

NEWS ITEMS AT LYDIA

(Cont'd. from Page 2)

Little Ginger Crocker spent a weekend with Mr. and Mrs. David Satterfield. The Satterfields and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bailey visited the Claude Crockers in Slater.

Jack Pearson, of the Navy, spent a leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Pearson. He has been transferred to Norfolk.

Mrs. J. T. Ellison and Mrs. Mary Ellison with Mrs. Ola Sanders and Mrs. Marie Garrett of Laurens recently visited in Greenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. George Copeland and son were dinner guests of Mrs. J. T. Ellison and Mrs. Mary Ellison.

Mark Satterfield had a birthday March 12 and his daughter, Peggy Ann, has one April 21.

Mrs. Azalee Howell celebrated a birthday March 31.

Mrs. Alice O'Shields had a birthday April 15 and Mrs. Mary Ellison and brother, Walter Campbell, had birthdays April 7. Her sister, Ruby, had one April 10.

No. 1 Spinning, Spooling By Evelyn Hauptfear

De Vaughan Cauble, stationed in San Diego, Calif., was home this past month.

Lucille Martin visited her father, Mr. L. B. Brown, who lives in Calhoun Falls.

Corp. E. J. O'Banion, Jr., who has been in Korea for 10 months, is expected home soon.

Tommy Caughman, Jimmie Ritchie, Homer Calvert, Leroy Calvert and Ernest and Bernest Lark had birthdays the past month.

Jack Wehunt, Ora Lee Wehunt, Edith Gamble, Mrs. E. J. O'Banion and Mr. E. J. O'Banion come from the second shift to the third shift. Mr. O'Banion is our new Second Hand.

Third Weaving By Sarah Jenkins

Hello, folks. This is my first try at being your reporter. If I missed getting any news from anyone in this department, please forgive me and I will do better next month.

With all of this beautiful weather, with the sun shining, birds singing and trees budding out, I say it's time to go fishing, don't you?

The J. T. Lanfords celebrated their 8th wedding anniversary March 5.

Mrs. Lillie Seawright spent a weekend with Mrs. Cora Boyce near Joanna.

Mr. and Mrs. Capers Gregory announce the birth of a son, Tommy, March 17, at Hays.

Glad to have Selma Howell back after an absence, and also Geneva McCoy who has been out with flu.

We welcome Sidney Frost, Bobby Pierce and Fronnie Franklin from the second shift and also Ralph Blackwell from the first. Ralph is our new overhauler.

Mrs. William Ellis with 26 members of the Training Union of Lydia Baptist Church attended the rally at Union Baptist Church near Ware Shoals.

A hearty welcome to H. C. Dotson, Paul and Nellie Flynn and Roy Lee Ellis, newcomers to our department.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Bailey were called to Pineville, N. C. because of the death of an aunt.

Our deepest sympathy goes to Mrs. Carolyn Inglett, our nurse, in the loss of her husband, Mr. Allen Inglett. Our sympathy also is extended to Mrs. Rubbin Overstreet in the loss of her father, Mr. Lee.

Mrs. J. H. Crowe, mother of your reporter, celebrated a birthday March 28.

Dale and Mike Jackson, grandsons of Mrs. Dora Jackson, celebrated their birthdays recently. Dale was six March 28 and Mike was four April 5.

Evelyn Chapin says that anyone wanting to buy fresh eggs and butter can see her because she is a "country girl" now.

See you next month.

First Weaving By Annie Lawson

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Milan and niece, Sandra, visited their daughter, Mrs. T. E. Chandler and family in Augusta.

Mr. and Mrs. Nye Leopard of Laurens and your crack(ed) reporter visited the R. L. Grants in Greenwood.

Mrs. Eloise Cannon and Mrs. Grover Jackson have been absent several weeks due to illness. We miss them and wish them a speedy recovery.

THERE WAS PLENTY OF FOOD AND FUN, as is evident by the picture shown above, as the Lydia Men's Club held their regular monthly meeting March 14. It was a "Ladies Night" affair and was held in the Lydia School Lunchroom.

Misses Elizabeth and Virginia Manning of Iva spent a weekend with the E. C. Brudettes.

Glad to see Roy Owens back at work after a round with the flu.

Mrs. Nellie Dean and daughter, Tolitta, visited the Ben Deans in Joanna.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hildebrand, Mrs. E. B. Kinsland of Cristobal, Canal Zone, were recent visitors of Mrs. Joe Allen and the E. B. Kinslands of Laurens.

Miss La Dawn Grant of Greenwood spent a weekend with the James (Bill) Pattersons.

Mrs. W. S. Meeks of Laurens spent a week with her son, J. C. Meeks and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Harris celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary April 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Nye Leopard, Mrs. Arthur Weathers and children, Bo, Laman and Frankie, were visitors in Gatlinburg, Tenn. They were guests of their son and brother, Leroy Motte, who was home on leave from his post in Alaska.

The Joe Corleys spent a weekend in Spartanburg with Mr. Corley's sister, Mrs. C. E. Harper.

THE SOCIAL COMMITTEE OF THE LYDIA Men's Club, which was largely responsible for the success of the recent Ladies Night, is shown above. Left to right are G. C. Parrish Sr., Charles Gaffney, L. A. Williams, Mark Windsor, Claude Sims and Jot Abercrombie.

Mr. and Mrs. Chess King and daughter, Yvette, visited the Otis Fullers in Union.

Mrs. Sarah Shelnut celebrated a birthday March 27.

Second Weaving By Roberta Prince

Little Bonnie Taylor of Cross Hill celebrated her sixth birthday April 7. She is the daughter of Marie and Webb Taylor, both weavers.

We sympathize with L. A. McCurry in the death of his mother, Mrs. Sallie McCurry.

Anatomy is something everyone has but it looks better on a woman.

***

Human minds are like wagons. When they have a light load they are much noisier than when the load is heavy.

***

Music washes away from the soul the dust of everyday life.

***

Length of life depends less on the star you were born under than on the color of the street light when you cross the street.

Guyenelle Chilton is the five year old daughter of Margaret and Raymond Chilton. Margaret works in No. 2 Spinning, Third Shift, Clinton Cotton Mills.

Susan Terry, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Terry, Clinton Weaving, recently celebrated her 11th birthday with a party at her home.

These fine children are Jimmy 12; Viri, 8; Larry, 5 and Opal seven months. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Barker, Clinton Cotton Mills.

Shirley Jean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Lawson, Clinton Cotton Mills. The attractive Miss celebrated a birthday March 27.

Rose Marie Kuykendall celebrated her 6th birthday March 2. She is the daughter of Marie Kuykendall of No. 2 Weaving, Second Shift, Clinton and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Smith.