 quit our jobs, then we would consider it," Miller said.
 Until then, Blackbeard's Truck will continue to be a Carolina favorite, playing at regional events and venues. Fans can always hop on the truck by catching select songs and live mp3s of covers and original material on the band's Web site, blackbeardstruck.com.

 Blackbeard's Truck next play at 10 p.m. Saturday at the Flying Saucer.

FREE ADVICE

HOROSCOPES

ARIES The better the service you provide, the more extra money you'll make. Try not to spend it all in one place.
TAURUS Accept applause from your friends, family and co-workers for having done an excellent job so far. Let them know this is only the beginning.
GEMINI Accept advice from people who know even less than you do, and you'll find they'll think you're even smarter than they would have otherwise.
CANCER Go back to the textbooks. Ask your more experienced friends, and keep on digging. Put everything else on hold until you find the answer. It won't be long.

LEO You can get more for your time if you take on more authority. Let people know you're ready, and you're a natural for the job.
 VIRGO You're much stronger than you were the first of the month, and wealthier. At least you're headed in that direction. Keep on keeping on.
 LIBRA Finish old projects today and Saturday. Don't let yourself get off track. This is how you'll pay your debt and put money in the bank.
 SCORPIO Don't let your guard down for even a moment, not even with your friends. The ones who really are your friends will understand.

SAGITTARIUS Do a good deed quickly, even before you're asked. This doesn't pay much in money, but you definitely will be rewarded.
 CAPRICORN Although there will be a few small delays and annoyances, conditions look good for travel. Allow yourself a romantic outing with a passionate activist.
 AQUARIUS Take care of household chores again before you travel far. If you don't, there'll be a bigger mess to clean up when you get back home.
 PISCES Accept advice from one who has your best interests at heart. Learn from the competition, too. They'll give even better clues.
