yourself some time to party. You've worked hard this week, and you have plenty of reasons to celebrate. If not, you'll make some up by the time you and the gang get together.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Somebody you admire thinks you're pretty cute. Truth is, you feel the same way back, although you'd never admit it. Anyway, this person may have an outrageous plan for you today. Sure it's crazy, but what the heck? You only live once, right? Well, you may not be too sure about that, but you do know when an offer is just too good to refuse.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Today, you're on the path to a new discovery. Don't try to do it all by yourself. Just as you pass information along to one who needs it, so can someone else give information to you. From where you're standing, the answer is not obvious. From where the other person is standing, it is. All you need to change is your perspective.

Cancer (June 22-July 22) Looks like somebody's trying to browbeat you in some way, but it might just be the other person's brusque tone of voice. You don't like to be talked to with any sort of anger. The person who's upsetting you today is most likely just an angry individual at times, so don't take it personally.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 21) You're generally a calm, placid sort of person, at least on the exterior. Deep down inside, you're more like a tiger, and that tiger could come to the surface today. Somebody you work with is irritating you so much you can hardly stand it. Don't get into a pointless fight. Keep your cool, and your superiority will be obvious.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20) This looks like a good day to go for promotions. Someone in authority has new plans and wants to put them into action. If you can find a way to help, you'll be a valuable resource. You need to be creative, inventive and maybe even a little assertive. If the other person doesn't come to you with a plan, take one to him or her.
