HOROSCOPES

ARIES Money's the name of the game now. Save it, earn it, work more to get more, do what's required. It's not a grind; it's the way to get that new toy you're after.

TAURUS Your basic structure should be just about complete. Don't let anybody mess it up. You may have to fight for what you want, but that won't be a problem. It'll come naturally.

GEMINI Hold onto your radical, innovative suggestions for a couple of days. Nobody wants to hear them yet. Work on the facts, figures and your presentation. Make it short and solid.

CANCER You've recently made advances and taken new ground. Take some time to explore your new boundaries. Don't push them yet; just find out where they are.

LEO Remember your manners. Show respect. No goofing off. Somebody important is watching, and they could be thinking about giving you more responsibility. Could be a talent scout.

VIRGO Reach out a little farther, just for the fun of it. You won't get as far as you'd like to go, but you can stretch your boundaries a little, and it will feel good.

LIBRA You're the creative type, and you don't really like much restriction. It's good to have a strong foundation to build upon, however. Work on that now.

SCORPIO Stability is what you're after. No more revisions or modifications for a while. Work the system you've got, and you'll discover what other bugs to work out.

SAGITTARIUS Might as well relax and stick to your old routine. Nobody's interested in new ideas, even if they're improvements. Give 'em time to mature.

CAPRICORN Others will be stalled, but that could be to your advantage. Don't get stuck behind them. Take the road less traveled, and you'll have it all to yourself.

AQUARIUS Got any vacation days coming? Sick leave? If you have your own office, you could lock the door and put out a "do not disturb" sign. Schedule any action for Wednesday.

PISCES Use your natural intuition and a few things you've learned recently to avoid a difficult situation. No point in offering advice to people who aren't listening.
