HOROSCOPES

ARIES The indecisiveness that's plagued you is beginning to give way. In its place you'll find steady determination. The hard work is making you stronger.
TAURUS You're a good one for planning, so do that now, even if you're under some pressure. Just because somebody else didn't plan, that doesn't mean you shouldn't. Be cool.
GEMINI The task may seem overwhelming, but don't give up hope. There are people you've helped in the past who are ready to help you now.
CANCER Your schedule may be in shambles, with quick thinking now required. Continue to be cautious with the actions you take. Impulsiveness could lead to trouble.

LEO If you've done what you can within the parameters you've set, start looking outside that box. The answer is obviously there.
VIRGO You need to concentrate on financial matters for a while. You're good at number-crunching, but it still requires time. If you can keep everything in balance, you should do all right.
LIBRA If you're having trouble deciding between one thing and the other, share your dilemma with a straight-shooting friend. What's hopeless to you may be simple to someone who is less involved.
SCORPIO There are at least a couple of ways to make sure financial ends meet. One is to go without something, and the other is to make more money. The latter is a viable option now.

SAGITTARIUS You'll soon discover that you have a strong ally on your side. You may still face a tough confrontation, but you're not alone anymore.
CAPRICORN You'd like to avoid a messy situation if you could. Unfortunately, the only way to the other side is straight through it. You'll feel better once you clean it up.
AQUARIUS You're about to come up with a new burst of energy. Good thing you've been resting up.
PISCES You know which side your bread is buttered on. If you show your resourcefulness and enthusiasm instead of your wrath, you might earn a bonus.
