No. 2 Carding, Second
By E. C. Moody
Roy Butler, who is in the navy, visited Mrs. L. E. Harris and W. E. Harris. Mr. Clark has returned to work after having his tonsils removed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Gilbert and Beatrice Hyman attended a reunion at Woodruff recently.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Amick attended the Long Island pageant at Greenwood State Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Land and family spent a weekend at Greens Springs and Joanna.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Barton announce the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth, to Earl Butler. The couple settled in Mr. and Mrs. C. T. H. Garrison on September 24.

We welcome Roy McCoy and John Reed, two of our new employees.

Sorry that P. G. Smith is still of.

Glad to know Ben Woodard, Jr., has returned home after his operation at Veteran's Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shipard and family returned from a baby daughter, Sandra Cheryl Shipard.

Glad to have Ben Woodard, Sr., back after an illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Weaver and son visited the J. W. Weaver family.

No. 1 Weaving
By W. L. Dunham
Mr. and Mrs. Melton Kelly of Duncan visited Mrs. Orva Logue of Colleton County and Mrs. L. E. Wood and children of North Carolina. Also were guests of Mrs. Wood.

John Rodgers of Spartanburg visited with his daughter, Mrs. L. A. Bovette of Seneca.

Mrs. Gussie Jeffries and E. B. Fouls of Laurens were weekend guests of the Allen Possum family.

Mrs. Ruth Lanchester and children spent a weekend in Fountain Inn. They were the guests of Mrs. A. H. Bordertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray got a new radio recently and Mrs. H. G. Johnson on the first shift with Mrs. She is back at work after an illness.

Happy birthday to Mrs. Lois Harmon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Key of Greenville visited Mrs. L. R. B. and their daughter, Mrs. M. H. Clark celebrated a birthday September 27. They also had one Sept. 2. Beatrice Richardson is a grandmother again. Mrs. M. H. Clark's daughter is Mrs. Pearlie Edwards.

Mrs. Emma Mack and Mrs. Maude Lloyd and their son, Bill, came down here from Wigram recently. We extend a welcome.

We want to welcome Lester Tucker, Jr., and Richard Clark and their families.

No. 2 Spinning, First
By Jennie Watkins
Meares, R. L. Hozllochow, D.
S. Cook, George Huguley, J. B. Templetion and L. E. Cash have returned from a business trip to New York, Boston and Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Case of Lakeland visited his mother and sister. Mrs. Symphony, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cannon were also the guests of Mrs. Thelma Sanders. The couple have an apartment in the same building.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McGinnis and children with Mrs. C. W. Foster and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Smith visited the George McGinnis in Chester.

Relatives of Misses Beverly Wooden and the Wood Sept. 19 in celebration of her 60th birthday. A delightful dinner was served and each daughter remembered her granddaughter.

Mr. J. H. Ballard and son of Anderson visited the Ed McGinnis at their home.

Mrs. Lena Norton of Lancaster and Rev. G. F. T. Funderburk and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rodolspieger of Newberry and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Norton.

The trip running around of Billie and James J. C. Childress have found a "jol". They are "you're not wrong, don't you like companionship?"

Mr. Jim Tidwell has returned home from Hays hospital and Jeff Campbell and Whitie have been released to work after their illnesses. We're glad to have them back.

Happy birthday to Alta Jean Johnson, Oct. 11; James Pierson, Oct. 16; and Fred King, Sept. 22 and Hall King, Sept. 22.

Second Spinning
By Mary Ealy
We welcome Bruce Spoon as our new employee.

We had a good time at an all-night singing in Spartanburg.

Marvin Whitmere, Mrs. Othella Whitmore and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. G. in Union. The Johnson fields of Greenwood were visited.

The Paul Glenn and the James Seays of Greenville visited the McWhorters and had a good time to have Floinie McWaters back with us after an operation.

Jackie Hunnicutt visited the Jack Jones family.

The Paul Glenn and the James Seays of Greenville visited the McWhorters and had a good time to have Floinie McWaters back with us after an operation.

Jackie Hunnicutt visited the Jack Jones family.

The Paul Glenn and the James Seays of Greenville visited the McWhorters and had a good time to have Floinie McWaters back with us after an operation.

Jackie Hunnicutt visited the Jack Jones family.

The Paul Glenn and the James Seays of Greenville visited the McWhorters and had a good time to have Floinie McWaters back with us after an operation.

Jackie Hunnicutt visited the Jack Jones family.