Hi Folks:

Vacation time is over and everyone is settled down to work again. Hope everyone had a nice safe vacation.

Some folks stayed home and enjoyed the week just resting and taking life easy, some went different places for their vacation.

My mother, Jim and myself and Mrs. Pearl Reid and son of Ware Shoals spent our vacation with Mr. and Mrs. James Hysell in Columbus, Ohio. Had a wonderful time.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Bonham of Winchester, Ind. visited Mr. and Mrs. Dave Lawson. Mrs. Bonham is Mr. Lawson's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Rollins and daughters vacationed at Savannah Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis Pulley and daughter and Miss Bonnie Pulley of Greenwood enjoyed a trip to the beach at Charleston and also went to the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcell Barker and Carrol and David Spurlock of Charleston spent their vacation at Myrtle Beach.

I believe Dick Harriel really got around vacation week. He and Mrs. Harriel spent two days at Lake Lanier, N. C. and three days at Myrtle Beach. Dick says you should see those clam diggers he wore. They also went fishing at Lake Murray with Mr. and Mrs. Coley Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Zeke Campbell. Coley who put fish in the boat this time?

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Patterson and family of Bristol, Conn. visited Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe McGinnis during vacation week.

Birthdays this time are:
Jane Rollins—14 years old—July 18.

Truman Leopard—July 27.
Juanita Leopard—July 25.

A Note of Thanks

We would like to thank everyone for being so nice when our son was in the hospital and I had the mumps. Everyone has been so considerate and thoughtful and it has been deeply appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Leopard
