

WEAVE ROOM
1st Shift

By Sara Jenkins

Hello again, fellow workers! Another month gone by and aren't we enjoying this beautiful spring weather? But it sure will give you the spring fever, won't it?

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Boozier were weekend guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Boozier. Also visiting the Boozers recently was Mrs. Ruth Gillian of Greenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Burdette spent a recent weekend with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Campbell and children in Spartanburg. Friends will be interested to know the Campbells are moving to Charlotte at an early date.

Mr. and Mrs. Furman Bratcher and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Owens visited in Greenwood Saturday. Recent supper guests of the Bratchers were Mr. and Mrs. Culbertson of Greenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Milam were called to Swannanoa, N. C., recently due to the death of Mr. Milam's brother, Douglas Milam.

Mrs. Sara Jenkins, Mrs. Harold Crowe, Mrs. Elaine Cannon, Mrs. Jerry Holland and Beverly Buzhardt recently visited the gardens in Charleston.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Coker spent the past weekend in Greenville with their daughter, Mrs. Juanita Hawkins.

Boy Scout Troop 90 enjoyed a pleasant outing recently with their hosts, Mr. David Roberts, Furman Bratcher, Abe Williams and Ira Bailey. They motored to Greenwood State Park where at the coaxing (?) of their leaders they consumed 98 hot dogs. Wonder how many had tummy-aches later? The boys wish to thank Mr. Roberts and assure him that they are ready to go again anytime!

Our Secret-Pal Club in Weave Room #2 had another lovely party recently at the home of Mrs. Furman Bratcher. Gifts were exchanged by the members and delicious refreshments were served.

Several of our co-workers have been ill in the past few weeks and we wish for all a speedy recovery. These include Anne Zogg Everett, Jim Hughes, Vivian May (who is now a patient at Laurens County Hospital).

We wish to extend a hearty welcome to Tom McCarron, who comes to us from the second shift. Also, a belated welcome to Bill Campbell, recently of the 2nd shift. Welcome to newcomer Doyle Emery.

Mrs. J. H. Crowe has returned home from Blalock's Clinic, where she has been a patient for the past two weeks.

Happy Anniversary to the John Motts, who celebrated their 17th anniversary, on May 10th. The John Gallmans will celebrate their 10th anniversary on May 30th.

Happy Birthday to:
Linda Patterson, 15 years old on May 10th.

Bill Campbell, April 27th.
Butch McLendon, May 25.
Sara Jenkins, May 1st.

Mrs. Eloise Cannon and Sara Jenkins attended the showing of "The Ten Commandments" in Greenville recently.

That's all for this time, folks. Be real noseey next month, so you'll have lots of news to tell me. Work safely!

P.S. Ralph Blackwell says that if anyone needs a baby-sitter, please contact him. Due to the fact that his wife has gone to work on the third shift, he says he is getting plenty of practice and will soon be an expert!

WEAVE ROOM
