"People say that Angus here is too old for me ... but what they DON'T know is that he's been treated with a space-age, time-resistant polymer."

HOROSCOPES

- ARIES OK, now it's time to get back to the grind and continue to bring in the money. Also, clamp down on expenses. It's true that money saved is money earned.
- TAURUS Not much gets by you, but don't broadcast how much you know. Instead, use your information to further your objectives.
- GEMINI Better move quickly on a romantic matter. Don't put it off any longer. Finish up something you promised to do, even if it involves a commitment.
- CANCER Continue to fix up your place, even if you have to make a big mess first. The opportunity for romance comes soon. You're creating an ambiance.
- LEO The more you learn, the more others depend on you. Want to take over the company and run it right? Keep studying.
- VIRGO An early flurry of activity should ease into a phase of relative serenity. Keep that in mind when things get tense. The worst is almost over.
- LIBRA You don't yet have the resources to accomplish everything you envision. With a little help from your friends, however, anything is possible.
- SCORPIO It may feel as if the weight of the world is on your shoulders. If so, don't falter. Don't go it alone, either. Get a buddy to help.
- SAGITTARIUS You have new stories to tell, but not during working hours. A big job deserves your attention now.
- Put off playtime until Thursday.
- CAPRICORN Heaven knows you've worked enough on weekends. Think you could find time to play during the week? Like, tonight? Totally legit, of course.
- AQUARIUS You've had a chance to develop new theories. Now let's see which ones of them work. Be especially aware of rules and regulations, including the law of gravity.
- PISCES You should soon start to notice a subtle shift in your favor. A barrier is dissolving, and you'll also have more energy. Sometimes we win just by hanging on.
