Lottery sales reach six-month goal early

COLUMBIA (AP) — State lottery officials expected to sell $192 million in tickets during the game's first six months. They reached that figure in half the time.

"Since our first day of operation, this lottery has been outperforming the industry norms," South Carolina Education Lottery Director Ernie Passailaigue said.

Sales should see another increase June 17 when a Pick 5 game with a $100,000 jackpot debuts.

The lottery commission expects to move $51 million into an account that will bring scholarships, college research, school buses and classroom technology to state students.

If earnings stay on track, Passailaigue predicts the state will have between $80 million and $90 million for education from the first six months of sales.

NATION

Captured al-Qaida leader hailed by D.C.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The capture of a top al-Qaida leader is a victory in the war against terrorism that could lead to valuable information about Osama bin Laden's network, U.S. officials said Tuesday.

White House spokesman Ari Fleischer said Abu Zubaydah was a member of bin Laden's inner circle, a top terrorism plotter and al-Qaida recruiter.

Pakistani authorities captured Zubaydah on Thursday and turned him over to U.S. authorities. U.S. officials said Zubaydah wasn't expected in the United States any time soon.

Zubaydah was convicted in absentia on terrorism charges in Jordan in 2000 in connection with a foiled plot to bomb a tourist hotel during millennium celebrations.

WORLD

Queen Mother Iain in state in London

LONDON (AP) — To the somber lament of a lone bagpiper, the Queen Mother Elizabeth's coffin was carried from a small stone chapel at Windsor Castle into a hearse Tuesday and driven through mourning villages to London.

Her staff lined Windsor's gravel driveway as the coffin was carried out of the Royal Chapel of All Saints, where it had lain for the past two days.

In London, hundreds of people lined The Mall and gathered outside the gates of Buckingham Palace to watch the procession pass and pay tribute to the popular former queen, who died Saturday at the age of 101.

A funeral service will be held at Westminster Abbey on April 9.
