and we're expecting right now for Shaun to run the show for us."

Walvius and the team will be joined by new coaches Shell Robinson and Tammy Holder, both of whom have plenty of experience to account for the loss of Debbie Taylor and Tonya Alleyne.

After a standout career at Texas, Robinson comes to USC after stints as an assistant coach at Texas A&M and the Nashville Noise. Holder, a former USC assistant coach, is coming back after coaching the University of Richmond Lady Spiders and the Seattle Reign. Both have extensive experience with women's basketball and will join third-year coach Jimmy DeShazo on the bench.

USC will face another tough schedule this year, traveling to Indiana to face the Lady Hoosiers and to Clemson against the defending ACC Champion Tigers. Also, the team will play in the Wells Fargo Tournament at Arizona State and play N.C. State.

The SEC schedule, meanwhile, is no different from last year, with seven teams with 20 or more wins on the schedule from last year. USC will have to play Final Four team Georgia, Sweet 16 team LSU, WNIT Champions Arkansas and Tennessee, who won 31 games last year after three straight NCAA titles.

"We were a much better team last year than our record reflected," Walvius said. "We're faster, stronger, and have the defense and the shooters to make an impact this year."

USC will begin its new campaign Nov. 9 against the Russian National Team in an exhibition game. The match will be at 7 p.m. at the Carolina Coliseum.

Men's soccer falls at Clemson; tennis' Legat dominates

SPORTS ROUNDUP
THE GAMECOCK

MEN'S SOCCER

The Gamecocks lost just their fourth game of the season at Clemson last Friday, falling 1-0 when the Tigers' Ian Fuller scored late in the second half of the match.

Fuller scored at the 77:40 mark of the game. After Russell Keifer crossed the ball to Jeremy Iwaszkowicz, Iwaszkowicz touched the ball to Fuller, who sent a shot into the left corner of the goal from 18 yards out.

The match was a very physical one, with almost as many yellow cards given out as shots taken.

Each team had three players charged with yellow cards.

With the loss, Clemson broke USC's four-game winning streak and extended its own streak over Carolina to five games, dating to 1996. USC falls to 8-4-2. With their fourth straight win, Clemson improved to 7-5-2.

The Gamecocks were scheduled to play College of Charleston on Tuesday night at home. Results were not available at press time.

MEN'S TENNIS

USC's Guillaume Legat won the USC Fall Invitational on Sunday, making 1999 the second straight year a Gamecock player has won the tournament.

Legat, a junior, won a semifinal match against College of Charleston's Sagi Zakin, 6-4, 6-2. He then defeated Pyung Koo Lee of Hampton, 6-4, 6-2, to win the Flight A tournament.

Carolina sophomore David Nelson fell to Clemson's Josh Goffi, 6-1, 6-2, in the semifinals. Freshman Robert Steckley, also of USC, lost his semifinal match to Mark Parsons of Tennessee, 6-4, 6-1.

The Gamecocks' next tournament is the ITA Regional Championships from Nov. 3-8 in Chapel Hill, N.C.

Ondo scored three goals in USC's three matches last week, including two game-winning goals. She is the third Lady Gamecock to earn this honor in USC's five-year history.

USC improved to 14-4, 6-2 in the SEC after last week, earning the No. 4 seed in the upcoming conference tournament. On Nov. 4, Carolina faces No. 5-seeded Vanderbilt in the first round.

CROSS COUNTRY

The No. 9-ranked Gamecock cross country team travels to Nashville, Tenn., on Saturday for the SEC championships.
