HOROSCOPES

ARIES Do the thing that looks, at first, as if it will be most difficult. You'll find it brings rewards beyond your wildest imagination.

TAURUS Show your friends how smart you are. There's no need to tell them. Let them figure it out. They'll be even more impressed.

GEMINI Heaven knows you're good with words, but what you need now are numbers. Prove you can do a lot more if you're given a little more, and you might get it.

CANCER A rather confusing interlude has a happy ending. You're admired for your consistency and for settling everyone down. Good work.

LEO Although it takes enormous self-discipline, it's still best to stash your money away instead of celebrating. Save the latter for later.

VIRGO You don't have to actually do the job to stay in control of the process. Be the brains behind the operation. Let someone else provide the labor.

LIBRA Do the work, send it in, and then you can go out and play. You know this rule by heart, but now it's more important than ever.

SCORPIO Don't offer expensive toys or a trip to a fancy resort. If it's true love, your sweetheart would much rather stay home and pay off the bills.

SAGITTARIUS As you make decisions, think about the consequences. Don't deplete your savings. There's another way to solve the problem.

CAPRICORN Seek advice from an expert during this phase. You're finding a lot of changes that need to be made. Get help setting priorities.

AQUARIUS Try not to be distracted as you do what has to be done. You'll have plenty of time to play with friends after the paycheck clears.

PISCES Don't be hasty, but do act quickly. Follow your own passion. If you like it, the odds are good the people you admire will, too.

Adventuring on a budget: cheap S.C. road trips

THIS ISSUE:
South of the Border

By SHANA TILL
THE MIX EDITOR

If you've ever driven along Interstate 95 anywhere between New Jersey and Florida, you've seen the gaudy, neon yellow and pink signs urging you to stop South of the Border and visit the mini-Mexico mecca. Located on the North Carolina and South Carolina border, South of the Border (known as SOB to regulars) offers endless opportunities for low-cost fun. Upon entering the amalgam of Old Mexico and Dixie, you must drive through the legs of Pedro — the mustached, 97-foot-tall mascot. From there, you can eat a steak dinner inside a building shaped like a sombrero, ride the glass elevator to the top of Sombrero Tower or even get hitched in South of the Border's wedding chapel. For only $99, you can get married, stay a night in the honeymoon suite complete with champagne and a waterbed, and have free breakfast in the morning. And so you won't forget your trip to the best little Mexico in the South, you shouldn't leave without getting a souvenir from one of 14 gift shops filled with backscratchers, coffee mugs and shot glasses. And if that isn't exciting enough, you can buy a keepsake from the fireworks stands or the Dirty Old Man Shop.
