He also stated that he was in favor of having the fair and that every person put forth every effort possible to make it a grand success. Let everybody pull together and have one of the grandest fairs yet held. Other remarks were made after which the Association proceeded with the election of officers. Mr. T. J. An Ideal Husband is patient, even with a nagging wife, for he knows she needs help. She may be so nervous and rundown in health that trifles annoy her. If she is melancholy, excitable, troubled with loss of appetite, headache, sleeplessness, constipation, fainting and dizzy spells, she needs Electric Bitters—the most wonderful remedy for ailing women. Thousands of sufferers from female troubles, nervous troubles, backache and weak kidneys have used them and become healthy and happy. Try them. Only 60c. Satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.

CROW CREEK ITEMS.

Mr. Editor: It has been a long time since I have seen anything from Crow Creek. May be she has washed away, but best I can see she is thriving. Cotton and fruit is good, and corn especially good.

J. M. Vickory has got cotton squares (June 12) also the finest corn in this section.

Rain is plentiful but the farmers have been keeping the grass down very well.

The June fruit is all about rotten. It is due, mostly to so much wet weather.

The ministers sure had rough weather the second Saturday and Sunday. Rev. B. P. Moore visited Mt. Carmel church, of which he is pastor, also Rev. R. E. Murphree visited Six Mile church of which he has been pastor for several years.

Mr. D. J. Bolding and daughter, Irene, are attendants at the next meeting, which is being held at the Pickens mill.

It is reported that Sam Collins, while riding his mule near Shady Grove church, was thrown from a tree and very badly injured.

John's mill run not his house for the accomodation of his customers and is doing good business.

News is scattering in wet weather and I will stop before I reach waste box.

News from Liberty.

Liberty, S. C. June 20th 1910.

We had another fine rain yesterday afternoon, which will liven up the grass where it has been plowed up, so to get rid of it, will have to give it another round some hot day.

Summer has come at last and the sun shines hot enough for the reaper to go forth in comfort without a coat which has not been the case during all of June so far.

One of the attractions for the small boy, larger boy and his pa, is the steam shovel, and other railroad machinery being operated around here at present: quite a curiosity, doing the work of about a hundred men, both in the way of ditching out the cuts, and unloading the same cars onto the fills by machinery also, and at the same rate. This is something a man who is not near a first class railroad is not apt to see.

There is some good wheat and oats, this year, and there is a great deal of wheat abroad in the land, and of course flour will go lower. Protracted meeting is in progress at the Presbyterian church this week. The pastor is assisted by the Rev. Gregg, of Gaffney, S. C. Service every afternoon and night. Every body cordially invited to attend. Watermelons were on sale here last week.

There are some very fine peaches sold on the market here, which are strictly a local product. Fine cabbage and beans are offered for sale and have been for some time.

There was a "blind tiger," come to grief here one day last week as he was caught with a quantity of "old booze" in his wagon. The big dive was Saturday, when near 10 gallons of the regular old booze was discovered in a barn near the Depot, but when properly located it seemed that nobody would own it, but there will be some kind of a trial tomorrow to see what can be done.

It is rushing times now with everybody who has a crop, as the grass has a three weeks start with everything favorable to its race, and it has been making good use of the time.

A fine cow was killed here by lightning one evening last week.

J. D. Moore Writes Some More. Seneca, S. C., June 15th, 1910.

Editor of Sentinel-Journal:—Please allow me space for a few lines in your paper. We have been getting along very well here but I contemplate moving to Easley about July 1st and will do business in the John E. Craig building at that place where I will see a lot of my old friends and customers.

People are generally well thro' this section. Mr. J. P. Carey, jr., of Pickens was over here on business last week.

Miss Nannie Nimmoms went on a visit to her parents up on Keowee last week and while on the trip had the misfortune to lose her watch.

Misses Ada Craig and Hattie Earle, of Pickens, passed thro' Seneca last week, on their way to visit relatives at Walhalla.

We saw the smiling face of Will Nalley, formerly of Pickens, but now of Calhoun, on our streets Saturday.

Mr. Lloyd Carpenter and Miss Carrie Stephens were married last Sunday evening by the Rev. C. S. Blackburn, at his residence. The groom is a prosperous young farmer of Clemson College, R. 1., and the bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Stephens, of Courtenay station. The happy couple have the congratulations of many friends.

My wife has had a bad spell of rheumatism but is better now, thanks to Doctor Clay Doyle for his treatment of her. He, like Dr. Bolt, did the best he could for her and never called on me, or any of my friends, for money until I told him I was ready to pay him. He was very reasonable in his charges.

Now, I have quit a lot of my badness and some day I'll quit it all. I was not so bad that I did not care who knew it. I wanted my lamp to shine bright so people could see where I stood. I will close. Everything is quiet over here. J. D. Moore.

Commencement at Central

The following write-up of the commencement exercises of the Central schools copied from the Greenville News, was sent to this office last week, with the request that we publish same.

Central, S. C. June 4th.—The Commencement exercises of Central High School, beginning Tuesday morning May 31 and closing June 1st were held in Auditorium of new school building.

On Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. Z. I. Cody of First Baptist Church, Greenville, preached the Baccalaureate sermon. His forcible expression of thought and style of utterance won for him great affection in the hearts of the young and old.

On the evening following was a music recital by pupils of Miss Bullington's class. Many beautiful and difficult solos and duets were well rendered, each showing much skill and careful training. A vocal solo, "The Rosary" was sung by Miss Rena Martin with much feeling and her sweet voice has made her a popular favorite with the music lovers. Mr. Parsons gave a violin and cornet solo, both were enjoyed and greatly appreciated.

The regular graduating exercises were held on Wednesday morning. Prof. A. G. Rembert of Wofford College, Spartanburg one of the leading educators of the South gave the graduating address along the lines of citizenship duty to appreciate the schools of to-day. This address of Prof. Rembert was marked by many practical statements and conclusions with reference to the relation between schools, communities and citizens, all of which showed a wide and sympathetic experience with every phase of public and college education throughout the state. After this address the salutatory prophecy and valedictory addresses were delivered by Misses Helen Clayton, Vivian Rowland and Bessie Gaines, respectively, all of which showed that the young ladies were filled with the spirit of scholarship and loyalty. Following orations, the superintendent, Prof. Thornwell Haynes, in a few chosen and succinct remarks presented diplomas to graduating class of 1910: Misses Clayton, Rowland and Gaines.

Wednesday evening members of the 10th grade concluded the exercises by a splendid and timely debate. Resolved: "That South Carolina Should Have Compulsory Education," the negative winning. Those debating were as follows: Affirmative, J. B. Falls, Edna Clayton Stacy Shirley; negative, Paul Clayton, Daisy Rike and Ruth Gassaway.

A short, snappy comic play, "There's more strength in a bowl of Quaker Oats than in the same quantity of the same food you can eat."

"Dr. Cure-all," given by members of the 9th and 10th grades, closed the school year of 1909-10 which under the superintendency of Prof. Thornwell Haynes and five assistants, coupled with the fact that it has been the first year's work in the new building, has been the most successful in the history of the town.

Nothing gives the newspaper man the so called "Willies" like the sleepy headed tired merchant who says it is too dull to advertise. Some merchants actually lay around their stores look tired and do nothing, and bewail the hard times, and the newspaper man is turned away with a sickly anti-charity smile and if he received an advertisement from him, he acts as if it was given as a matter of charity for pity sake, that the trifling newspapers were necessary evils that had to be supported somehow. A newspaper does not want any such patronage. We know that money spent in advertising is the best spent money a business man can invest in his business. Every successful business house or firm, now-a-days set apart a certain amount to be invested in advertising. It is as necessary as house rent. It is more precious than an investment, for it brings returns. It goes into the hills and hollows. Into the homes of rich and poor, and tells every one of the bargains the enterprising merchant has to offer his customers. Wake up dull business men, and invest in advertising, not just a few dollars, but 10 per cent of your investment, and see the results. It will not be long before you are the leading merchant of your town.

DON'T OVERLOOK! Good Things.

A young chap came into the store Saturday—wanted to know the minute he got inside whether we had such and such a suit that was in the window on Monday

No, it was sold. "I knew it," he said "a friend of mine has it on."

"I've admired that suit in the window two or three times, but I'll jiggered if I thought it could be bought for the price he told me he paid. Got anything like it? Who made the suit, anyway?"

"It's a Schloss Bro's & Co. Suit— one of the line of The Clothes Beautiful."

"Well, let's see some of them...they have certainly got some class to them."
