

WEAVING NO. 2

2nd Shift

By Leila Black

Mr. Louie Black of Richmond, Va., spent several days with his father, Harry, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. James McMillan and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Nelson in Whitmire last weekend.

Linda, Jimmy and Kay McMillian are much better after being confined to their home because of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson and children visited in Greenville recently.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Harvely, Mr. and Mrs. Cooper Powell and Mr. Bill Hardy were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Black.

Birthdays

Mrs. Inez McGinnis had a birthday, but didn't say which one.

Miss Doris Tucker will have a birthday Nov. 28th.

Anniversaries

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roper celebrated a wedding anniversary Nov. 7th—22nd one.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Black their 11th anniversary on Nov. 11.

Sorry to report that Lloyd Taylor and Mr. Turner are out, due to sickness. Sure glad to have Coley back after being ill several days.

WEAVING NO. 2

3rd Shift

By Jeanette Gilliam

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Wilson celebrated their 16th anniversary Oct. 7th.

Birthdays

Ann Thompson—Nov. 3rd.

WEAVING NO. 3

By Grace Wooten and Mildred Kinard

The employees of No. 3 Weaving, Clinton Mills, would like to say "Thanks" for the flu shots.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Terry, Jr., and children, of Williston, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Terry, and attended the homecoming game at P. C. On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Joe Terry and Mrs. Posey Taylor shopped in Greenville.

Patrolman and Mrs. Charles Oxner of Aiken, spent a recent weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Oxner.

Mrs. R. C. Oxner and Mrs. Mary Bouknight visited Mrs. Oxner's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Campbell, in Charlotte recently.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Williams had as their guests on a recent weekend Mrs. Florence Moore, J. D.'s sister, from Augusta; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wood and Tony of Greenwood, and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Slay and children of Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Williams, and Mr. and Mrs. Dessie Wilkes motored to Chimney Rock recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gibbs spent a recent weekend in Gatlinburg, Tenn.

Your reporter (Grace) and Cecil, with Eunice and Earl Braswell visited Grandfather Mountain the last of October and nearly froze to death, but the scenery was worth it.

Has anyone noticed the tree growing on top of Mrs. Dora Leopard's house on Sloan St.? I know she's glad she's going to move out before it gets grown.

The Joe Ward's and children of Greenwood were dinner guests of the Rudolph Barkers on a recent Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Turner, of Williamston, were recent weekend visitors to the Grady Turners.

Billy and Jerry Butler, sons of the Lewis Butlers, Jr., and Larry Smitherman, son of the M. D. Smithermans, underwent a tonsilectomy in October. All are doing fine and are back in school.

Seaman John Lee Simmons, son of Mrs. Estelle Roland, was home for a weekend visit Nov. 1st. After reporting back to Charleston Naval base, he will be stationed in Norfolk, Va.

Glad to report that Mrs. Estelle Roland is able to be back at work after a three weeks illness. Estelle wants to take this means to thank friends for the shower, visits, phone calls, and other nice things done for her during her illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Suttles and Kenny were home recently for a visit to their parents and friends. Jimmy is attending Duke University in Durham, N. C., and working toward another scholarship. Keep up the good work, Jimmy, we're proud of you.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Kuykendall, of Tryon, N. C., visited his sister-in-law, Mrs. Alice Kuykendall.

The Loyal Order of Moose have begun their annual campaign of "Operation Santa Claus", for underprivileged children. Anyone having toys or wanting to make a donation to help make this a success, are asked to contact Cecil Wooten, or J. E. Braswell, Jr.

SPI and Mrs. Jimmy Wooten and children spent a long weekend with his parents, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wooten, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Griffin and daughters of Florence spent a weekend recently with relatives.

Mrs. Oscar Kinard and Mrs. Carolus Davis were visitors in Ware Shoals recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Carolus Davis, Mrs. Tommy McElveen, Mrs. Oscar Kinard and Mrs. Ben Mauldin attended the Annual Inspection of the Woodruff Chapter Order of the Eastern Star in Woodruff, October 25th.

Birthdays and Anniversaries
A1/C Harold Meadors had a birthday Nov. 13.

Sam Owens observes his silver wedding — ooph! we mean silver birthday Nov. 27.

Junior Sipes' birthday is Nov. 28.

Sam Lawson celebrated his birthday Nov. 21. The two Sams and Junior are warp hands and I hope you find their picture, all taken together elsewhere in this issue.

Evans Lever had a birthday Nov. 8, bu. I don't think he celebrated it.

Verle Barker was 14 years old Nov. 25.

Mrs. Bill Campbell, daughter of the R. C. Oxners, had a birthday Nov. 3.

Cpl. Cole L. Blease, Jr., of Fort Riley, Kansas, has a birthday Dec. 9.

Jimmy Hughes—Nov. 12th.

Mildred Kinard—Nov. 5th.

Oscar Kinard—Nov. 6th.

Mell Huey—Nov. 30th.

Cleveland Campbell—Nov. 24th.

SPINNING NO. II

By Jennie Hames

Mrs. Cleo Lusk and Mrs. Mary Chaney honored Mrs. Lusk's daughter, Mrs. Nancy Beckham, with a stork shower recently at Mrs. Lusk's home. A number of guests were present and each remembered her with a lovely gift. Games were played and later on refreshments were served. An enjoyable evening was had by all.

Chuck Giles, freshman at Oak Ridge Military School, in Oak Ridge, N. C., visited Miss Judy Laney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Laney, while he was home.

Mrs. Margie Woodward is back at work after being out several weeks on leave of absence.

Birthdays

Jackie Ann Gilmer—Nov. 12th.

Lucille Woody—Nov. 12th.

Riley Gilmer—Nov. 25th.

Elaine Campbell—Nov. 19th.

Peggy Moore—Nov. 7th.

ANNOUNCEMENT

I wish to thank each and everyone that sent the lovely shower gifts to my party.

Nancy Beckam

SPINNING NO. 3

By Jennie Hames

Carolyn Ross, daughter of Sgt. and Mrs. B. F. Ross of Phoenix City, Ala., will be married December 20th. Mrs. Lula Ross will go to Ft. Benning for the wedding of her granddaughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Fuller and daughter, Gail, were weekend guests of her mother, Mrs. Vesta Eubanks, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles Lawson and daughter, Dallas, visited Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith and children in Greenville.

Miss Tonita Lawson recently visited Miss Mary Banks of Cross Hill.

Birthdays

Miss Linda Osborn—Nov. 28th.

Lavern Osborn—Dec. 8th.

Shirley Ott—Oct. 28th.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Oren Lewis of

"I see the birdie" says Gary Ficklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Ficklin, Clinton Mills, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Meadors, Clinton Mills.

Little Teresu Woodward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Woodward, Clinton Mills, is nine months old.

Jackie Ann Gilmer, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Gilmer, celebrated her 7th birthday Nov. 12th. Mrs. Gilmer is employed in No. 2 Spinning Room, Clinton Mills.

Lynn and Vickie Foster are the attractive daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Foster, Clinton Mills. Lynn will celebrate her first birthday Dec. 5th, Vickie is five.

Donald Handback, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Handback, Clinton Mills, celebrated his 12th birthday November 6.

This lovely young lady is Lois Trammell, daughter of Mrs. Lillian Trammell, Clinton Mills. Lois is in the 10th grade at Woodruff High School.

Terry Lee is the five months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Talmadge Sanders, Clinton Mills.

These two young gentlemen are Sam Owens, employed at Clinton Mills, and Truman Owens, employed at Clinton Mills Store. How time flies!