LIFE IN HELL

PARENTAL BRAINTWISTERS

HOROSCOPES

Aries (March 21-April 19) Your initial effort might not go as well as planned. You can achieve your goal through an older person's help. This could lead to a promotion or a raise in pay. Don't shut down. Share your idea with a person who can do something about it.

Taurus (April 20-May 20) Don't be stopped by the first problem that gets in your way. If you persist, you can succeed. Travel will also work out well, eventually. Don't be alarmed if you run into a snag. Try another tactic, and you'll get around it.

Gemini (May 21-June 21) You need to follow through on something you've promised. This may involve paying a debt. Scrape together as much as you can, and you'll feel better.

Cancer (June 22-July 22) Your partner has everything figured out, hopefully the way you want it. The other person is about to make some big choices, so stay involved. You don't want your needs to be overlooked. Holler, if necessary, to get your point across.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22) More work comes in, but the money's not showing up yet. Keep doing what's required and don't complain. Do a little more than what's required, and you're payback will be more generous. It won't all be in money, though.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You can get through better than just about anybody today. This gives you an advantage. Traveling with your sweetheart to a favorite place should work well. Have dinner while you're out there.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct 22) You may be bothered by domestic matters. You want to change or fix something, but you only want the best. You can't afford it, now. Talk to a person with more experience. It might be best to keep saving for a while.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) You're using new skills, and they're working well. You're in over your head, but if you have on a flotation device, you should be OK. In other words, proceed with caution.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) You could get more work soon — and even more money. It's not easy yet, but at least it's finally lucrative. Just keep doing what you're doing and have faith. This is going to pay off, eventually.

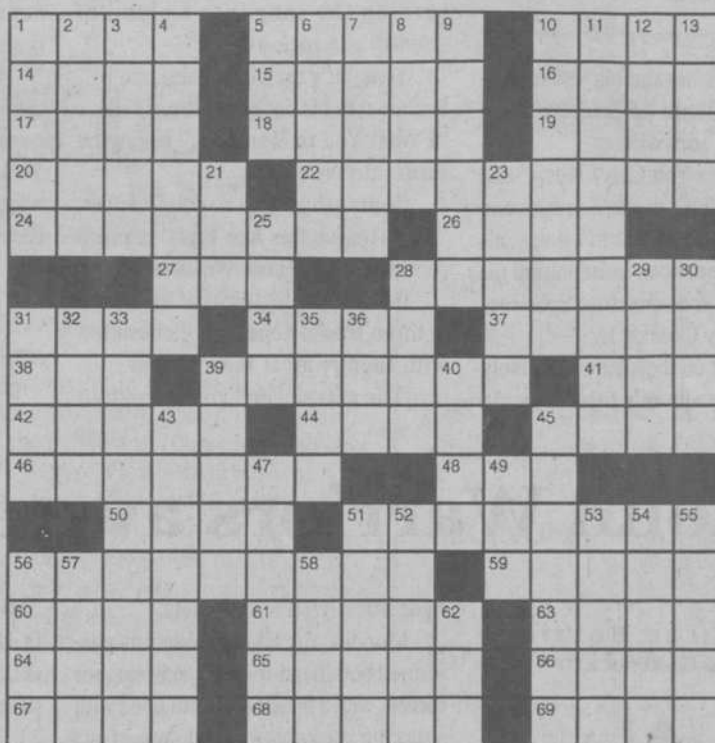

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You're in the catbird seat. That's partially because you're so darned good-looking. People just can't turn you down. Even though some of them are a little standoffish at first, you can bring them around. Just keep at it.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Something you've been thinking about doing for a long time can finally happen. It's not due to luck; it's from your hard work. This involves your home and family, and the next few days are perfect. Go for it!

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20) You love to be helpful, and you've got the opportunity to help out a lot. Your experience is something the others are relying upon to achieve their goals. Don't be shy about letting them know what they should do next.
