

■ Brian Roberts and Nate Janowicz (below) were both newcomers to the USC baseball program in 1999.

They gave Ray Tanner as solid of a 1-2 punch at the top of the order as he could have asked for.

Roberts hit .353 (78-for-221), while leading the team in home runs (12) and stolen bases (67).

Janowicz hit .324 (66-for-204) with seven home runs and 53 RBIs.

Roberts was drafted by the Baltimore Orioles in the supplemental first round of the major league baseball draft. Roberts signed on July 14.

Janowicz will return to USC for his senior season.

■ The USC softball team (above) put themselves back on the map with a 43-16 season.

The Gamecocks were led on the field by senior all-american Kim Pietro. Pietro hit .424 (72-for-170), with four home runs and 36 RBIs.

Freshman Megan Matthews led the pitching staff. Matthews went 24-11 with a 1.53 ERA, while striking out 248 and walking 52.

■ The USC volleyball team (right) finished 21-11 overall and in second place of the SEC Eastern Division, with an 8-6 record.

The team ended its season Dec. 4 with a first round loss in the NCAA Tournament to Colorado State.

Ashley Edlund and Cindy Robarge will tryout for a new Professional Volleyball League being formed in the United States.
