REIKI • CONTINUED FROM 9

believe, is nothing beyond what is expected from a placebo. Quack watchers complain that the existence of "universal life energy" has not been demonstrated. Still, the National Institutes of Health is funding studies that look at the effect of energy work on joint disorders, wrist fractures, cardiovascular health, cancer, wound healing, neonatal stress, pain, fibromyalgia and AIDS. Some studies have suggested it might have positive effects on various orthopedic conditions, including fractures, arthritis and injuries to the muscle and connective tissue. Reiki is used in more than 50 major hospitals and clinics throughout the United States and is a good candidate for more because it is non-invasive and poses little risk to patients, according to a literature review published last August in the journal Orthopaedic Nursing. Drawing on their own experiences, the party's featured reiki masters — Dawn Mucha, Paula Battaglio and Phillip Racette are firm believers in the healing power of touch and the strength of auras. Mucha, who has been using energy healing since 1987, believes that reiki can change lives by giving people a greater feeling of peace. "(After reiki) people are able to see and feel how connected life is. They have more compassion for everything, and are less prone to anger," she said.

HOROSCOPES

ARIES Make yourself more efficient by getting rid of all the fluff. Streamline your procedures and minimize distractions.
TAURUS Thereasonswhynot are usually front and foremost in your imagination. Acknowledge them politely, but don't let them stop you.
GEMINI Sometimes you have to make messes on the way to making improvements. Compromise will be required, too.
CANCER You're making a good impression on a person you admire. Keep practicing and one day you'll be the teacher rather than the student.
LEO The more responsibility you accept, the more status you achieve and the more money you make. It's natural.
VIRGO Something you've been worried about turns out to be nothing at all. There are other things you could stumble over, so watch where you're going.
LIBRA There's a deadline looming. Don't ignore it any longer. Be a perfectionist and get the job done right.
SCORPIO You're not attracting the most attention. It looks like you are the brains behind the operation, however. You do well in this role.
SAGGITARIUS There's lots of money to be made, but discipline is required. Do it now — this opportunity won't last forever.
CAPRICORN You might not think you can afford to take your sweetheart along, but talk about it anyway. He or she may have a good idea.
AQUARIUS There are very old things of value close by — you may even know where. Don't ignore or injure them. Treat them with respect.
PISCES Let somebody who already knows the way take over the lead. You can be the brains behind the operation.
