Hank Small

Bats: Right Throws: Right
 Born: 7/31/53 Position: First Base
 Resides: Atlanta, Ga.

Hank Small is the most prolific power hitter in Gamecock history.

In 1975, his 19 home runs and 66 RBIs led USC to their first College World Series. USC was defeated by Texas 5-1 in the championship game.

Small was an All-American in 1974 and 1975 and was signed by the Atlanta Braves after his senior season.
