

W. T. Bethea, of Dillon, received a letter recently from a lady in New York, saying that her daughter was a passenger on a train in which the Bethea tragedy occurred and had been frightened into a spell of sickness. Enclosed was a doctor's bill, which she said Mr. Bethea ought to pay. He replied that about forty years ago Sherman passed through here, frightening people almost to death, but so far he had not heard of any doctor's bills being paid by Sherman's army.

Encourage New Enterprises.

The greatest need of Pickens to-day is a big pay roll. There can be no big pay roll without the employment of a large number of men, and this can not be without the investment of large capital in useful enterprises, like mills, factories, etc.

Capital should be attracted to Pickens in every possible way, and new enterprises encouraged with whole heartedness and enthusiasm. Louisville, Ky., is sending out to the world a folder exploiting her advantages as a location for all kinds of enterprises, and offering all sorts of inducements to attract capital and encourage new enterprises. One inducement is to exempt from taxation for five years all factories and sites that may be established there. Another is to donate sites, in whole or in part, for factories. This is real inducement, this is genuine encouragement.

This sort of inducement and encouragement would attract much capital and bring many new enterprises to Pickens, employing hundreds and thousands of men and creating a pay roll that would pour thousands of dollars weekly on the counters of our merchants, and into other commercial avenues of the town.

There are tentative propositions right now to locate enterprises in and about Pickens. A furniture factory could be located here if properly encouraged. Towns are made by encouraging enterprises; big towns are made in this way; big cities are thus builded.

Let Pickens encourage new enterprises. Greater Pickens must be our motto.

Business and Religion

In the great rush of this 20th century the christian man seems to have lost sight of the one great fact that Business and Religion should go hand in hand. Read our Lords "Sermon on the mount," which contains all necessary construction and advice that is needed in the Christian life, those that do certain things are "blessed," and those that do other things cannot be "blessed," and then he comes to temporal things, he said "consider the lilies," the "Beasts of the field," compare them with the value of a human soul, again, why are you anxious, your father feeds and clothes them, and he then gives the great foundation for the christian to build upon. "First seek ye the kingdom of God and his righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you." What things? Of course the things which he has just been talking about, food, raiment and being anxious about the temporal affairs of this world.

The great urgent need of the christian to-day is faith, in God's word, we pass along our streets and we see over the doors of business houses " & Co.," Whatdoes it mean? It means that men have found that the brains and capital of two men accomplishes greater results than can one man, and it is good, and what christian we men need to-day is to take God into our business, and he being our partner, we must divide our profits with him; listen at God speaking through malachi. "Bring in all the tithes into my store house and I will open the windows of Heaven and pour you' out such blessings that there will be room to receive it." My brother have you taken God into your business? Do you consult him every morning for his guidance in your temporal life and business? If not, then you have missed the sweetness of life that belongs to the christian man or woman in this world. But some one says. "I do all this but I can't see that I am benefited," allow me to ask you one question. If you have taken God into copartnership, do you divide profits with him? Do you expect to have a partner and you take all that's made? Then you need not expect to hold such a Company together very long.

Christian men we are living on Gods land, we are his tenants on a thousand farms, but are you paying your rent? Answer the question "will a man rob God," and see if you are carrying your Religion into your business. God is calling to-day as never before, for men to pay their rents, to divide their profits, to prove him, millions are dying without any knowledge of God, and are now looking this way and asking this question "who is Jesus?" Dr. Bradle, a missionary in China said one day during the famine in 1907, the fund sent from America was placed in the hands of the missionaries to distribute, he visited a neighboring town and worked hard all day, relieving the starving and at evening he sat down on the bank of the canal to eat his lunch but the starving women and children crowded around him, he couldn't eat, but gave it out among them; over on the other bank sat a man, who said "what am I going to do, my wife and children hasn't had anything to eat in three days, we have been taught to kill missionaries the people who teach about Jesus, who is Jesus?" Men it has been nearly 2,000 years ago since Jesus said "Go teach all nations," and yet there are millions of people on this earth today who are eagerly asking this question "who is Jesus?" God is today calling to men to answer this call by combining their religion with their business, if we fail to heed and obey, we will meet it in the judgement, then "what will your answer be."

"Corn Growers Manual" Sent Out.

I have sent out this week a copy of "Corn Growers Manual" to the boys in the corn growers contest. All boys who desire to contest for a State prize should write Hon. E. J. Watson, Columbia, S. C.

Any farmer in the county can enter the contest. Those who desire to enter contest send to Commissioner Watson for the corn manual. The State Contest is separate from the County Contest.

The Progressive Farmer, of Raleigh, N. C., has offered $1,500 in prizes. The boys in the county contest should write to that paper and get instructions so that they may enter the contest for the prizes offered by that paper. Respectfully,

R. T. Hallum,

County Supt. of Education.

No, it was sold. "I knew it," he said "a friend of mine has it on."

"I've admired that suit in the window two or three times, but I'll jiggered it I thought it could be bought for the price he told me he paid. Got anything like it? Who made the suit, anyway?"

"It's a Schloss Bro's & Co. Suit---
