

NEWS FROM CLINTON PLANT

(Cont'd. from Page 6)

Mrs. Bessie Queene and Mrs. Edna Terry were among the members of the Do-We-Go Club visiting Charleston, the gardens and other points of interest there.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Kuykendall of Tryon, N. C. were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ballew.

George Cunningham of Wilmington, N. C., spent a weekend with Mrs. Bessie Queene and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Boyette had an anniversary March 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Powers celebrate their 17th anniversary March 27.

Mrs. Lillian Ellison and son, Theo, have moved into their new home on Shands St.

Brenda Gail Fowler will be three years old March 18, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Fowler . . . Maggie Purdue has a birthday March 21 . . . F. M. Purdue had one March 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Terry celebrated their birthday along with their granddaughter, Susan Terry, with a dinner. Mrs. Terry's birthday was March 4, Mr. Terry's February 27 and Susan's March 3. Those enjoying the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Terry, Jr. and family of Aiken, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Terry and family, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Trammell and family, Mrs. L. W. King, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus King and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Smith and family of Beach Island.

Glad to have Lois and Leo back after a stay in the hospital. Gerry is still out and we hope she will hurry back as we miss her.

Seems as if the measles have really been around. Robbie, Pam and Jimmy Armstrong and Jimmy Kinard are all well and back at school again.

No. 2 Weaving, First By Grace Wooten

Well, we have three-fourths of the new Weave Room operating full tilt and we have four "push-button" looms out there and we are all watching to see them start up.

We want to welcome all the newcomers to our room and all the old ones (meaning they aren't old except they have been working in No. 3 before). Before long, guess we'll have them all out here in another big happy family.

AC Larry Fowler of Kessler Field, Miss., was home recently.

The J. L. Chaney's of Lanford Station visited the Clyde Putnams.

Mrs. Ora Wood and J. D. Williams visited Mrs. Rosa Bettis in Elberton Ga.

The Johnny Ginns and the Lester Handbacks visited Table Rock Park on a recent Spring-like Sunday.

Jack Spillers reports for military duty April 1, going to Sampson Air Base, New York. As reported last month, he has been commissioned and we wish him luck.

Patty Lancaster now is staying at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Gray, and attending high school at Grav Court-Owings School.

Joan Lancaster entertained about 35 friends at a birthday party February 22 with the assistance of Patsy Smith.

The Wayne Grahams spent a Sunday in Chester with the George McGinnis's.

Pvt. Jimmy Suttles has been stationed at Ft. Jackson. Wonderful, eh, Jo Anne?

The Maxie Blakely's of Spartanburg visited his mother, Mrs. Ursula Blakely, recently.

Glad Mrs. Ruth Lancaster is able to be back at work after a week's illness.

Mrs. Cora Brewington, daughter-in-law of Mrs. Roy Kennedy, is a hospital patient.

Happy birthday to Mrs. Kate Evans on her 72nd birthday March 21; to Larry Jo Barker who will be six March 29 . . . Tommy Lanford, who was 12 March 8 . . . Johnny Ginn, March 7 . . . Patsy Cannon, March 22 . . . Margaret Wooten, February 23 . . . Juanita Graham, March 22.

Our best anniversary wishes to the Johnny Jinns, March 11 and the Clyde Putnams, March 1.

Cupid is still a busy little feller in this Department. William Gregory has taken unto himself a bride, the former Miss Delores Alexander, from Lydia, and Jimmy has brought his mother a very sweet daughter-in-law, Miss Margaret Hoover, before becoming Mrs. Jimmy Wooten.

Best wishes and lots of luck to both of you couples.

No. 2 Spinning, Second By Lois C. Harmon

Happy birthday to these: Faye Hamby, February 18, 10 years old; Jimmy Hamby, March 13; Mabel Tucker, March 17; Ann Burton, March 20; Larry Burton, five March 27; Lucille Edmonds, March 9; Joan Edmonds, seven February 11; Johnny Harmon, seven February 16, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Harmon; Joyce Wright, 14 March 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fosters had birthdays in February.

We are glad to welcome the following back who have been ill or have had illness in the home: Lois Harmon, Nellie Stroud, Bessie Rogers, Agnes Scott, Shirley Cagle, Lucille Edmonds, Agnes Walker and Bertie Reed.

We welcome these new employees — Elizabeth Holden, from the Third Shift; Mary Huey and Lois Heaton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Edmonds celebrated an anniversary February 2.

Jimmy Hamby is stationed in California after spending some time in Japan.

The John Harmons and family and J. C. Childress spent a Sunday with the L. S. Harmons in Saluda.

No. 2 Spinning, First By Eunice Arnold

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rodelsperger of Newberry spent a weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Norton.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Harrell spent a weekend with his mother, the Barnetts in Union.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Griffin of Florence spent a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Arnold.

Mrs. Minnie Sullivan spent a weekend in Batesburg with her daughter, Mrs. Eland Harris.

Mrs. Sidney Riser honored her daughter, Annette, with a birthday party February 20 when she was 10 years old. She received many nice gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Norton had a wedding anniversary February 3.

No. 1 Weaving, Third By Izell Campbell

Pascal Smith recently visited his son, James, in Calhoun Falls.

The Billy Snelgroves visited the S. B. Snelgroves in Saluda County.

The George Pressleys of Newberry spent a weekend with the Bones Campbells.

Mrs. Billy Snelgrove, Mrs. R. N. Sullivan and Mrs. B. B. Snelgrove went on a shopping spree in Columbia.

Harold Dennis and Linda Gale Watts have had the measles.

The Alton Paytons celebrated their fourth anniversary February 24.

The Neffer Creswells celebrated their 16th anniversary March 4.

A hearty welcome to our newcomers: Jacob Dowery, James C. Moss and Floyd Trantham.

George Pressley has a birthday March 31.

Danny Lee Metts is the nine months old son of the William Metts. He tops the scales at 45½ pounds.

Shelby's walking on clouds these days . . . could some light, red curly hair have anything to do with it?

Little Emmy Lee Shelton is ill and we are also sorry to report our Second Hand, C. E. Roberts, has been sick.

RICHARD, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Corley, Lydia Mills, was nine years old February 28.

FINE ACHIEVEMENT—R. C. Wilkie, son of Mrs. Missouri Wilkie, Clinton Weaving, is shown being presented the Star Scout award at a recent Court of Honor. Scout Executive Smokey Eggers is making the presentation.

MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS—Members of the active Okici-yapi and Wahanka Campfire Groups at Clinton Mills are shown above with their mothers. The girls were presented with their membership cards by their leaders.

THE BUNNY HOP—These aren't rabbits, they're members of the Lydia Teen-Age Canteen doing the "Bunny Hop" at their formal Sweetheart Dance held at Valentine time.

LYDIA BALL TOSSERS—Members of Lydia's Midget Basketball Team have just completed an interesting season. Front row: Larry Dorn, Cecil Davenport, Melvin Bailey and Billy Oakley. Back: Delino Wiison, Bobby Fuller, Russell Trammell, Bobby Gwinn and Coach George Fleming.