HOROSCOPES

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (OCT. 10). What's really needed is your ear, and maybe your shoulder learning this year, and falling to cry on. CANCER (JUNE 22-JULY 22) -You're a little more confident, a little more bold. Has somebody been trying to talk you into something you don't want to do? Have you been tactfully changing the subject? Why? Subtlety is lost on some people. Come right out and say it. LEO (JULY 23-AUG. 22) -Misunderstandings, miscommunications and typographical errors are plentiful. Check everything at least twice - incoming and outgoing. Don't take it for granted that people understand what you're talking about. Quiz them VIRGO (AUG. 23-SEPT. 22) -You'd like to help. That's your nature. You're always eager to serve. But tough love is what's needed now. Don't bail out a friend who needs to bail out herself. That'll be better for her, and for you. LIBRA (SEPT. 23-OCT 22) - The direct approach is not advised. Not that you need to be sneaky, just be diplomatic. When somebody tells you they don't want to talk about something, they mean it. Don't insist. You'll hear about it soon enough. Emmys still up in air

BY LYNN ELBER ASSOCIATED PRESS

If CBS decides against a third attempt at airing this year's Emmy Awards, then plans will be made for another way to honor the winners, Emmy organizers said Monday.

The 53rd Annual Primetime Emmy Awards were to have aired Sunday on CBS, but the network and academy called off the ceremony after U.S. and British attacks on Afghanistan.

The ceremony already had been postponed three weeks from its original Sept. 16 airdate because of the terrorist attacks on New York and Washington.

This has all happened so quickly," CBS Television President Leslie Moonves said Sunday. "It's really one day at a time, like it is for everything in America right now."

CBS programming executives and academy officials met Monday to discuss the show's fate. The final say is expected this week.

- Again, love conquers all. That, and your infinite ability to listen. You may wonder how long it will take for a dear friend to finish venting. Don't try to solve the problem. Your friend will do that eventually.

said, "I think he had good points. His theology is pretty sound. I'm glad someone with more of an intellectual stance was invited to speak."

Matt Ray, a first-year political science student, was not so praiseworthy. "Sometimes he was a little too intellectual ... some words I didn't understand."

Third-year English major Jane Haggard said, "It's a lot to think about, but I have a hard time getting around the suspicion much of what he said was predicated on a belief in Christianity."

Dr. Budziszewki holds a PhD in political science from Yale University. He is the author of five academic books including his most recent, The Revenge of Conscience. He has also written a non-academic title, How To Stay Christian in College.

The Christian Faculty Forum, an evangelical society for faculty members, and Campus Crusade for Life sponsored the lecture. An anonymous Upstate philanthropist covered the cost of the lecture.
