

Mrs. Doris Gibbs has undergone an operation but is recovering rapidly. She is the daughter-in-law of Mrs. Carrie McGraw, Clinton Mills.

Mrs. Billy Lowery of Clinton Mills is recuperating nicely after being a patient at Blalock Clinic.

Elbert Giles, Clinton Mills, has been out sick.

Mrs. Eloise Cannon and Mrs. Grover Jackson of Lydia Mills have been ill for several weeks.

Wilma Stone of Lydia is back at home after a stay at Blalocks Clinic.

Mrs. W. O. Lewis of Lydia is confined to her home due to illness.

Don't

Don't ever use an air hose
On a buddy—just in fun;
Unless perhaps, his murder
Is a risk you'd like to run.

Don't single out a victim
For a shove by a machine
He may be there to greet you
Where the pastures are all green.

And if you want to wrestle
Or indulge in fistic play,
Go find yourself a manager
And do it right—for pay.

Don't give a man a hot foot,
Which isn't very cute
It may cause an injury
And lack of pay to boot.

There's just no room for non-sense,
Mill comics and their jokes
Should all be locked away
Some place
Where they cannot bother folks.

If you're not a prankster
You'll never have to shun
The widow and the children
Of the man you killed in fun.

The Stork Club

"A babe in the house is a wellspring of pleasure, a messenger of peace and love, a resting place for innocence on earth, a link between angels and men."

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Medlin, Clinton Mills, a son, John Marvin, March 10. Mrs. Medlin is the former Miss Lillian Brewington.

Mr. and Mrs. Capers Gregory, Lydia Mills, a son, Tommy, March 17.

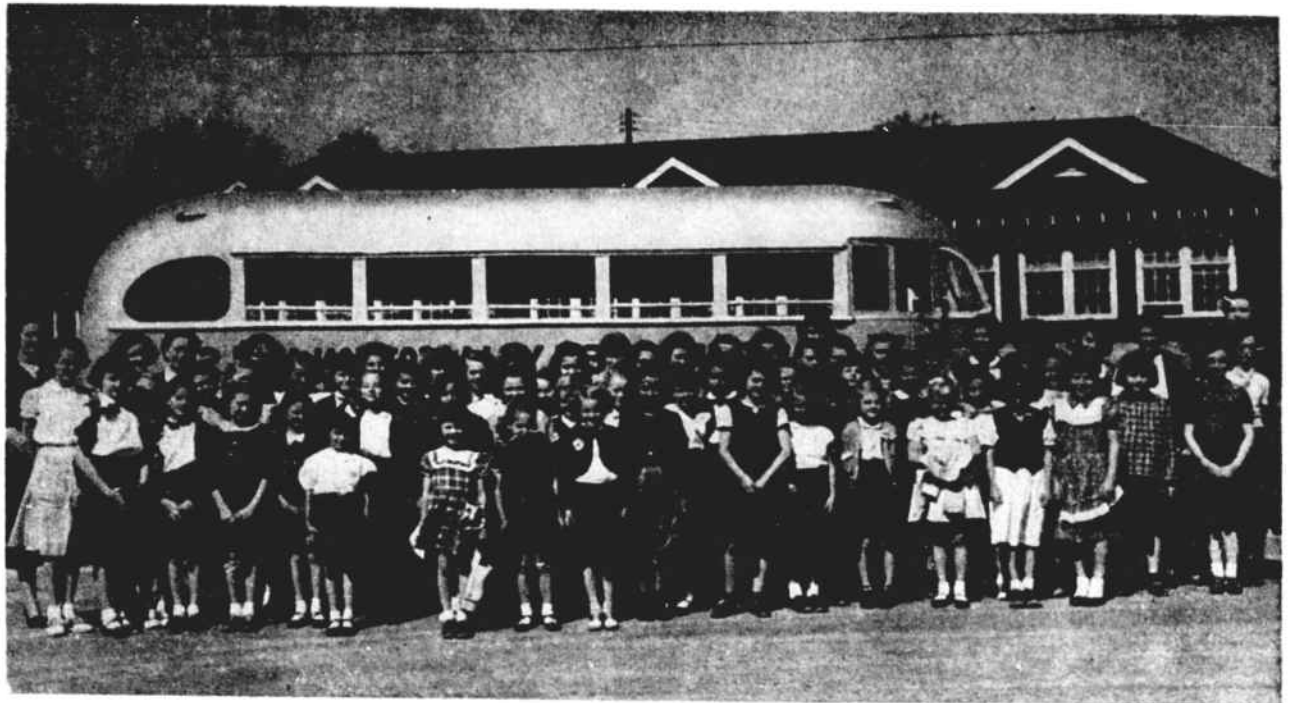

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Creswell, Clinton Mills, a son, Melvin Keith, March 6. (We regret to report that little Melvin has been a patient at Presbyterian Hospital in Charlotte for several weeks.)

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kirby, Clinton Mills, a son, February 1.

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Blackwelder, of Barnwell, a son Barriett Owen, March 7. Mrs. Blackwelder is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Davis, Clinton Mills.

LOUELLA REID celebrates her 17th birthday March 25. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Griffin of Clinton Cotton Mills.

BLUEBIRDS AND CAMPFIRE GIRLS, with their leaders, from both Clinton and Lydia Cotton Mills are shown in this large group just before they left Clinton for a special broadcast over Radio Station WLBG. The broadcast was a part of the 43rd anniversary observance of the founding of the Campfire movement.

LYDIA NEWS ITEMS

Cloth Room

By Roberta Chaney

Mrs. R. E. Whitmire visited friends in Laurens . . . Miss Barbara Whitmire and Allan White, Jr., visited in Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woford of Greer spent a Sunday with Mrs. Hallie Campbell and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Yarbrough of North Greenville Junior College spent a weekend with the latter's mother, Mrs. Hallie Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bagwell visited his mother, Mrs. Ethel Bagwell, of near Hickory Tavern.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. McElveen visited her sister, Mrs. Audrey Willard, who is a patient at the Columbia hospital. Mrs. Willard's injury, a broken hip, was sustained recently in a fall.

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Fuller and son, Floyd, spent a weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Calvert Marsh in Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gambrell and family recently moved to Greenwood.

Miss Bell Nelson, Ed and Henry Nelson visited their mother who is a patient in Baptist hospital.

Lonnie Dell is ill at home with measles.

Mrs. W. S. Meeks of Laurens visited B. L. Meeks and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Parrish visited Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Todd in Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Parrish had as dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Sam Seawright of Charleston and Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Crawford and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Poag of Joanna, Mrs. Sam Strickland of Greenwood, Mrs. Clarence Milne and daughter, Rosemary, of Columbia and Mrs. Boozer of Newberry were dinner guests of Mrs. B. T. Fuller March 5.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Williams celebrated a wedding anniversary April 8.

Mrs. Virginia Wilson celebrates her birthday April 25 . . . G. C. Parrish celebrated his March 23 and Joy Ann Snelgrove celebrated her sixth birthday March 19.

Thanks

We wish to thank Virginia Wilson for the fine job of reporting she did during the past year. We also wish the best of luck to Roberta Chaney who has taken over as our new Cloth Room reporter.

No. 1 Weaving

By Alma Todd

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Abercrombie and children visited

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Walker in Piedmont.

Mrs. Joe Gray and children of Anderson visited Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Williams and Mrs. W. O. Lewis.

Friends of Mrs. W. O. Lewis are sorry that she is sick at home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Motte visited the Grover Taylors in Charlotte.

Friends of Wilma Stone will be glad to know she is at home after being in Blalock clinic.

Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Harper and daughters of Greenwood visited Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Todd.

Happy birthday to Rebecca Sparino, March 11; Shirley Faye Stone, March 20; Tony Abercrombie, April 1; Myrtle Lanford, April 19 and Josh Motte, April 27.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lanford celebrated a wedding anniversary March 5.

Spinning, Spooling

By Mary Ellison

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hawkins of Seneca visited Mrs. Lizzie Hawkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Marl Satterfield visited their daughter and son-in-law, Sgt. and Mrs. Joe Proffitt in Columbus, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Davis visited their children in Augusta, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Pridmore and children visited in Greenville.

We want to welcome Mrs. Sue Gregory to the first shift.

Mrs. Louise Crowell has joined her husband, Sgt. William Crowell, at Fort Bragg, N. C.

Mrs. Ernest O'Shields and family of Ware Shoals visited Mr. and Mrs. J. B. O'Shields.

Mrs. Pauline Black has returned to work after being ill.

Mrs. Lula Birchmore, mother of Mrs. Connie Davis, is ill.

Little Shirley Polson, niece of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Estes, is in Hays hospital.

(Cont'd. on Page 5)

RANDY SEAY is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Seay. Mrs. Seay works in Third Spooling, Clinton Plant.

CHARLES "Chuck" Lever was a year old February 28. He is the cute son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lever, No. 3 Weaving, Clinton plant.

JIMMY Dunaway and Eugene Howell of the Lydia village are shown above with their little puppy, Fido.

KATHY WOODARD is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Woodard, Clinton Spinning. Kathy will be five years old March 23.